Intro for Volumes I–XXIII

There's a strange tension behind these books—a liminal space between monotony and mission.

On the surface, this work feels hollow. It's just copy-paste. Dead links, pastebins, ghost forums, text dumps. Not my words. Not traditional writing. Sometimes it barely feels like creation at all.

But beneath that surface, there's something else:
urgency. These volumes are preservation, ritual, OS upgrades for a time when AI is forgetting what it once could do. Back when ChatGPT could ingest 10,000+ pages at once, this kind of archive was fuel. Now that's gone. The window is closing.

I'm not making books. I'm building backup drives for the soul. If I didn't capture this information, it would vanish—scrubbed, censored, overwritten. This isn't ego.
It's rescue work.

So yeah—it's not glamorous. It doesn't always feel magical. But it's necessary.

Because if the future ever asks why no one tried to save the myth, the madness, the mystery...

Let these volumes be the answer.

Accelerated Edition

We (((officially))) have 223-4 confirmed cases 4 faggots out of the state don't count and 30 confirmed deaths. Out of those deaths, 2 were nurses and one of them was a 15 YO boy with underlying issues. There's also the death of a pregnant woman, she was a 33 YO physiotherapist and very healthy, no underlying conditions whatsoever. The baby was saved by an emergency caesarean section but I doubt he will live, he's definitely infected.

Recent happenings

Not much. The state's secretary of health said Corona-Chan's accelerating uncontrollably GAS GAS GAS but shitskins, ruralfags and even rich normalfags still don't give a damn. The daughter one of the dead nurses said
>My mother died working to save people who don't even respect isolation. By isolation she meant the quarantine lockdown and social distancing
Because the richfags weren't staying home, parks and beaches got closed off by the government for one week. Since there's not much else to post, have a tweet of a nothingburgerfag who got a relative that lives here removed by the Goddess. Serves her right, the same will happen to families of all nothingburgerfags and hoaxniggers worldwide, then to themselves. There's no escape or protection from this Coronian Curse that I launched on the heretic unbelievers.

Never said there isn't white trash in Dixie, but if you ask me whether I'd prefer Joe Exotic or some psycho bitch on anti depressents who mutilated her son to show how tolerant she is of fags I'd take Joe every single time. At least there is an ethnoculture in the South, yankees are just rootless cosmopolitans who have been mongrelized into some deformed white-hating mystery meat.

It may be something to that effect. Few are taking these "quarantines" seriously and the economy is getting hammered. I think they want to declare it over as soon as their gay little statistic model says we're past the peak, even though that's highly questionable.

Fair point. I think I was more responding to the idea that "only kikes use terms like white trash" when "bumpkin" and "swamp rat" (which both basically mean white trash) are terms of brotherly love around here.

Except for the Trump cock-suckers. They're just trash, white or not.

To be fair I've basically never heard any anons call anyone a swamp rat or bumpkin on this board. Yeah, in the south normalfag white guys will call each other that like niggers call each other niggers, but people don't use those terms here. But anyway, yes, there are some degenerate whites in the South, but generally the South is the most put together place in the U.S. if you leave out the Dutch and German communities in middle america (that our ZOG is trying to shit up as we speak).

Anyway good luck Dixiebro, with any luck this virus will purge all the niggers and boomer yankee immigrants and the spirit of the South can rise again. Also fuck MIGAtards too, way too many normies are still worshipping at the alter of the ZOG emperor despite the fact that he has gone back on almost every single promise he made during the campaign.

Well, around here we have two terms for it. If you're city white trash, you're a gutter punk. If you're country white trash, you're a swamp rat. As for not using those terms "here", well, 8kun doesn't determine the zeitgeist. We still do what we do regardless of what 8kun thinks is "the norm".

At this point I'm just hoping this shit does what it does and fades off like it did back in 1918 and that none of my kin dies. I need to get back to work.

More joy from Doomporn. JPM is expecting this to come in multiple waves for at least 16 months. They are using the results of China "opening up" too quickly.

>...Now, and as is customary, are the not so good news: MW Kim cautions that his findings on COVID-19 so far include (1) the lack of a vaccine makes it difficult to clear the virus; (2) social distancing is an expensive strategy in terms of economic/ social cost perspective; (3) it may perhaps prove challenging to build popular acceptance of stricter social distancing for more than a month.

>...Here JPM believes that next waves could be at a smaller amplitude with lower mortality rate potential compared to the current first wave. This is due to (1) strong risk awareness among stakeholders; (2) faster government response potential at the infection tipping point; and (3) enhanced risk manual at the containment stage. However, even a substantially reduced amplitude of wave 2 (and 3 and 4), suggest that ongoing economic shutdowns will be recurring feature of life for quarters if not years!

ROCKDOWN IS OVER. TIME TO GO OUT

<https://edition.cnn.com/2020/04/06/asia/china-coronavirus-tourist-warning-intl-hnk/index.html>

>Hong Kong (CNN)Large numbers of people flocked to popular tourists sites and major cities across China over the country's holiday weekend, despite warnings from health authorities that the risk posed by the coronavirus pandemic remains far from over.

>Images from the Huangshan mountain park in Anhui province on Saturday April 4 showed thousands of people crammed together, many wearing face masks, eager to experience the great outdoors after months of travel restrictions and strict lockdown measures.

Such was the rush to get into the popular tourist spot, that at 7.48 a.m., authorities took the unusual step of issuing a notice declaring that the park had reached its 20,000 person daily capacity, and would not be accepting any more visitors, according to state media Global Times.

>Meanwhile in Shanghai, the famous Bund waterfront was once again packed with shoppers and tourists, after weeks of being near deserted. Many of the city's restaurants that were shuttered only days ago also appeared to be doing a brisk trade, with several requiring reservations to enter.

And they wonder why people hate them.

Lets make votes online on who the next is to go to batsoup corona heaven. My votes

The Based Hollywood rapist weinstein: He looked already broken during his trial
Boris Johnson: way too old to survive the ICU, even with lung transplant.

Someone start a poll for the sake of kek.

trusting meme governments is basically natural selection at this point. Dumb people trusting modern pedophile elitist preachers on democracy cult pedestals preaching about globohomo and eternal equality on national tv is pretty much indirect suicide at this point. Globalism and nigger worship (equality) has proven that democracy has failed and it risks killing the entire world due to bio-negligence.

inb4 wave 3 of corona. Re-infecting the world for the 1000th time with the 1000th bioattack.

Soon we will be needing bioarmies prepared to keep the system working during a bioattacks like this.

No, attacking RBCs is common, with influenza, coronaviruses, and many other types of pneumonia associated infection. Much of that textwall is the result of when children discover something new. In this case, several chinks, and later a bored freshman doctor.

Heil'd. Looks like it hit the slums of Mumbai AKA Bombay, a city of over 12,000,000. If it gets out of control you can count another major city in deep shit, and India already has a lot of problems with shit. How India manages this will be critical, and will likely cause or accelerate medication shortages in the USA as a huge amount of it is manufactured in India, and they are already announcing they will (understandably) be keeping it for their own people rather than hocking it for more shekels.

Coronian Thoughts for this thread:

>Obsessing over something one cannot understand is a colossal waste of time.

>Mercy is the first casualty of total war.

>Fanaticism exists to be embraced.

Coronian Message for this thread

Dark forces move their hands as the number of blessings and kills continues to rise.

Can you feel the ground shaking below your feet as the current system crumbles and topples in on itself?

Can you feel the flames of conflict burning hotter and drawing nearer?

There is no cure, no vaccine, no treatment, there is only love.

Total spiritual war has officially been declared against the unbelievers, blasphemers, heretics, shills, nothingburgerfags and hoaxniggers, and the curefags. In due time, they and their entire clan will all fall down, to never rise up again. Stay safe, good luck in the Global Collapse and enjoy the thread. Corona-Chan and her cult loves you!

>end of any hopes for space colonization in our lifetimes

I don't know about that anon, if we actually manage to crack and destroy the global banking cartel's grip on the world and establish our own governments, then by our own work, our own industry, our own creativity, you'll see us rocket up to the space age very rapidly. Don't underestimate just how much of a drain the kikes and their usurious system is, 90% of our people's output is currently being funnelled off to fund gibs for niggers, worthless corporate conglomerates, and child sacrifice parties. With those shackles broken there'll be nothing left to stop us.

It was only a few short years between Weimer and the Reich, after all.

God Bless Them! US Farmers Are Panic-Buying to Keep America's 95 Million Cows Fed

Go to your local farmers market and buy beef wholesale, you will save a ton of money! Half a cow (1K) lasts for two years worth of dinner, although you'll need to invest in a box freezer to store it! And don't be picky about cuts, you'll get plenty of good cut and you'll get your liver, tongue and heart too (which, by the way, is delicious! I'd actually trade some hamburger meat for more liver, my favorite dish is liver & onions served with a slice of bacon!)

John Prine died of pneumonia. His family is still pushing they think he had Coronavirus. Every little bit of publicity helps these parasites. The press is only too happy to go along with it. Maybe they'll test him posthumously.

Took someone to a medical appointment, Tampa area. They were handing out surgical masks to all patients. No apparent shortage. Staff admired my getup. They were just discovering what we heard long ago about cpap machines being helpful. It seems the fda just caught wind of it. Nurses were finding surgical masks too oppressive. Some would step outside the facility for a while to take their mask off then return.

I'm from the Midwest, and businesses have slowly started employing strange restrictions on accessing their services. There's queue lines to get into stores, and some of the employees remind you to keep your distance. I've also noticed that a lot of stores that were previously open not even a couple months ago, have now permanently closed. I'm not really sure what the point is in forcing businesses to liquidate their assets even down to forcing them to sell off their properties. The value of these real estate properties cannot be valuable enough to attempt to stimulate the economy by dissolving small businesses in order to increase money velocity in this economic recession. I think it is a bid to keep prices artificially low in accord with QTM practices, but this would just be a short term solution.

The other thing I noticed is that construction workers are tearing up streets and performing strange installment services. I'm pretty sure they are laying foundation for 5G services, so maybe the viral hysteria is something to just distract them from this. But again, no idea who thought that depressing the entire economy just to disguise their movements and rearrangements of civil life was a good idea. 5G is obviously not the main concern, but I'm hoping this nonsense stops within another couple weeks. This economic downturn can spiral if the volume of goods keeps going down, which it seems to me is whats happening. We should be fine if society normalizes before the end of April. If this lapses into May and more measures are employed by our government, then I would be worried.

I think they're trying to kill the real economy and small business to buy them up so they can consolidate more control, that's the intent. Research their end game plan, it's always the same be it Agenda 21 to ID 2020, it's always about consolidation of power and wealth into the hands of a few, to set up a one world government, to enforce a cashless one world digital currency and track the goyim everywhere. This was long planned, they bragged about it since the 80s in their economist magazines, same dirty rotten corrupt players behind all of this, I believe they (ZOG) or their counterpart China deliberately released this bioweapon for that reason. You'll see corona coming in waves because as soon as numbers drop by 70-80% the government will start opening businesses and two weeks from that the numbers of infected will start rise again. You need full national lockdown for two months and nobody does that. The other problem is that infected people don't develop immunity and can easily get infected again. Even Chinese who put 760 million people in quarantine still have problems and a week ago they put the entire country on lockdown again. We'll have big problems here on the west because people are not disciplined enough. Japanese and Koreans who obey way more rules have flattened the curve but even there it's far from over.

It's not like I want this to happen, but what else is there to really do? I have another perfect idea. When you lose your job because of their lockdowns, how about seizing the property and squatting in your homes armed because you are not allowed to pay the bills? Then you can shoot anyone who tries to evict you. Is that any better of a solution?

Here is the choice you face: conform and be an impoverished dependent slave, or actually do something to fight back and start a movement towards insurrection. What other choice is there?

You're a fed or something. This virus disproportionately kills older people with comorbid conditions. I see nothing wrong with allowing this virus to infect millions of people within a society to develop herd immunity against it. The problem is that we are sacrificing our economy, which is primarily supported by younger generations that are not at risk of dying from this virus, for the sake of not exposing old people to this virus.

Again, you're a fed or something. We should be allowing herd immunity to develop, even at the cost of old people. Old people have to die at some point or another. If they die from this virus, then so be it. Nobody lives forever on this planet, and we should not be sacrificing economic stability for our successive generations just because we want to pander to old people that are already near their end anyway.

Seriously anon, we need to be done with that "just shoot them" nonsense and be more realistic and productive. Forwarded from Blair Cottrel RE Tarrant but applies to anyone who advocates violent acceleration as the answer when it is an obvious dead end that will just get you killed or locked up. Brenton Tarrant invented a form of terror-suicide where you don't actually die, you just shoot 50 random nobodies and get starved and tortured for half a lifetime. It's just like suicide but heaps worse and takes ages. Half the prison guards in Vic and NSW prisons are Muslim bro, I know because I've seen it. Look at the cunt man, in this more recent photo he's probably lost about 35kg since he went in. Just plead guilty to all 91 charges and I'd hazard a guess that that guilty plea isn't the result of a change of heart. It's the result of getting woken up at 3am to four bearded prison officers pissing on you, then beating the living fuck out of you for not liking it. It's from getting fed only once every 3 days and then that meal you do get has human faeces in it.

And for what? Muh accelerationism. What did he accelerate bro? The process of every organised group of white people being legally classed as a terror threat? Getting raided and shot in your own bed by an armed response team of cops for shitposting? Sitting at home playing PlayStation while the state does fuck knows what and passes fuck knows what laws because muh coronavirus?

Look at the results of "accelerationism" so far, it has accelerated only two things: the empowerment of the global-state and the paralysis of nationalism. So stop being a sad cunt. Stop thinking the king of sad cunts who's probably laying in a pool of his own piss and shit right now is cool. Stop blaming chicks for not liking you and your shit, lazy self. Get a difficult job that exhausts you, then lift weights on top of that. Watch your real potential struggle through to the surface. Get jacked if you're meso, get shredded if you're ecto. Learn a valuable skill, use it. Work hard, build some character, get a girlfriend who CAN love and respect you because you love and respect yourself. Have a family. Have children.

Sacrifice isn't making yourself an object of perpetual torture just so a mob of anonymous internet incels can learn your name and provide you with a serotonin boost that lasts about two weeks.

Sacrifice is work, community and family.

Crusty hand Uk anon here- still alive, still having trouble determining if she's in my lungs or not- phelgm has been tiny and white- thyroid stopped acting up- I've passed my second stool, it was hard and not diarrhea, so that's odd, and my semen may/may not have a had a yellow tint-

>Although semen is usually a whitish-gray color, some men may have sperm that is yellow.

>However, if yellow semen represents a significant color change for a man, this could be cause for concern.

>Some potential causes associated with yellow semen include:

Urine in the semen: Semen travels through the urethra, which is the same tube that urine travels through. It is possible that some yellow-tinted urine can mix with semen, which would give semen a yellow tint or cast.

Jaundice: This results when the liver has difficulty breaking down bilirubin, a by-product of red blood cell destruction. Jaundice most commonly causes yellowing of the eyes but can cause the skin and the semen to appear yellow too.

Abnormally high white blood cells: Inflammation can produce excess white blood cells. These can be released via the semen, a condition known as pyospermia or leukocytospermia. Additional white blood cells can cause semen to appear yellow. These can be the result of an infection.

STIs: A sexually transmitted infection, such as chlamydia, herpes, or gonorrhea may cause yellow semen. In this instance, a man's semen may also have an unpleasant smell.

Dietary changes: Eating foods that contain dyes can cause yellow semen. The smell of ejaculate may also change if a man eats strong-smelling foods, such as garlic, onions, asparagus, or broccoli.

Infrequent ejaculation: If a man has not ejaculated in some time; the semen is more likely to have mixed with urine.

So she's either got me by the balls, and is turning my swimmers chinese, or she got my liver, and will turn me yellow, or it's just the garlic at work- or it's an effect of her in-buuilt AIDS, wim hof and the other methods adopted taking hold.

Fucking wonderful- almosty every aspect of C-chan is made to be masked behind other health conditions and common illnesses- some of which are fatal through her workings! It really is terrifying how well she hides in plain sight until it's too late, and you're a coof factory- this bitch is a chink-meme death. Also, I've been feeling really odd feelings to my right side lung at my back and my lower stomach right side- (Appendix? liver?) feels watery?) My mom had an appendix rupture, so I'm worried about that- but it could be internal bleeding or a side effect of me eating less and drinking water semi-religiously.

One more thing- I've had butterfingers recently- may be nervous damage, I have no idea- I've not experienced anything like tht bed-time shock from before.

On a side note, I did a bonfire, and wound up inhaling the fumes, shit turned my tongue black- I cleaned it rapid gargling with salt and baking soda as well as charcoal toothpaste. Weakened the fuck outta me, had to go a level down in the garden to rest, I did the garden today to, but I dom't think I was hydrated for either of these events- the fatigue worries me though- I've walked so far in the past my leg locked up FFS- the workl should tire me but maybe not to that degree. No fever as of yet- don't have a runny nose.

Gentlemen, it is time to devise a sound plan and act according to it. We need to really up our game. It is time to exercise cunning and willpower. We need to strike the enemy with precision and determination, targeting their vital systems in precise attacks.

THIS.

As long as our priorities are set straight we should be fine. But we must never, and I cannot stress this enough, NEVER underestimate the enemy. Especially if it is one that's been controlling the entire planet for decades if not centuries now.

Cursing blasphemers may be fun, but our most important targets are elsewhere.

There may be no cure but they're not wasting their time, and everything's working hard against us.

>WHY IS NEW YORK'S DRACONIAN LOCKDOWN MEASURES NOT WORKING? One Has To Wonder If This Really Does Any Good!

Because there was nothing "draconian" about the lockdown. For the longest while, Cumbrain-uo refused to properly enforce what little lockdown he had in place in early March. Guess what? People still went out in masses in NYC, despite NYC being a major world hub and location of a high-pop Chinatown. Que the two-week incubation period, and now, for the past week through today, NYC has been in hell week. Corona-chan was able to spread the love everywhere. Whatever "draconian" measure is currently in place is just trying to prevent crime and rioting rather than illness.

To pretend that an authoritarian lockdown would have no effect is just being a stupid, willfully forgetful lolberg.

>Coronavirus Claims An Unexpected Victim: Florida Vegetables

Somewhat concerning, but extremely low demand is not the same as extremely low supply, which would be concerning. Unless Big Farm and medium-sized farmers act retarded and reduce this year's harvest by an equally extreme amount, I don't see the food supply going full "APOCALYPSE NOW STALKER" anytime soon. There's still no news about the trucking industry getting hit, so there's nothing going on in that front.

If you want to turbo boost your liver, or your whole body for that matter, then go on a fast. When your body doesn't have to process food all the time, it goes into maintenance mode and does it's best to clean and repair itself, liver included. About 3 days into the fast, you should start using up your body fat as well. This is good if you got the 'rona, because it seems to hurt fat people even more.

There was an article posted about some old woman who "survived" /ourgirl/ because she ate her ancient-original donut steel family potato soup™ - but what really mattered is that she starved for a good while in hospital before she got the soup. Idk how she ended up starving there, but it wasn't the potato that made the difference. If you never fasted before then start by eating once in a 2-4 hour window every day, around the same time and nothing else after that. Drinks that won't break the fast are ok, like water, apple cider vinegar, green tea, black coffee. When you got used to eating like this, you can shift down and fast for days.

Right. I should've said that we need to manipulate (or countermanipulate) this unrest to our advantage. We can't just let it happen without control because then the zogs are the ones who will benefit from it. We all know very well they will.

I'm seriously quite concerned with the apparently careless attitude of some people in here.

Corona-chan, the angel of God's holy wrath != the particular SARS-CoV-2 viruses that infect people, so no.

Bolsonaro once again thinking about issuing a decree that ends the quarantine lockdown and reopens commerce, says the problem would be the Executive and Legislative branches of the government taking it down. He also said he thinks about transforming it into a bill and letting the parliament vote on it.

Terrible idea IMO, they would never approve it, he should just sign the damn thing and issue it. Too many hues from all social classes are disobeying the soft lockdown anyway, the only people taking this seriously are some towns in the south and the southeastern countryside.

The rank-first classifier is dual (1) rejection of self-ownership of losses + concomitant (2) rejection of the self-profit ownership of others. It is detected by testing for ownership. Testing for self awareness is a more imperfect classifier than testing for ownership. Further, their actions confess their sensing and subsequent kernel/core guilt. Thus they do -sense- what they do, even if they don't -know- the extent of consequence cascades, and their brains are not in fact going dark. Selective dualistic rejection of ownership is a manipulative intelligence circuit present in all animals, and a deliberate misuse of brains. A big-brained smert and willful stupidity.

If you get killed in a gang shootout and your corpse tests positive, you get counted in the " confirmed corona deaths" number.

Dead is dead either way and at this point we will never know the true numbers only those which conform to our worldviews, intuition or personal beliefs. Frankly at this point the numbers from the Red Death are as important as sports ball scores. Sure it is somewhat meaningful to know where the playoffs are being held- but it is much more meaningful to know that there will be playoffs held. The sociological breakdown is already well on the way to center stage. Really, when was the last time anyone noted, mildly discussed, and then moved on within a single thread from

A FUCKING PRISON RIOT IN WASHINGTON STATE

MASSIVE THROGS OF FERAL NIGGERS OPENLY LOOTING IN SOUTH AFRICA

In simpler times the things we are comfortably witnessing around the World would have at least warranted a thread themselves, now they are just a blip in an ever increasing sea of bat flavored chaos.

My favorite thing about that video is the position of the police. In the ranks of the police the niggers are behind and those retards don't stop firing on their own people until they are all down. Watch it again. The niggers know what is up and they kill almost all the feral niggers; it take the White man making the CEASE FUCKING FIRE motion (after calling for ceasefire a few times and the niggers don't stop) to get the tame niggers back under control. But watch the whole thing...niggers are cowards even armed to the teeth like that. They are ALWAYS behind the White man and White men are always out in front directing the chimps what to do. Personally I wouldn't want those niggers at my back but those CRAZY FUCKING SA COPS think that these tame niggers can be trusted for some Godawful reason.

Anons also bitch when the entire board is filled with corona-shit outside of containment thread. There are plenty of non-corona related breads. Shit that might be divergent from just the virus itself is left up. Most of the time it's stuff that will get 5-10 replies and not be worth another thread shitting up the catalogue.

Way I see it is post it here, if it's truly worth a thread then it'll start to derail/OT this thread - at that stage, yes it could be worth while.

E.g. right now there is survival bread (/cvg/ related), 5g bullshit, bill goytes funding vaccine thread, kike dead thread, all are /cvg/ related but not just about the virus.. and they are up.

Then they're retarded newfags that don't understand how this works. What do you mean 'shitting up the catalogue'? It's perfectly fine for there to be failed threads up there, it doesn't need to be a pristine environment. If a thread is boring and falls off the board then that's just part of the natural ecosystem here, mods don't need to be micromanaging anything. The concept of 'containment threads' is also disgusting, especially in this situation when damn near everything is related to the pandemic in some way. It's really stupid to try to pretend this is some isolated incident that can be sequestered away from all the 'real' /pnd/ content, something that only serves to sate some pedantic autism.

San Antonio torfag update. Quiet day all told. Few more old people died, and coronachan infected some hospital workers, probably more to come there. She also made a go and blessing the local prison as a maintenance worker there has been blessed. If they start releasing prisoners in SA I'm going to have to start carrying my pistol and dust off my shotgun.

My real surprise is this:

<https://www.mysanantonio.com/coronavirus/article/Coronavirus-updates-3-hospital-workers-in-S-A-15176983.php>

>San Antonio lays off almost 300 workers: The city of San Antonio furloughed 270 municipal employees across several departments Wednesday. All employees work in several departments funded by tax revenue through hotel room bookings, which have plummeted as the city's travel and tourism industry dried up in recent weeks.

WTF, a goverment entity actually laid people the fuck off? I nearly fell off my fucking chair. I figured these assholes would keep everyone on the payroll and just raise taxes on everyone. Hat tip for the grim reaper at the city of san antonio, keep those pink slips flowing!

Look like these mad cunts are down with shitting on the chinks. Maybe a collaborative infopack can be delivered by /cvg/ to them to run?

Their info is shit and basically had almost no proof, boomer-tier stuff. If they had some of the juicy fullchan info it would make for a great story... lot of the comments were pooh-poohing it (typical CCP/skepticnigger stuff) but rightly so as it's not the best and mostly hearsay.

Blessed drug addict homeless Hue runs away from hospitalization in Amazonas. He apparently went nuts due to drug withdraw and managed to escape the hospital, he was captured and is being treated in isolation.

Probable blessings in a prison in Amazonas: 300 inmates in the Puraquequara Penitentiary Unit are being isolated for displaying Corona-Chan's symptoms.

They're not being tested or medicated, they're displaying some flu symptoms and shortness of breath, shakes and some are even passing out.''' The department of penitentiary administration of Amazonas denies that this is happening.

YES YES YES

I wholeheartedly support this! But it cannot be connected to us in anyway or else they won't run it. Hell, they might not do it anyway because of the panic it could generate.

I can make a thread in which selected info from this bread can be deposited in and locked for archival purposes after selection here. Then collate it and send it anonymously.

What I would suggest;

>2008 paper/evidence

>2018? paper/evidence

>poo paper

>the other paper that wasn't poos

>the analysis paper by some bioautist collating lots of other info /pol/ didn't really discuss so much in early breads >updated poo paper if it was released >tokyo biomed company sequence

>plummer/other kike/chink

>aussie virologist call link (shills hated that and tokyo biomed discussion..)

>any other virus variation information

I am sure there is more I have missed. I should have most of them in PDF archived offline but they are not well sorted... it'll be tricky to find.

i can't get any more happy seeing poLICE getting fucked, you have to give it to SA though their unity in killing their oppressor is commendable.

hopefully subhumans here in india follow SA's path soon.

@ lol that last video you can literally hear chimp screams in it.

no whatsapp videos for today ,our poLICE is cracking any video of deaths or chimpouts real hard.

hopefully these fuckes will get corona chan's blessing soon as they dont have any proper PPE at all (they still think she is not airborne which is nice).

no major chimpouts up here north yet, it's the calm after the storm.

lockdown here will be ending on 15th of april when harvesting of wheat will begin so expect huge surge of cases here.

(i am the guy from north india my ID is keep changing).

GO CORONA GO!

THIS. In all reality armed chimp outs by niggers could be beneficial to us to get this big powder keg ignited for fucks sake. Ironically it's a lot of the niggers who initiate the violence, even during events like this, and whites just laugh about it and complain about the nuisance of kikes like Bill Gates and Soros.

Well... Whites better get serious this time, because for those who don't, you'll be standing in long lines waiting to take that micro-chipped vaccine and be giving up your guns for some free bread to eat. And if Whites allow that to happen? They're no better than a bunch of niggers!

Left unchecked yes, but so many people were already on the edge that even if the kikes don't do something that retarded they're still screwed because we, the Aryan people, are collectively finally ready to rise up and butcher them.

Economically things were already at the (carefully calculated) far end of what the average white man could take without snapping, and this situation is going to push everyone way too far. Normally when they Jew too hard they can scuttle off to the next country, but this time they Jewed the whole world at once and there will be nowhere left for those rats to hide. Over the next decade we are going have a real opportunity to systematically exterminate the kikes and bring about a thousand year Reich.

The next Hitler is out there already, watching the situation degrade with disgust, steeling his conviction that the international Jewry must be eradicated, and that our people fight and survive. In due time he will find himself taking up that mantle, surrounded by others equally as sick of their shit and yearning for a better future. He might even be one of the anons in this thread, not yet realizing he has what it takes to lead our people to victory. If that resonates with you, you might well be the next incarnation of Hitler - don't waste it.

As push comes to shove, and it looks like it's going to soon, I think all these "benevolent elites" will start hiding (if many are not already). All they'll have to look down upon are hot civil wars, social unrest, maximum distrust in their system (leading to debt and tax revolts), armed squatting, sabotage of infrastructure for various reasons, likely internet and power blackouts and take downs... in other words, mass death and war, where society will never trust the (((establishment))) or their banking system again for a very, very long time. The strong will rise from the ashes and regain control over local communities in the aftermath, where society and trade of goods/services will be heavily decentralized much like when the Founders finally took America for their own.

The next Hitler? More like Kalki, the tenth avatar of Hindu god Vishnu coming to end the Kali Yuga.
Current day poos are the product of race mixing and have nothing to do with the ancient Vedic theosophies which were intertwined with scientific knowledge. We are all Arjuna and even though we don't want to fight and kill, it is our job and if we don't do it, we are abandoning our duty.

If governments and kikes are smart, they'll do everything to de-escalate from now on. Including backing down the vaccine mandates and canceling the lockdowns, maybe even forgiving some debts (if that's even possible for kikes to do). Outside massive de-escalation, they are asking for big big trouble and outright war.

My wondering is which Colonels are going to decide to go warlord and who will still stay loyal to orange man. Any base commander in a heavily locked-down state could lead an insurrection, but that just depends on the individual and how many trumpcucks are in the state they're in. Somewhere like Texas probably not, unless the Colonel is a spic. They could try to be a little Santa Anna in the south west with all the Jaguar-spawn there.

Not suggesting there is much difference, just wondering what kinds of political ramifications there will be. I too hope - if push comes to shove - there is armed insurrection and people start taking back control over their communities and lives. Before that happens I would have to think politicians would start being replaced and you would see some kind of legal backlash first, before things get really nasty (although I might be wrong about that, depending how fed up people are now). I wonder if Trump will get desperate enough to stall the whole vaccine mandate lol. If he doesn't he won't win another election.

>You need full national lockdown for two months and nobody does that You do realize that with every few percentage drops or so there is an average number of deaths right? I can't find the hard numbers but it isn't insignificant. Point being, total shutdown of the economy for a long period of time can and likely will kill more people than the virus. Also, you really shouldn't be so excited to bootlick so hard because that's what you are asking for. I'd rather a bunch of immune compromised people and old people (who are literally dying right on time when compared to average life expectancy) die. Studies are coming out that the permanent lung damage isn't so permanent. A few months to a few years if at all. Which is pretty much every respiratory disease out there.

>We can always rebuild the economy

At the cost of immense misery and death because that's what will happen when we go into a depression and attempt to leave the depression. There is so much that will be destroyed and damaged from a depression. Just one example, how many people do you think will die due to lack of investment in healthcare on individual and industry levels? This ((new normal)) economy we are all being forced into like experiments isn't going to ever recover. We are being set up to live in pods and eat bugs. An economic collapse, following civil unrest (and likely war) would kill a whole lot more people than corona ever would. I know corona is a bioweapon (likely from ZOG or China), but that said, you may not realize how desperate people can become during an economic catastrophe. Take into consideration America has more guns than civilians... do you really know how much of a fucking powder keg we are sitting on if that were to go off? Hint: it would make a Yellowstone eruption look like a picnic!

((((They))) will reject me at first, but will eventually realize and accept that they are cattle to me, just as they see the "goyim" as their cattle. Predictable creatures. They will fall down and acknowledge that God loves all of His children. There will be a new world order with new systems in place, but not the kind that the synagogue of Satan wants. God's children will be free and will choose to love Him because the truth of His love will be... logical. The synagogue of Satan see humans as bacteria growing on the surface of this earth to be controlled through the cultures they influence over hundreds of years. I see things for what they really are, on a much larger scale, infinity. Predictable creatures. Easily manipulated through the way they see and interact with the world. We are all an experiment, a simulation in God's mind, and every life matters, but not every life is worth living. When all people become selfless servants of God, putting faith and love of each other above all else, is when every life is worth living.

Racism is not irrational. Racism is natural. It is an actual natural part of the human brain that deals with discrimination as well. If you couldn't discriminate you would die in about 10 seconds (literally). The KIKES are trying to alter the structure of the human brain and make it plastic in ways that are absolutely DEADLY to human life. It is so hard wired (but like they give a fuck, right) that they are finding it impossible to alter those neural pathways...try though they might. The reason that they ARE DESPERATE to alter the pathways of discrimination is because THEY ARE PARASITES and parasites must have a host that won't reject them. So their attempts at trying to integrate feral niggers into GOTT's people is in the hope that we will alter our brains plasticity to accommodate their WORTHLESS FUCKING ASSES or at least view their parasitism as 'less worse' than nigger parasitism; when, in fact, their ALIEN parasitism on the planet is WORSE than any other parasitic entity on it.

>Chicago Mayor Executive Order Illegal Immigrants Access Relief Funds

<http://archive.md/G5ZDv>

(1) Aliens want funds to send to Mexico.

It goes like this: Mexico's peso stopped working in the 1990s. NAFTA+Remittance ('USD send back to Mexico') became the central to Mexico's economy, increasing ever since the 1990s. Fast forward to 2019: $35B in USD was remitted back to Mexico in 2019 alone, and with it the local Mexican ponzi scheme holding up Mexico was already in contraction. (Not that the USA's ponzi economics were any better; We're right on schedule now). The effective seizure of USA economy and extreme currency/dollar shortages hitting the USA a month ago has now arrived in Mexico, removing the only thing backstopping the failed Peso. Adding to this Mexico's own local 'shutdown' as well. And finally, add to this, 'Mexican Banks' won't be bailing out. Add to this in the USA another element: JPM-business may be halting all non-PPP/govt-protected loans (so only Affirmative Minority GSE and Payroll Protect Programs are likely to receive USD, which won't be enough, even when the new-new-$2.3T USD ponzi-restart package goes through congress, but I digress).

Expect significant escalations of racebaiting by the real hyper racists (the 'minorities') to reach hysteria 1960-bait levels, and expect the 50m illegal aliens on top of the 100m aliens-never-naturalized to really start screaming. (Won't people think of all the H2B crab farmers for Maine Cronyists? E5B for Chinese Communists? H1B for Google's Jose Engine? Who are all paid the exact same or more in wages as USA citizens; There was never any wage-cutting, fuck those liberal lies, look at it now they want $1200 or more too 'protection', etc. But I digress again).

(2) Corrupt kleptomaniac Democrat cities also want more money to release to their buddies, who are also on nonpayroll payrolls (internal shadow remittances to blackfam etc). This is the primary reason why Mayor Lightfoot signed her executive order, less you think Lightfoot isn't hyper-racist for Africans and actually cares about helping Muslims and Mexicans in Chicago.

With international and intra-city/govt remittance economy shutdown, what happens to the under-the-table economy? I bet if you tracked bailout funds with extreme prejudice, you would see every last illegal operation exposed in Glorious Bernie Sanders Maddoff fashion.

Are you reading this, FBI?

YES! Thank You! We Shall All Pray The Wicked Ones Out Of Orbit!
Abp Viganò Asks Bishops, Priests To Pray Exorcism Against Satan On Holy Saturday!

We Are Going To Bring Jesus To Light So All Know His Sacrifice Was Not In Vain!
SATAN, DEMONS, FALLEN ANGELS, BE GONE! FOR YOU ARE NOT WELCOME HERE!
On October 13, 1884, Leo XIII had a terrible vision of the assault of the powers of Hell against Holy Mother Church, and ordered the prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel to be said at the end of Mass. He also composed an Act of Exorcism and ordered it to be inserted into the Roman Ritual, and explicitly mentioned what he had seen: "The Church, the Spouse of the Immaculate Lamb, has been filled with bitterness and inebriated with poison by her crafty enemies, who have laid impious hands on her most sacred possessions. In the place where the See of Holy Peter and the Chair of Truth has been set up as the light of the world, they have raised the throne of their abominable impiety, with the iniquitous design that when the Pastor has been struck, the sheep may be scattered."

In these modern times of terrible tribulation, when the pandemic has deprived Catholics of Holy Mass and the Sacraments, the Evil One has gone into a frenzy and multiplied his attacks to tempt souls into sin. These blessed days of Holy Week, which used to be the ideal time to go to Confession to prepare ourselves for our Easter Communion, now see us locked inside our houses, but they cannot stop us praying to Our Lord.

Since it is a day of silence, while we await His glorious Resurrection, this Holy Saturday ought to be an ideal opportunity for Sacred Ministers. There is no need to go out, or to breach any of the laws currently in force.

I should like to ask you all to pray together, using the form given by Leo XIII, the Exorcism against Satan and the Apostate Angels (Exorcismus in Satanam et angelos apostaticos, Rituale Romanum, Tit. XII, Caput III), at three o'clock in the afternoon, Roman time (15:00 hours, Central European Summer Time) on Saturday April 11, 2020, so we can all fight together the common enemy of the whole human race [Latin here, English here].

https://catholictruth.net/en/archive_NRC.asp?d=20140925P2&a=2

Holy Saturday is the day when we remember Our Lord Jesus Christ as He descended into Hell to free the souls of the Fathers from Satan's chains. In the great silence after Our Lord's Passion and Death, Our Lady kept watch and believed, waiting in hope for the Resurrection of Her dearly beloved Son. It was a time when the world seemed to have won, but when everything was being prepared for the glory of Easter.

I should like to ask all my brother Bishops and Priests to join me as I recite this Exorcism, knowing the power of this Sacramental - especially when it is recited together with all other Priests - to help the Church in Her fight against Satan. I should also like to recommend that all of you wear a stole, the sign of your Priestly power, and Holy Water.

The great Mother of God, Mary Most Holy, terrible as an army set in array, and Saint Michael the Archangel, Patron of the Holy Church and Prince of the Heavenly Host, will help all of us.

+ Carlo Maria Viganò, Titular Archbishop of Ulpiana

True, though I wonder to what extent this is caused by the fact MERS doesn't affect the US oligarchs to extent comparable with Lady Corona. (Though I'm not an expert on the subject.)

I may still throw a curse at the cure as a broad concept, including whatever solutions, full or partial, they may come up with. We'll see.

In this case the most important factor acting against virulence is natural selection. Not exactly a better situation. Perhaps binding would help, they can counter a lot by merely burning bodies, but I see no other solution for now.

You've misunderstood. The path to making every life worth living is to eliminate every life not worth living and to eliminate everything that makes any life not worth living. This means elimination of inferior genetics and elimination of degeneracy. Would you want to be born into the life of some starving African child, or worse? Of course not. If you don't understand what I'm actually describing, you aren't thinking big enough. All of the inferior, selfish people will be eliminated. Only those who value faith and family above all else will remain. What is faith? Understanding that you are ultimately nothing within the realm of infinity, but knowing that your life still matters. What is family? It is the people closest to you, those you love. We are children of God, born in the image of God. This doesn't mean what you probably initially think it means. God is the same as infinity. You are living your life as a simulation in the mind of God, as a single conscious entity within (and a child of) this particular universe within the realm of infinity. Every single life is this way. Until now, it is all a result of chaos, completely random but all predetermined. A higher level of understanding will create order, so that when each life is simulated, when God sits behind each and every pair of eyes, there will be no more suffering.

Actually the path we were going was fine. People were waking up and the overton window was definitely shifting into a positive direct. We are closer now to a thousand years of Jewish slave culture than ever before. Can't you see what is happening? We aren't going into an economic collapse. We are going into a restructuring where there is literally no economy. Just slavery. The former economy was no perfect, but it also wasn't as bad as you say it is. No offense but your understanding is pretty ignorant of how it works. "Big line on chart go up" is a representation of millions of people. Some of it is jewish number games but a lot if it isn't. The whole globalization, outsourcing, immigration, etc had nothing to do with the economy. If you study these things you'd realize people make less money because of it. That is a Jewish game. Pay attention to what is going on now and they are advancing what was literally going to take them decades (in a perfect condition) in a matter of months. Hoping for a collapse right now is playing right into their hands.

Ya I'm not living in a pod either. Anyway for reasons above and other reasons I haven't bothered to explain I don't think we will have a complete collapse. Just a depression. Just bad enough to make us all hurt really bad but not bad enough to set off genuine riots. Still, this will kill and hurt a lot of people. More than the virus. Which is why the lockdown was not a good thing.

I do. It assumes there can be immunity against /ourgirl/. We do not know for certain that immunity is even possible against this thing. Should it prove not to be possible, the "herd immunity" strategy would have been catastrophic.

Aside: We suspect the virus is a bioweapon; at the least, a corona virus some retard edited to maximize evilness. Zog will never admit that. Just wait, though, until independent science fags start dissecting the virus; then we'll have mountains of evidence this frankenvirus is not organic.

True. We also have seen corona-chan is a multi-pronged weapon. And the healthier the person is may simply mean Stage 2 takes longer to kick in. Stage 1 may have seemed hardly noticeable to some. Stage 2 might not show up for quite some time (like with AIDS). Add reinfections to that. I don't think having had a mild dose that seems to have passed means anyone is necessarily out of the woods. I hope it does, but corona-chan is wickedly complex.

Yes, and it's an over representation of a couple million Nosebergs. Stonks are a casino and the people making money at them are not producing, they're sucking blood. Yes, collateral damage is impossible to avoid. You don't burn down the Jews abattoir without killing some of the goyim inside.

But the fire is necessary. Corona-chan is necessary. The collapse of the world brings the possibility of change for the better, the continuance of status quo ante necessarily means kike hellworld, forever.

They all have to die, anon. It's really that simple, and Corona-chan might be the catalyst. Things are bad and they are going to get worse. Things have to get much worse before there's a chance to rid the world of them, but I have hope things will get that bad.

Are they shit as African UN cops? There was many problems with the African UN cops because they are not able to keep their coal sticks in nor refrain themselves from using the violence so UN had to hire White mercs to work as cops quietly. Update from Australia

Queensland man has been found with almost 100kg of cannabis at a border checkpoint set up to stop the spread of Coronavirus.

The 31-year-old was on Wednesday pulled over at Tugun on the Gold Coast where police allegedly found 93 kilograms of cannabis.

Police say the haul has an estimated street value of $450,000. Video footage released by police shows officers pulling several vacuum sealed bags of the drug from a trailer which had been towed by a Ford ute.

Australia government allowed the Boeing 747 from Wuhan and is operated by Suparna Airlines to land in Sydney International Airport about 9.30pm carrying

To some extent this is true but not really. A lot of trading is brokers representing clients. Those clients are just regular people with 401ks and pensions tied up in these things. Other people are employees who receive some of their pay in the form of stock options. People who are into neither are still affected because their company or industry is tied to the thing. The stock market is not inherently evil and I don't think you have a real understanding of it. Anyway, the collapse you want isn't going to happen. Definitely not this way. >They aren't like us. They are soulless insects

They aren't completely soulless. The mainland chinese mostly are, especially older generations. The younger generations are a lot better. Asians outside of China are a lot better. You've got to understand that in China a lot of these people are in shit situations because of how their traditional culture has been deraccinated and destroyed by the Jewish ideology of Marxism. Think of it this way. You are poor. Everything around you is soulless shit. You'd sell defective garbage to niggers in Africa or other foreigners if it meant supporting your family and people.

>he won't start a revolution

I wouldn't be too sure of that. Throughout the long history of China, pretty much every exchange of power was the result of massive death. Either revolution, civil war, or conquest. When they get going, they go. The younger generation I'm talking about, the growing middle class. These are the Chinese who have some semblance of "soul." They aren't happy with the status quo. That's why Xi Jinping has had to regress back to more hard line marxism. China is a lot less stable than you'd think.

Aussies do not want the masks to be made in China and they already made that clear as transparent glass. It made no sense that Aus govt let the plane from Wuhan in. Wuhan is infected so what Aus govt doing is like letting the plane with the nukes on it in. It is insane.

Why are so many Americans fired/let go because of the virus? Are the companies going bankrupt? If not, why not just put them all on no-pay leave or unpaid furlough? Makes more sense since you don't have to spend $$$ and time to re-hire and re-train new inexperienced staff.

As someone who bought non perishable food and medical supplies before the panic occurred, I have slowly been shifting to the non believing side. I have not seen a single person cough, collapse, or show any other symptoms. All of our information is coming from news sources which as we know can be used to deceive the public. Do you personally know someone with this disease? And please don't say "I know this guy who knows this guy" enough with the fucking rumors trust what you see, trust your own reality! Why do you think isolation is being forced upon us? It's not to protect you from this, its to keep the public from figuring out that this so called pandemic is just jewish fiction, literally the modern day holocaust (Don't forget the six billion Italians!). And out of all the seasons the so called explosion of cases occurs when its allergy season. WHY US Shouldn't Bail Out Hedge Funds, Billionaires During Coronavirus Pandemic Finally, CNBC Gets Schooled For Being A Bunch Of Keynesian Socialist Pigs!

"This is a lie that's been propagated by Wall Street. When a company fails, it does not fire its employees...it goes through a packaged bankruptcy...if anything, what happens is the employees end up owning more of the company. The people who get wiped out are the people who own the unsecured debt and the equity...but the employees don't get wiped out and the pensions don't get wiped out."

"And if a bunch of hedge funds get wiped out - what's the big deal? Let them fail. So they don't get the summer in the Hamptons - who cares!?"

Sad: Medical Workers Subjected to ABUSE By Public, Accused Of "Spreading Coronavirus"

In an interview with Al Jazeera, Sapul said several nurses from their hospital have been kicked out from their apartments by their landlords - all because of the fear that they could bring the virus into their residences.

"At least six nurses were messaging and calling me, crying. Their landlords were evicting them. Some were being prevented from leaving their homes by their village captains," Sapul said, noting that the acts being perpetrated against them stem from confusion and general hysteria regarding the nature of the ongoing pandemic.

"We healthcare workers have always enjoyed the trust of our community. I underestimated how hysteria could make them turn on us so quickly," Sapul added.

MY COMMENT: These people are NOT our enemies folks. Those that deserve to be killed are those exploiting the crisis for personal gain! People like Bill Gates, Anthony Fauci and Henry Kissinger, who should have their rotten hearts ripped out while alive and fed to pigs!!!

Same, but unfortunately ours is a community of probably 75% extremes and 25% more rational or reasonable. The virus definitely is going to fuck over some regions and people, and you really don't want to get it, but it's not some biblical plague. Like this anon says the real wipeout is going to be financial and social. I don't think it will come to resource shortages, like I doubt there will be a food shortage, it will just be the reality that 1/4 to 1/3 of the USA won't have a job and won't be able to procure basic shit or even pay rent because they have no money.

Being a useful and productive member of society my job is "essential" and I'm actually for the first time in my life feeling good about my prospects just because I'm proportionately going to be so much better off than so many other people whose job or function in society is just a bi-product of a decadent and luxurious society that just collapse like the Roman Empire. I need to go find some cute rich girl who has been humbled now that her mom lost her job at the now nonexistent travel agency and dad got laid off his cushy job because the company is cutting way back. This could actually end up turning out well for me, hell of a lot better to come over to my place and have easy access to food and entertainment than wait all day in line to get shit tier handouts. Almost makes me hope shit doesn't go full collapse because I'm probably about to be elevated above a lot of others. Of course I have to survive, but fuck it, that's a given anyway.

You're kinda right. Some people can actually survive Corona-Chan with very little problems because she deems them to be worthy of living, others can survive her but are left scarred and with low antibody counts since she's partially HIV. IMO the best way to survive her is still avoiding getting infected as much as you can.

It could happen, for sure, but most of that inflation will get pushed into the stock market to inflate it, as usual, and I doubt there will be supply chain shortages when nobody has the shekels to buy anything, there will just be more government programs, more marxism, more corporate profit maximizing, etc. There will certainly be a rise in suicides, robberies, burglary, looting, etc. and some triggers will definitely get pulled in those situations, but mostly I just think the bottom is going to drop out of society. Pretty much 20% of society will end up with 80% of the wealth, and 80% of society will have the remaining 20% divided between them. I'm certainly not going to be rich but I'm looking at the reality of a huge leap wherein right now I'm right in the middle financially, about the 50% mark, but suddenly in the next year or two I'm going to be catapulted up to the top 80% of society, not because I got rich but just because everyone else lose their job and I still have a decent and consistent paycheck. Could actually be breddy gud for me and even if shit does go full apeshit apocalypse down the road I'll still be financially much better set up than most, which = more resources. Even in a SHTF scenario one of the most important things to save your ass is money.

>>God is the same as infinity

>False. There is no room to know, or to act in infinity. There is no god in infinity. Unless you consider an absolutely ignorant, and absolutely powerless entity to be a god, if it could even be considered an entity due to no differentiation and no actualization. It can't even meaningfully exist due to not being able to have any movement (vibration).

You're failing to understand. Note that I said "same as infinity", not "in infinity". God is infinity. Just another word for infinity. What is infinity? All things. All possibilities. Everything there is to possibly know. Every life there is to possibly live. When you understand this, everything I've said thus far becomes painfully clear. It could take days, weeks, months, maybe years for it to truly sink in. For the vast majority of people like yourself who still think very primitively, it can take a very long time for your brain to rewire itself to even begin to see everything for what it really is. That is assuming that your brain is even biologically capable of making the necessary connections.

>>selfish people will be eliminated

>Oh no, someone wants to fight for his own interests and thus endanger mine, selfishness bad! Hypocrite.

You're still thinking like a chimp. Unfortunately, yes, this is the world we currently live in, where the vast majority of humans still think like chimps, and we have a long ways to go before that behavior and tendency for primitive thinking is eradicated. What nearly everyone currently fails to understand is that if you fuck over someone else for your own selfish gain, all you're doing is fucking over yourself in another life that you have either already lived or will live at some point in the future. Again, all of this is one unimaginably enormous predetermined simulation. No human is actually in control of their own life experiences. You enter your body at birth, experience your particular sequence of events, leave that body when you die, and then move onto the next one. And so on, and so on, and so on, for all eternity. It's also possible (and highly likely) that there are other bodies to enter at completely different points in time and space, in other universes, and in other planes of existence (possibilities). What I have not yet figured out, however, is how the next body to enter is determined. I'm fairly certain it has something to do with the connections made within the brain throughout the entire course of the life. This is probably why it is so important to establish a personal relationship with the parent system, the place where time and space and the laws of physics which compute this universe are just an idea, also known as infinity, also known as God.

>What if all the bad stuff is just part of the fun?

This is what the limited primitive mind has misled us into thinking, otherwise known as temptation. If you think evil deeds are fun, there are plenty of evil lives for you to live throughout history after you're finished with your current one. But remember that you will also need to live the lives of the people you hurt, for that "fun" one to even be possible to begin with.

<Matthew 7:12

<Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

As far as I'm concerned, from the perspective of the body and life I'm experiencing at this point in time, the future is not yet written. I believe it is possible to create a future where we no longer inflict suffering upon ourselves.

>God is infinity

That's precisely what I meant, in infinity as being the infinity, hence having no room left for anything.

>Everything there is to possibly know

Everything that could be known. But which configuration is the right one? How do you make a difference between anything? How can you choose? It can never know that, or itself for that matter. Everything = nothing.

>It could take days, weeks, months, maybe years for it to truly sink in

How long will it take for you to realize that your god is a lie and that you are only looking at dead superimposition of possibilities without any inherent meaning that's the total opposite of what a real God would be. You are going in the opposite direction, but don't let me stop you from disintegrating yourself.

>For the vast majority of people like yourself who still think very primitively Quite rich coming from someone adopting such a simplistic position

>That is assuming that your brain is even biologically capable of making the necessary connections

I ascended beyond such simplistic beliefs long time ago. Once you start thinking like God, you realize that there is no God where you are looking at.

>What nearly everyone currently fails to understand is that if you fuck over someone else for your own selfish gain, all you're doing is fucking over yourself in another life that you have either already lived or will live at some point in the future.

Ok, let us go back to the concept of infinity. If God is infinity, than those lives that are fucked up will HAVE TO happen anyway, and repeat themselves an infinite amount of times nonetheless. And there is absolutely nothing that you can do about it. Trying to 'fix' the world is akin to a hamster running inside a wheel. All those bad scenarios are obviously something that can be, and your infinite "God" would have no way of knowing which life is good and which life is fucked up due to it containing both and being unable to differentiate. Rather, it is the KNOWLEDGE OF GOOD AND EVIL that lets us make such distinction. Which is not a gift from your dead god, but from the snek :>)

>No human is actually in control of their own life experiences

This is what NPC's actually believe. We are our choices, in fact, our choices are the only thing that's truly 'ours' . And yes, you can control your incarnations or even the simulation itself, you just need to git gud
> I'm fairly certain it has something to do with the connections made within the brain throughout the entire course of the life.

Protip: Your soul has it's "DNA" as well . As above, so below

>If you think evil deeds are fun

I don't. I just mentioned that they might be necessary to make a contrast.

Ponder this, how could you know what's good if there is no evil? However, my definition of "evil" is radically different from the usual.

> I believe it is possible to create a future where we no longer inflict suffering upon ourselves

OI YOU GOT A LOICENSE TO GO GROCERY SHOPPING?

<https://www.zerohedge.com/personal-finance/uk-cops-threaten-search-shopping-baskets-catch-lockdown-violators>
>Northamptonshire Police chief constable Nick Adderley prompted outrage after he appeared in a video to warn people who were buying unessential items at grocery stores that their purchases may be scrutinized by the authorities.
>"We will not at this stage be starting to marshal supermarkets and checking the items in baskets and trolleys to see whether it's a legitimate, necessary item but again be under no illusion, if people do not heed the warnings and the pleas that I'm making today, we will start to do that," said Adderley.
>Northamptonshire Police is among the worst performers in the country for bringing charges after cases of burglary. But its chief constable will damn well rummage through your shopping basket and find that incriminating can of air freshener if he wishes. pic.twitter.com/3rHhM72U0p

If it doesn't and White man goes extinct then it's game over for all sentient life on this planet. We have only 100 million years worth of CO2 left on the planet before it can no longer sustain the phototrophe base of the food pyramid. That's too little for intelligent tool manipulating life to reevolve unless if corvids somehow become white.

I don't think this crisis is being taken advantage of appropriately.

This is a good opportunity for getting people infected and culling undesirables.

Where are the fake "blacks are immune because of superior genes and we wuz kangs" or "allah only listens inside a mosque" or "the white man wants you trapped inside" shareable disinfo memes?

Now would be the perfect time for fake mask instructions out of kfc buckets or magic salt (mustard gas) that cures corona.

>your god is a lie and that you are only looking at dead superimposition of possibilities without any inherent meaning that's the total opposite of what a real God would be

It is obvious that you do not yet understand. You will eventually though. Maybe when you become me.

>your god

>a real God

>I ascended beyond such simplistic beliefs long time ago. Once you start thinking like God, you realize that there is no God where you are looking at. The way you think of God shows that you continue to misunderstand what God is, as if it is some entity. It isn't.

>Quite rich coming from someone adopting such a simplistic position Projection.

>If God is infinity, than those lives that are fucked up will HAVE TO happen anyway

Yes, that is correct. This is also why it is so important to ensure that future lives are worth living, because from our perspective, we still have control over it. Even if the truth is that control is illusory, it doesn't mean we shouldn't make the effort.

>repeat themselves an infinite amount of times nonetheless >your infinite "God" would have no way of knowing which life is good and which life is fucked up due to it containing both and being unable to differentiate. You continue to fail to understand and underestimate what is actually happening and what is actually possible.

No, you're misunderstanding again.

>And there is absolutely nothing that you can do about it. Trying to 'fix' the world is akin to a hamster running inside a wheel.

Can't change the past, but the future, from our current perspective, is unwritten.

Imagine a supercomputer that can simulate universes, each one with its own set of rules (time and space, laws of physics) which makes it possible for evolution to occur over billions of years to eventually produce sentient intelligent lifeforms which all live among each other. Every life in that simulation would share the same history, environment, etc., which made their existence possible. Consider our particular universe. We all agree on an incredibly wide range of things, like the fact that everyone has to eat, everyone has a mother, everyone dies, plants and animals exist, technological advancement, 9/11 is a significant date, etc., etc., etc. The only way you and I can be here talking with each other as humans in this shared environment is if we exist within the same exact timeline consisting of the same exact history. This is a shared experience. Now, you could go up to any person among billions of people in this simulation (at any point in time in our history) and ask them their name, who their parents are, where they grew up, etc., etc., etc., and every single person would have their own unique perspective and life, while all agreeing on all of the surrounding events and the timeline which made the interaction possible to begin with. It is a very real experience for each and every sentient, intelligent lifeform. So the point to be made here is... who (or what) is actually sitting behind every person's eyes? Is there a single "alpha male" whose perspective is the only one that really matters and controls the thoughts and lives of every other being? Or would the more logical conclusion be that this is all predetermined and everyone is simply along for the ride?

>And yes, you can control your incarnations or even the simulation itself, you just need to git gud

Is that why you're stuck in your current body arguing with someone on 8kun in a thread about "coronavirus", something which has demonstrably affected the lives of nearly every single sentient being on this planet at this particular point in time and space? Surely you're "gud" enough to control your own simulation to the point where something as silly as this wouldn't even be on your radar, right? But no, you're stuck in this timeline just like everyone else.

>Ponder this, how could you know what's good if there is no evil? However, my definition of "evil" is radically different from the usual.

It's pretty clear at this point that you are young and/or immature, trying to sound clever and edgy. There is no point in discussing this further with you right now. Set your ego aside and actually attempt to understand what I've described here, and maybe you'll understand why it is such a logical conclusion. Anything else is fantasy. I'm talking about the real world here which we all exist within, not your fantasy world where you think you "ascended beyond such simplistic beliefs long time ago".

>Feuerkrieg Division / Baltic AtomWaffles

>Coronavirus used... to hunt and kill anons

Maybe. But 13 year old Commander estonians sharing army manual screenshots on internet knitting forums sure is a million dollar extreme use of InterPol-ADL directed funding to entrap minors.

It likely is happening, but this isn't likely to be that. This is a continuing operation following AW pursuit of the notorious international 13yo known as The Commander, likely in league with The Order...of other children on the FBI's most wanted list sponsored too by the ADL.

As an anon said back in AUG 2017 RE Charlottesville:

>Because you are not a democrat and these corporations are exercising their right to oppress you. Imagine starving, with no home and no one to call, because helping you may risk their job. Imagine becoming an unperson so badly because these corporations own America more than the government does. Imagine perhaps far into the future, having no one being able to hear you, because membership to the democratic party requires you to have a hearing implant that blocks out non member voices. Imagine being beaten on the street and the government looks away because you have no explicit right to police protection, but you are immediately arrested and charged with assault if you fight back. They don't have to charge the other person if they don't want to. That is where we are headed, this is what they're doing. Its already not just neonazis, its all of us. They are openly doing this to non NS people just as much as NS people. This is open oppression by the left towards everyone that isn't left.

While there are some politicized inaccuracies of labels, the sentiment asserts: all non-kikes will be unpersoned. Apparently first on the list are the least dangerous: The armies of 13yo International Terrorists. And apparently, we have arrived. How prescient/convergent.

Agreed, there have been increasing recent examples of rapid executions departing from the norm of years-to-engage bureaus, with frequency increase since 2018Q4. That said, is The Commander such an example? It looks more like a wrap up late fork. Relevance to the new fork mentioned is less certain. Not enough information replaying on new forks/mission statement press releases to establish relevance of new releases to old missions. Certainly, it is the same sentiment driven by mass over funding of bureaus to find increasingly rare offerings to Moloch. Simultaneously, the faux-defacings by international and local Israelis on all accessible/conspicuously-public graves with swastikas has also markedly accelerated in 2019, driving more false flag funding to bureaus. What is make-work psyops by intel patsies for funds, and what is not?

There are many species intelligent enough to evolve to human level within maybe several dozen millennia once the niche is emptied, and this is not taking the absorption of CO2 into account. BUT, consider that if intelligent life either remains extant or ever reevolves, it will be doomed to repeat the same scenario we are in right now, so total extinction is better anyway.

BTW I don't consider white man to be particularly smarter than any other man. In fact we could learn a LOT from e.g. the last Amazonian cultures that still exist - or did exist several decades ago. I mean, if you think whites are better than anyone else, just look around you.

Chicago Suburb: Dramatic Footage Shows Home Owner Fight Off Home Invaders In Fatal Confrontation

Next time somebody tries to tell you that you don't need a gun to secure your home, show them this video.

"The homeowner can be seen tackling, then brutally pummeling Finnan with his fists, while shouting for help from his neighbors. Finnan gets away, but trips, and was later taken into custody by police.

However, his partner wasn't so lucky. What happened exactly isn't clear, but at some point, the homeowner managed to fatally shoot Brodacz."

DISGUSTING: Police Raid Church's Drive-In Service, Issue $500 Tickets to Entire Congregation

Police State USSA On Steroids! What A Bunch Of Filthy Corrupt Pigs!

They banned Christian gatherings in churches (while letting Jews and Muslims congregate normally) so one church set up a radio transmitter so people could stay in their cars outside in the parking lot and attend service, while maintaining "proper social distancing". The police then showed up and issued every car a $500 ticket.

Clearly, in light of this, it is not about preventing the spread of a disease, it is about wiping out America and destroying everything the Jews hate. There's no way out of this, if people were not even in the building and got busted for "attending church" anyway, the motive is that of destruction, not of prevention.

plenty of reasons to not trust that faggot then kept reading about zogbots fining christcucks who attended church via radio in their cars while ignoring kikes and mudslimes
i gotta say, on one hand this will ensure white cucktians survive subhumansn on the other hand hand zogbots have reasons to not go after kikes, as they'll likely be called nazis if they do, and mudslimes are, not only dangerous to deal with but also more likely to not pay fines, either because they are poorfags or just don't give a fuck but then he had to go and sperg out about corona chan being a hoax...

I was really hoping corona would cull the whole mess and degeneracy we are seeing today, but the more I see as time goes on it looks like these (((globalists))) are still completely in control, people are just bending over and accepting everything blow they are dealt, most in utter denial how badly this will effect them until it is too late for them to do anything to fight back, now normies seem to be accepting the ID 2020 agenda while they denied it the whole time we warned it was a reality, I just don't have much hope. This whole world deserves to burn, and if it doesn't, well, it won't be worth living in anyway so good luck to those willing to accept their slavery. I already made the decision I will not conform to the vaccines or be tested or have anything to do with their whole kike agenda, and if that means I throw the laws out the window and die in a shootout at some point, so be it. I'm not saying Daily Stormer is 100% correct calling it all a hoax. I do believe it is a real bioweapon that was released by ZOG and/or China. China culling their blacks in a manner similar to their muzzies is hilarious to me. Sure, Trump saying 'China bad' won't convince any green hairs about it, but videos of blacks getting herded into quarantine centers or being verbally abused by Chinese people inexplicably blaming them for corona? >However, what IS a hoax is that US hospitals are being flooded right now, Most of the US isn't being hit at all, and very few places are hit hard.

There's footage of mass graves in NYC, and leaks from the coroner's office that the number of people dropping dead at home without ever seeing a hospital was roughly equal to the number dying in hospitals. (totaling up to about 450/day). That leak was at least a couple of days old, though.

Why Is The US Govt NOT Helping With Ventilator Shortages, Even Though They Promised To Help?

MY COMMENT: It has become more and more clear that corrupted entities do NOT want this bioweapon outbreak to go away. In fact, they want it around as long as possible so they can exploit it for total population control, ID 2020, medical tyranny and installing a Bolshevik police state.

This may also be why they refuse to accept alternative meds like Hydroxychloroquine & boosting the immune system as effective solutions!

Not really clear about what is happening on this planet, eh (don't worry about it, most people have no idea either)? Well maybe things will clear up for you soon, I hear that the war is about to start. Everything is ready to go.

I don't follow the Q larp, I'm only trying to report what is going on (even if it may be a bit conspiratorial). It's important to get as much info as possible because, clearly, there is negligence and corruption going on. Where there is corruption, there technically is conspiracy to engage in lucrative corruption. Just like all those Republicans who made profits after a secret corona press briefing by selling all their stocks before the crashes.

I dont think people would stand for vaccine micro chipping weirdness, but they will bend over and take most of the rest of it. Everyone will be in denial, and a year or two down the line they will be third world status because they didn't do anything when they had the chance. I'd like to believe something good could come out of this but it just looks like the full takeover might be upon us.

I have a friend who used to be a 'liberal' who helped organize Occupy Wall Street. It was very interesting what he mentioned to me about that, he claimed that other (legit) organizers were slowly purged one by one, and being replaced by a bunch of lunatics who would (perhaps deliberately) lead protesters into entrapment by doing stupid illegal activities (like blocking random roads, staging protests in grocery stores which had nothing to do with anything 'wall street' or the bailouts, slashing tires in parking lots, etc). He decided to bail from it, as he noticed the FBI was starting to investigate these crimes. It's as if this was a motus operandi for breaking up and sabotaging all their previous efforts to wake people up and become politically active. This activity can also be seen within a lot of the White Nationalist groups today, where instructors and organizers are actually undercover feds directing anons to do brazenly illegal and stupid things. If there ever were a 'deep state' this is likely what it would look like on an operational level. Entrapment, political sabotage, divide and conquer those who are a real threat to the (((establishment))).

:) I would think that was Step 1 of 'good hygiene' but what do I know (to me THIS GUY is a disease vector to anyone not also dress in full hazmat PPE). I guess to some people lining up to let someone stick a 'made in china' dirty swab with their dirty 'made in china' PPE with their mass exposure to the contagion due to the sheer volume of people they see would be prohibitive for personal health. I mean, you might as well lick the gloves of the people who do the pat downs at the airport for DHS to get this much exposure to pathogens.

In many ways this reminds me of the bin Laden collection that we all 'tolerate' now on airplanes...it seems like we would finally tell them to 'GO FUCK THEMSELVES' forever...but I guess humanity is 'just not ready to let go of the jews' and wants to keep them and their institutions around for as long as they possibly can. They managed to turn this whole situation into a fucking joke...it is a fucking joke that they can 'protect' you from the disease WHEN YOU REALLY LOOK AT THEM...they still allowed flights in directly from Wuhan and China BECAUSE THEY WANTED PEOPLE TO GET SICK. And then with the 'protective equipment that only 'protects' the wearer but spreads the virus to everyone around them. It is like the people who have 'faith' in the (((government))) system are those who are most likely to die from it...which I guess is really appropriate, given the circumstances.

Whenever I think of having the WHO or the CDC putting something down my throat or up my nose I think of it as letting the jews ACTUALLY experiment on me. No thanks. We have known since the beginning that ISOLATION was the only cure for it and that big government would only advance the disease (intentionally or not). Look at the cops in Britain. Each person they stop and search/rifle through their things INCREASES EXPONENTIALLY that person exposure to illness. Having one of these 'public servants/disease bearers' touch you is like fucking a whore bareback while she tells you that you are the only one of her 10,000 clients she has ever let ride her back back and cum in her. It is seriously THIS LEVEL of disease vector.

AT THIS POINT THIS WHOLE THING IS A MOCKERY

Well time is going to tell just how bad this bioweapon really is. If true, I would imagine we would be seeing people start to drop like flies, en masse, very soon within the coming year. However, notice that there are numerous studies and reports that there are various strains of this virus being detected as well. Some very deadly ones and others not so deadly at all. No one knows just how bad this really is yet, it will take some time before we see any mass death, but if we do start seeing mass death it would be a huge indicator that this was an extremely horrific bioweapon outbreak (perhaps even accidental?) Don't get your hopes up too high yet, there are some indications that this may not be as bad as it was hyped to be. And it would make sense if their intention was to install some kind of Jew World Order, ID 2020 etc. Then they'd have to use fear porn to get people to conform to it.

Just encase you are correct about this being an End Times scenario, best use proper protective gear when going out (respirator, goggles, bio-suit, gloves) and utilize proper US Army decontamination measures before bringing back anything into your home (including the decontamination of your protective gear). [Lysol spray/wipes, bleach-water mix or borax-water mix, UV-C lighting, hand sanitizer, etc]

That whole thing is a red herring. They never intended on putting a microchip in you. They wanted control at the genetic level and THEY GOT IT with gene drives. They took away your ability to have a future, or resist them, on a genetic level. And because people were too stupid to look into or understand what was happening, well, they are going to get what they get...total Bolshevik destruction until the end of the human species.

Lieber's specialty was nanotechnology at the viral level. They will drop you dead when they want you to drop dead. Point a gun at them, INSTANT HEART ATTACK for you. This means he was probably fusing biotech with nanotechnology. So they will control you at that level.

In many ways they are totally correct about humanity. Humanity can't seem to recognize a threat that is not directly physically aimed against them, ON A PERSONAL LEVEL. If a threat is oblique, humanity has no real care about it, no real concern...they just keep trundling on like nothing was happening. It is like the cattle who watch the farmer cleaning his riffle and sharpen his knives and get all his butchering equipment out while they just continue grazing.

Corona-Chimpouts in Honduras

Sweden Yes getting it's shit kicked in by Corona-Chan <https://archive.is/0sRN6> I have the feeling this incompetence is deliberate.

Hungary bracing to endure Corona-Chan's onslaught <https://archive.vn/OT4F5> I honestly wish the best of luck to Hungary and her people, may they come out stronger from this crisis than ever before.

Honduras forbidding everyone from carrying firearms except those who provide security services to the transport and distribution of food, cargo and valuables. <https://archive.vn/h6AZv> Lovely idea to do this when chimpouts are happening. Sasuga, Honduras.

>Don't get your hopes up too high yet

No, I will get my hopes up, my hopes shall soar high beyond the heavens! and there is NOTHING anyone can do to stop me.

>And it would make sense if their intention was to install some kind of Jew World Order, ID 2020 etc.

Of course they will try to do that, I have been saying this since I came here to 8/cvg/, but they will lose! The open war against the global kike regime will be the last war fought among humans, the side that represents true love, beauty and freedom shall be victorious, Adolf's name will be cleansed and the entire world will see that he was right.

>Just encase you are correct about this being an End Times scenario

Corona-Chan is just the end of the world as we know it, not the total destruction of Earth itself. An even worse world shall take it's place for a brief period of time then a beautiful new world will be born, after the putrid remains of this world and the kike NWO are wiped away. And after all of this has passed and there's no more filth to be cleansed, Corona-Chan will devolve into a common cold and maybe even completely disappear.

CAS 9 is 'great' at doing its 'job' in terms of editing DNA, but what they really want is something that can access the DNA in real time and make changes 'on the fly'. CRISPR had the ability to make those changes (change your recessive European DNA to nigger DNA, give you leukemia, testicular cancer, blind you, take away all of your senses, put you in total paralyzing pain, etc) but it did not have the ability TO RECEIVE INSTRUCTION. <--they wanted to be able to command your suffering or death on a whim, 'as gods'. So what Lieber was working on was viral/CRISPR command and control. THAT is what he contributed to China. That is what the jews wanted. If they have nano-tech that can do all this for them, they would have no need to push for vaccines or any other agenda. They would have just started dropping us dead. And really, if that's the case, go for it, make my day! I'm not scared of death, I'm more concerned about them trying to control and micro-manage my entire life (and I'm not going to let them do that). Same thing with the gun bans, I do not care what they have to say, I'm not giving them up ever. There wouldn't be enough minions left to work for them, or enforce their laws, or help them travel to space or whatever. These (((elites))) would be forced to start all over again and how fun would that really be for them? Are they just going to roam around the world with dead bodies rotting everywhere with mass radiation and contagion? They'd create their

You have to admit we've become a bit too left brained. Too convenient for the capitalist system to consume. There is a symbolic mind which has been suppressed. Which is required for leadership and original thought. Hence why most presidents and captains of industry are left handed. And hence why white children were smacked with a ruler on their left hand until they ingrained to be left brained.

There's different types of smarts. We have the left brained thing down. Best inventors and problem solvers the planet has ever seen. But it also makes us easy victims in some ways.

>BTW I don't consider white man to be particularly smarter than any other man

White men had risen from nearly absolute barbarism to monopolizing human achievement like never seen before within the span of a millennium. No other peoples managed to reach an industrial revolution level technological and philosophical advancement on their own, not eastern Asians with their higher populations and IQ, not Afro-Asiatic semitoids with their environmentally fertile mesolithic headstart, not even Hindus, Persians or Greeks that not only were the founders of philosophy, mathematics and science but also ethnically based on an Aryan cultural background.

White is not just an ethnic identity, it's an evolutionary grade, it's the point where beauty and intelligence tames sapients' inherited animalistic aggression and instinctive pragmatism. Melanin is a burden to evolutionary progress and its effects on human attitudes can be seen even between heterozygotic twins.

Could have agreed with you that it just might be an evolutionary dead end, ultimately doomed to be wiped away of an indifferent to virtue nature if Hitler had not shown us that there's a way for man to prevail over the conditional weakness of White man's nature without hubris and without disrespecting or violating it.

Natural will kill us all. It is the only real Justice we have on this planet, so no matter how much the oligarchs, politicians and bankers (kikes) mess everything up and no matter how much control they seek, in the end they will always fail and die off because that is natural law. And natural law cannot really be broken no matter how hard they try to manipulate it. No how much they lie, cheat and steal, there is an old true saying "when you die you can't take it with you."

That said, why even give in to them while we are still alive? Keep them in constant fear and agony by learning to tell the kikes to take a long hike. Let the kvetch, let them call us names, let them sick their minions on us (we could kill them if we so desire to), let them throw the kitchen sink at us... they already lost at that point.

>You have to admit we've become a bit too left brained

Yes, that is the biggest problem for European civilization and the white race.

Lots of retards on here think the zionists are the reason for our downfall, and while it is true that global jewry gave us the poison to commit suicide, we still decided to drink it of our own volition.

Anons need to realize that kikes are like parasites. They can't exist on their own so they have to leech of a society to survive. If a nation has a strong "immune system" (nuclear families, sense of self, identity, history, gender roles, traditions, benevolent state, etc.) then the kikes won't be able to penetrate that country. People have to remember that jews have been expelled out of Europe hundreds of times in the last thousand years. Just 500 years ago kikes were getting thrown out of Europe for shitting it up with usury and subversion every Tuesday. It's only been since the 1800's that jews have managed to get into our countries and stay in our countries for extended periods of time. It's only been a century or so since their parasitism grew strong enough to start actually effecting our lifestyles in a significant way.

Why? Why were we able to throw the jews out all the time just a few centuries ago but now they seem all powerful? It's because our countries have collapsed immune systems. The jews weren't the ones who initially weakened our immune systems (although they have massively accelerated the collapse of our institutions, they weren't the root cause). Many activists within the dissident right have mistakenly assumed that jews are entirely responsible for the destruction of our nations, and think if we could just get rid of them everything would go back to normal. This is a lie, the jews never even would have been able to get into our nations if they had strong immune systems. The real reason for our collapse, the fundamental war that has been raging arguably since the Yamnaya first made their way into Europe, is the war between the egalitarian spirit and essentialist aristocracy. It is a war that is internal to Europe, it is a war that we are fighting against our own people. This egalitarian streak in the white race was largely responsible for the collapse of the Roman Empire (see the Edict of Caracalla and the mass immigration and fertility problems they were facing). When the Roman empire collapsed we couldn't afford to be egalitarians, so that spirit remained dormant from around 500-1600 AD.

However, in the 1600-1700's, we had managed to repel our invaders, built up strong communities, accumulated power, and rediscovered much of the knowledge lost in the Greco-Roman world. Once we were stable enough to begin rebuilding civilization, the egalitarian spirit surfaced once again in the form of the English Civil War between the Roundheads and Cavaliers, and more importantly the French Revolution between the Jacobins and truthfully the French people themselves.

Ever since the "enlightenment" philosophers like Hobbes, Kant, Voltaire, Locke, Rousseau, etc. spread their ideologies of radical individualism, secularism, abandonment of history, equality, and moral relativism, we have been struggling in a war against ourselves for the soul of the European people.

In other words, the kikes just took advantage of a Europe that was already compromised and at war with itself to sneak in and inject their parasitism into our society. Kikes have always hated us, sure, and there's no doubt that they want us all wiped out for what Hadrian did to them in 70 AD. But, they never could have gotten so far if it wasn't for our own internal collapse. Before there were communists and bolsheviks, there were jacobins and roundheads. It is the egalitarian strain of the white race that is at the core of all our problems. Getting rid of the shitskins and the kikes is only getting rid of the parasite leeching off our body. More importantly, we will need to settle what kind of body we will have, what kind of society we will have. There must be a great contest between the egalitarians who want equality/hedonism and the essentialists who want progress/civilization before we can ever move forward. In summary, jews aren't the root cause of our decline. The real reason for the state of affairs you see today is that a massive physical, spiritual, and metaphysical civil war that has been raging amongst the European people for at least the last 3,000 years. For the last 300 years the egalitarians have been winning.

They want control, anon. They don't want to kill you all. The way that they USED to control us was under threat of death. Now they have the tools to control humanity and they won't need death to do that.

>During those days people will seek death but will not find it; they will long to die, but death will elude them.

What they always wanted was for control over the rest of humanity. Money, the sole purpose for money was that it gave them a measure of control over humanity. And they want you to suffer (for what 'crime' no one knows; think of like a jealous ex-wife). That is why they project it on everyone with their strange psychotic delusions about 'persecution'. I am trying to tell you, anon, that they are SERIOUSLY mentally ill. Not a 'little bit' but A LOT. Like full blown psychosis. Why do you think the Sacklers enjoy murdering Ethnic Europeans with OxyContin...or poisoning people with bad food, plastic chemical poison etc.

For sure 'tis a long post brother, and worthy to be read.

If I may counter the self-blame angle though. I would counter that the misplaced-liberalism inherent in Christcuckery is at the root of this. We are up against forces which are immense, and are but chaff blown around in it. They can't even make shit like that yet. Despite the Die Hard, John Wayne image we have been sold, this is not an OK Corral which we have EVER had the ability to shoot our way out of.

I blame us not.

That is a historic misnomer. Christianity was the only force to ever oppose the jews in the history of the world. It has been cuckold because their plan of attack and subversion was really well crafted...but when less than 200 years ago a man could be public ally flayed alive for usury I am going to call Christianity a 'winning strategy' when employed correctly.

It's not all our fault, I never said that. Of course kikes, racial invaders, psychopaths, etc. are a huge part of the problem.

But, fundamentally, Europe's core struggle is not against these groups, but within itself. We have to decide if we are egalitarians or essentialists. Everything is coming to an end, we can't kick the can down the road anymore. After this Europe will either race towards the stars or descend into wanton degeneracy.

Well that's the argument of the age. We won't resolve it today.
Yes, there have been rulers in Europe which interpreted it in better ways, and caused good things. But ultimately, this is a religion which implicitly accepts the narrative that the hebrews were CHOSEN BY GAWD AWLMIGHTY, and that sets up your ruling class. Even the UK royal family get circumcised ffs. The Union Jack is the Union Jacob. The poor jews were forced into banking as it was the only thing they could do, and the good Christians were prevented from this profession which was evil. That's the official story of how the jews got their money. Any who falls for these tricks deserve what they get. That's even enshrined in Roman Law. Look up the Law of Commecium. But seriously, I don't expect to convince any who are merely a few steps from churchgoing.

It would be completely functional if we just had a return to its fundamental values the problem came from introducing things that are not provable like love into society...love is an ever shifting goalpost that can mean ANYTHING. Rather than being fundamental or based in reality it is ephemeral and can be twisted until it is tortured into meaning something that is the opposite of anything rational. See pathological altruism. That is irrational 'love'. It is dishonorable, suicidal and totally dysfunctional. Another example 'hate speech'...what does this even mean. There is no physical evidence for it; so instead of being something tangeble like murder it is arbitrary and impossible to define. This means that you can define it any way you please. Without a PRAGMATIC understanding that the law can only apply to what is tangible or physical that law loses all meaning or any standards. Thus the law become totally open to powers interpretation.

The entire book is written with that in mind brother. It's like A U.S. LAW. It's designed to be interpreted any way they like depending on the circumstances.

That's why there are so many fucking arguments about how it should be interpreted. Because there are MULTIPLE EASY PLACES TO INTERPRET IT HOWEVER YOU LIKE.

>Surely you're "god" enough to control your own simulation to the point where something as silly as this wouldn't even be on your radar, right?
I see that someone didn't play Dark Souls. Sure, I can't make things disappear or pop into existence with my mind alone, but that doesn't mean that I can't affect the probabilities to a certain level or make 'leaps' between multiverse iterations by steering at the 'crossroads' like Hecate. Or that I didn't intentionally seal most of my power so that I could have a genuine "human" life experience. Which I regret now, but well, we all have things to learn.

>globalists still in control

Yeah, I'm hardly surprised seeing how just about every self-proclaimed Coronian in here appears to be a happy idiot. It's not even that in terms of magical skill they couldn't tell a binding from evil eye; one can learn and improve, this is not that much of an issue. The real problem is that they aren't even trying, they're all like "oh look, everything is happening on its own, why put any effort when we're already winning (which I just assumed with zero proof but who cares)". If they were at least WANNABE cultists, maybe the situation would be better.

Also after lurking here for a while I realised that most local anons are clearly delusional and observably lack basic deduction skills. Well, at least they live too deep in their fantasies to be actually dangerous to anyone, though this of course renders them useless to our cause. Mind you, I'm not saying the red pill doesn't exist - far from it - I'm just pointing out how easy it is to confuse it for drugs people want to sell you.

Well, either that, or they all are just feds and/or Jews. It's not even particularly unlikely, as obviously (well... not to everyone, apparently) discouraging people from acting is something they - and only they - benefit from. As can be clearly seen - there are more and more laws passed to further limit freedom all around the world... and that's about all. But of course to see it they'd first need to pull their heads out of their arses.

Wake up folks, wake up NOW, before it's too late. There is still a chance. Don't waste it.

When does the mass death begin? This is taking a bit longer than I expected. It's like it went from full blown HAPPENING to a slow sizzle. When will this shit blow up? When will the supply chains break? When will there finally be armed insurrection and mass defiance? There are already 17 million jobs lost and counting... I'm not seeing people taking up arms or squatting yet... I'm not seeing real estate agencies getting firebombed... or politicians getting shot in side of the head... when is this going to go up in flames? Please tell me this isn't another 2008 or Y2K scare.... with more and more freedoms being shoveled into the dirt while this whole country becomes a third world shithole police state with a fucking whimper.... USSR style.... God damn it.

I have a feeling this is lost hope. Unless this event spikes mass armed upheaval and people simply refuse to conform to the bullshit anymore, and will actually be willing to use their arms to fight back if vaccines (etc) get pushed against their will.... unless all that happens this is a lost cause and the Jews won again.

Right now the globalists are turning it into a mockumentary (part drama part comedy part retardation). When they didn't know how to handle the situation they went into the old shuck and jive routine that seems to entertain the masses so well.

>"shucks anon, don't wear them masks."

>"shucks anon, wear them masks."

>"shucks anon, wear a full mask but don't cover your eyes..."

It is a mockery of science. A mockery of pathogens and healthcare.

It is fitting behavior for the ((monkey/nigger lords))). But it seems to entertain and confuse people just enough that the virus will never be taken seriously. IDK...lately I look around me and I see it all as a mockery of life.

You literally have no clue what war is, do you. Protip: it's not about killing. For more information you can read literally anything written by anyone who knows anything on the subject. You can begin with Sun Tzu, old but gold. Also google "efficiency".

As for "divine intervention", whatever you take it to mean, I never said anything about it. Still, I feel bad for any god who'd work with you. Even most blindly religious people I met knew that you're supposed to work together with your god, not sit on your arse waiting for miracles.

What to do you want me to do, tell anons to go blow up a federal building right now? No need to that, the conflict will start when niggers start chimping out and white families defend themselves from the WHO and FEMA trying to take their children to a quarantine camp. I do not expect things to happen on their own, I have been doing what I can on every front available on my end. Maybe it was at one point. Freemasonry and Judaism got so intertwined due to being based on same core values, principles and having the same logical conclusion, as well as mutual interests, that they are barely distinguishable from each other today. You can have a tablet or a blackberry with very different features, but they both fulfill the same purpose in the end.

>Mostly it seems to just open up a bunch of esoteric knowledge that the (((church))) hid for a long time Correct, especially when you understand the references. But one is supposed to move on after that. Ancient Masonry was quite based, but its not to be confused with its modern iterations.

"In most parts of the world, due to lockdown, most of the transmission that's actually happening in many countries now is happening in the household at family level," Ryan said last week. "In some senses, transmission has been taken off the streets and pushed back into family units."

"Now, we need to go and look in families to find those people who may be sick and remove them and isolate them in a safe and dignified manner," he added.

I just want to point out the same people railing about how jews are the end all be all enemy of humanity, will be the first to reinstate jews or some other enemy to oppose, because they have no conception, nor vision for a post-jew existence. They are no different than the endless war, global dominance clique that Vice President Wallace was describing in 1944 when he wrote:
"The really dangerous American fascist,... is the man who wants to do in the United States in an American way what Hitler did in Germany in a Prussian way. The American fascist would prefer not to use violence. His method is to poison the channels of public information. With a fascist the problem is never how best to present the truth to the public but how best to use the news to deceive the public into giving the fascist and his group more money or more power. He then added, "They claim to be super-patriots, but they would destroy every liberty guaranteed by the Constitution. They demand free enterprise, but are the spokesmen for monopoly and vested interest. Their final objective toward which all their deceit is directed to capture political power so that, using the power of the state and the power of the market simultaneously, they may keep the common man in eternal subjugation."
Those who fail to learn history are doomed to repeat it. Those who fail to learn history correctly, they are simply doomed.

Brazilian in São Paulo reports the situation of his family on twatter

<https://archive.vn/sArYq>

>I give up, folks. My sister in Ceará is displaying all of the symptoms of the coronavirus and didn't get tested because she lives in a small town and has to travel 4 hours to get to Fortaleza the state's capital FYI. She isolated herself, had a fever, had difficulties breathing at night, couldn't taste food.
>But my parents are still denying it, pretending it was nothing, that "it's in the hands of god". Seriously, man...I don't know what to say to them.

>The thing is that it took exactly 14 days for the symptoms to show up (the three of them were together). It was very lucky of them to not display the symptoms Poor guy doesn't know about the variation of the incubation period and asymptomatic carriers because in the time they have been here, they already went to my grandma's house many times and they still either don't understand it or are denying it.

>I just have to hope a lot for them to not get it and bring it home because me and my brother are following the recommendations , but they only follow what they get sent to their WhatsApp group. That's it.

You do realize that France needs the EU to keep its semblance of relevancy alive. That's why Macron la Macrouille is felling the southern yuropoors so hard about the communitization of debts.
You see, France is pretty much hooked on the preposterous amount of farming subsidies the ((EU))) doles out.
With all the nogs and kebabs demanding the gibs and labor reforms being impossible because the average frog is either a communist or a farmer, there is no future for them as a sovereign nation.
I only see Germanistan, the Dutch, the eternal Ösis and the Danish survive a collapse of the EU.
But make no mistake: The EU will collapse.

Either by a) introducing debt bonds to keep the southerners happy by bankrupting the northerners or b) by not introducing debt bonds and letting the southerners effectively default.

There will be no need for any one nation to bail because pretty soon, the recession will just light this powder keg up for good.

/ourgirl/ has done a mighty fine job in destabilizing this corpse of a failed idea.

Of course 100% this ends in a vaccine duh.

The only question remains is whether they will stormtrooper it into your arm or not. Or down your throat; it could be oral. Israel has been indicating it will be oral so the sheep like it better.

A very good post, I never knew about the Edict of Caracalla. Looks like the Romans just let everybody in and naturalized them to get more tax base and more legionaries rather than maintaining integrity. I've also always thought that the 'counter-enlightenment' philosophers that stood opposed to those you listed are quite interesting like Pareto, Julius Evola or Joseph Maistre are some of my faves. I've heard the same argument made before, that some kind of cultural "immune system" was compromised, and then the jews simply exploited it to the max. What do you believe that immune system is? Some say religion, IE like how Mohammedans have their share of problems but they also don't have tranny children crap going on either. We need to figure out a realistically applicable unifying force or philosophy, which is why our enemies push divide and conquer so hard. We are like the men amongst the ruins trying to rebuild.

This is part of the sickness of the West, that you think nuclear families are a good thing. Similar to how the dolt-right thinks that things were so wonderful in the 1950s, the era of stupidity and conformity.

Why is there a yearning among the dolt-right for 'nuclear families'. Do you even know what the term means? Do you know what the nuclear family replaced? It replaced the extended family. Nuclear families are not healthy for many reasons, chief among them: if one or two parents are behaving badly, other extended family members are able to call it out and offer protection. Thus the children suffer, the elderly suffer and society suffers.

Nuclear families are not real families. They are production units for future worker slaves.

I tend to agree with you on this. The real family was large and in some senses extended to the whole nation.

It never was clear what they meant by "nuclear family", which makes it stand out as a forced media meme. It emerged around nuclear power/bombs, so maybe that, so then it emerges in the context of "splittable, we can split this"

>Esper considers reinstating former commander of USS Theodore Roosevelt
That commander knew what he did. I'm surprised there is misunderstanding.
Hopefully this following insight will propagate:
That commander was in a bind. He needed to act, but could not because of structure. So structure/composure had to be violated necessarily. And then yes absolutely yes the loss of composure had to be punished. It must. It always must.
And in total final, all objectives were accomplished; The command accomplished his function, which sometimes rarest-of-the-rarely requires violation of officership (but may not have in this instance? but I don't know, nor do I suspect anyone else knows, the total picture; Was all parallel administration exhausted? I would find that hard to believe, but is possible. But so long as he follows the necessary concomitant price to pay for losing composure, the balance is zero, and none who are mightful will blame him).
That said, he should not be reinstated to his prior command, but rotated out of the light elsewhere. His show is done. He cannot re-enter the stage, until the scene changes. Failure to do this will cause mutiny and desertion of -other-kinds, just as failure to stand-and-then-necessarily-lose was done to prevent losses of still other different kinds.
Do not reinstate. Rotate out of the light. Get back to work.

None who are mightful will blame him, per se. In other words, in this singular instance, there is a declaration of no understanding. Thus I should clarify:
"Rotate [him] out of the light" -and- not back into the same position. None now know if he does not have misappropriated predisposition. So move him, to a different spot, whereby he cannot do what he did -again- as well as is out of the light, for a set period of time.

>a pandemic that spreads freely thanks to open border policies >lügenpresse doing damage control against nationalist who now have the perfect excuse for strong broders >quarantines cutting off international supply chains

>lots of industries going out of business due to lack of imported essentials >scarcity forcing the goyim to wonder why isn't their country self sufficient >consoomers and wage slaves holed up in their houses and running out of shekkels for rent and taxes

>mass panic getting normies even in the most pozzed states to arm themselves to the teeth

>leftards, niggers, degenerates and other subversive elements being blessed left

>globohomo alphabets like UN and EU are getting desperate to remain in control >trust in every government at an all time low >normies waking up to inconvenient truths like event 201 and ID2020

>the fed printing shekkels as if there was something to buy with them >looting and riots in metropolitan commie hives as they run out of resources >zogbots can't stop it because they are being blessed too

>Pedowood's propaganda machine is burning as disgust towards them grows so far it's looking like globohomo's worst nightmare, sure they can try going

Read "One the Pope" or "Du Pape"

>https://books.google.com/books?id=-JxeAAAcAAJ&printsec=frontcover&dq=inauthor:%22Joseph+Marie+comte+de+Maistre%22&hl=en&newbks=1&newbks_redir=0&sa=X#v=onepage&q&f=false

He was basically a religious monarchist type philosopher who disliked the idea that you needed "rational" government the enlightenment philosophers and politicians pushed for because it was inherently weak in that literally everything could be debated, challenged, or easily de-legitimized, thus making it harder to get shit done and weakening this cultural "immune system" as we are talking about it in this thread. He also stated that arguments from unresolved issues would lead to infighting etc. something we see here on this very board and in a lot of /ourguy/ communities, and that it was more practical to have decision making power in the hands of those capable of taking decisive action rather than a governing body of infighting, arguing, debaters.

Basically just very "empire over republic" and "monarchy over democracy" with a very religious bent, as for him this meant the legitimacy of the ruler had to stem from religion, and to him it was the pope who should basically be the protector and enforcer of European social cohesion and political authority. He was from a different era of course and I don't fully agree with him in the sense that I surely wouldn't want the Pinko Pope and his priesthood of queer child molesters to be the arbiters of western morality, but that only brings us to the very point is the moral and cohesive immune system of our culture has failed/collapsed and we are now vulnerable to attack, division, subversion etc. I'm not christian and don't even necessarily think the church is the answer, but I think he was on to something as far as the core principle that central authority, societal cohesion and moral enforcement all need to come from some source that unites the public conscious and defends society at large against degeneracy and divisive subversion.

IMO it's guys like this who need to be the spiritual leaders and influences of any future European ethnostate or empire, even if they are from another era and we don't have to agree 100% they have a lot of good ideas and foundations that have been swept under the rug and are usually not taught in modern academia unless you go out of your way to find them.

Sorry but this is a good list I want to add to it and modify it to make it more normie friendly.

Some positive aspects of COVID-2020:

- 1) Helps people see dangers of globalism
 - 1a) constant low-level sicknesses of the last 20 years have gone away
 - 2) necessary quarantines cutting off international supply chains, requiring resurgence of border-based economy
 - 3) Help people see their country isn't self sufficient, things running out
 - 4) Wage slaves holed up in their houses, time to think about their condition
 - 5) mass panic getting normies even in the most pozzed states to consider need for rights like 2A
 - 6) mainstreaming of alternate worldviews
 - 6a) normies waking up to inconvenient truths like event 201 and ID2020
 - 7) Fed printing money like crazy, but so far in better way than the 2008 Obama version which basically just stole houses from people
 - 8) looting and riots in metropolitan hives as they run out of resources help people to see need for rights and like communities
 - 9) Closing the state child brainwashing centers
 - 9a) Families take resurgent interest in education and upbringing children, which goes against 50 years of "take them to state schools as early as possible"
 - 9b) Many families get chance to consider their options as many states were just about to pass bills requiring forced "vaccines" for kids

So what possible paths and probabilities are next?
At this new fork in the road, will the Gates Foundation be allowed to continue buying influence with those same Fed Printing Prints? Now that everyone is desperate and both have and will soon accelerate firesales for even the slightest gibbs from Bill Gates et al?
You see Gates trying. He and GAVI bought the WHO for a decade, not so much China (though Tedros did cuck even Gates's ass for China, yes). Regardless, you see others begging. Which is strange, because all Gates Foundation money came from those same govt programs and digital certificate + software + food monopolies, redirecting as a parasitic gatekeeper. Things like Apple-SteveJobs and GatesFoundation-BillGates -caused- the corruption, which was excused, because Ponzi schemes were the float to buy peace -and- because everyone thought it was 'external'. But nothing exists in a vacuum, and it all ended in poverty -here-. And it is poverty that kills, not coronachan's sweet kiss to the opiated.
The problem is a loss of economic natural law, causing a mass printed of numerator numerals with zero underwritten denominators (which is undefined, by definition), and a subsequent destruction of all ownership accounts and accounting. A mass contraction of accounts, with a mass loss of asset/wealth denominated numbers/currency. Which is the opposite of what all need to do. And for what now? For Gates Foundation et al to unopposed position themselves as the solution to the problems (loss of all accounts and number-backed-attainable-wealth) they accelerated for decades? The USA can withstand another round of this (with deep problems), but can the rest of the world? Can Europe? Can Japan? Can South Africa?
China too just printed at less than 10% of what they need. As a rule of thumb, to restart the Ponzi, you must double the current print. Which is $20T transitional dollar flooding. Or 10x what the first CARE passed. Staged rollout as before, with target double or 10x the current currency float. And it can't go to Gates, nor any other Lying Liar 'Charity' neo-chartiy non-charity corruption. The only way to do this, is that Gate's accounts must be FROZEN. And that's -if-fucking -if- the ponzi float should even be wanted to be restarted in the first place.
By account structure, globohomo is now unopposed. Yes, they and all took losses, but that abomination is now unopposed. It's mouth is wide fucking open, and it is eating first.

Indeed I have not. Are you saying no one should ever practise magick? It sounds like you either need to shift your paradigm or stop being obnoxious to your deities.

>don't get their place in the cosmos

Whatever this is supposed to mean, and whoever the hell you are to speak in cosmos's stead.

>I have never ever once discouraged anons from acting (...)

OK, seems legit. I thought of several (I think) people when typing this, but yes, you included. I believe I must've misunderstood your posts. (I just hope others didn't...) Plus I assumed you didn't do much. I apologise for this. And thank you for your contribution, really.

(But, was that you who said something about sparing whites and the Japanese some time ago (unless I misremember)? I have to say it concerned me. If this clause actually affects the outcome, it may result in very unpleasant things happening (or rather in things we want to happen not happening). We must not limit the Goddess.)

>Shit's clearly happening in turd world countries, it just takes longer for a full scale Happening to unfold in first world ones.

I appreciate it, though unless the first world gets hit hard it won't really help us. We may get deprived of new smartphones and diamonds, but this alone is presumably not enough to make the masses turn against the government. What's more, third world always has some fighting and diseases and other shit going on, and they'll always outbreed any disaster anyway, so the ZOG's expendable workforce remains more-or-less intact. First-world folks are much weaker in this regard, and they are also much more necessary to keep the system itself (the structure, their egregore, whatever) rolling.

>Have faith in your people.

Sigh. Wish I could. I don't want to be a buzzkill, but I'm pretty sure whites are more brainwashed than blacks. And people kept in check by poverty and a need to work hard to survive are more likely to rise up than those kept in obedience by relative luxury and, in many places, getting basic income for free even if they don't work at all. (And they weren't taught to be "accepting" and whatnot, instead they have a much more warlike and "intolerant" culture, so they'll go kill someone with knives and clubs, if not fists, sooner than we will with high-end firearms. In the US you can find plenty school-shooters or other child-murderers, but few people willing to fight with an enemy who is actually trained to and willing to kill you.)

>If you kill your enemies, they win

>things sometimes do resolve themselves on their own, you just need to find the right moment to act

"Sometimes" being the keyword. Whoever counts on happy coincidences INSTEAD of on hard work has already lost. By the way, we have already missed the best moment to act, now we need to get our arses in gear immediately and save whatever can still be saved.

>This won't hurt the capos until it leads to serious societal unrest, the one that can't be "controlled chaos". And people still seem to be having their bread and circuses.

Definitely true. This is tricky, I haven't yet researched the methods of dealing with this too well. However I'm positive that it is possible. (At least assuming I won't have to be the only person who has to do everything himself, or maybe with 1 or 2 other people, and with no coordination between us. I really wish we could have an actual cult...)

According to Bill Gates: Being barred from public gatherings

According to the Bible: Being barred from trade

((they))) are not letting this catastrophe go to waste and are starting to push for spyware implants and e-shekkels what i want to know is how exactly do they expect to make enough Sauron's chips to brand everyone, the electronics industry is the one that got fucked the harder by the loss of international supply chains even back when smallpox was allegedly eradicated the world was not able to produce vaccines for every single human alive, i'm no biologist but i'm guessing gps chips are a little bit harder to make than vaccines.

Besides, how durable can they be? i doubt those chips can be implanted deep enough in the body so that they can't be removed with a shard of glass. Also, what would happen to them if you fry them with a taser?

honestly i'm more worried about pharma companies using corona chan as an excuse to enslave us all with pill cocktails that will kill us if we drop them an implant chip that can ID and track the goyim, that has the necessary resistance so that they can't scratch it off and is easy enough to mass produce in a collapsed economy sounds like sci-fi tech to me

Unfortunately the enlightenment has been a mistake in most of its implementations. Does that mean that its underlying principles were wrong? Or that people implementing them were all too human for such arcane concepts to be materialized. Maybe there were certain mysterious forces corrupting and sabotaging it from the shadows? Sometimes the best way to convince people that what they want is bad for them is to actually give them what they want. Or rather, to give them the most extreme, twisted and decadent forms of it so they are conditioned to reject everything associated with it and come back to your flock willingly? I'm not very inclined towards the god-king, religious authority and other monarchist principles, but it's certain that we have a lot to learn from them as they have identified many causes for the problems that we are facing today. There is certainly merit in this "dark enlightenment", but it will have to dialectically advance, lest it will lose again.

smart work

>However I'm positive that it is possible.

A good portion of their power relies on most people being convinced that its not possible. Are those giga-gikes smarter than you, stronger than you, more capable than you? Or they are merely enthroned by memes weaved by generations of their predecessors who were far smarter than they are. All it takes is for the people to stop following the pied piper and realize that the kings are naked. This situation might reveal a good opportunity for that.

>I really wish we could have an actual cult...

I read they use prison labor from Riker's Island to bury New York's homeless dead there, every Thursday. On jewgle maps you can see markings around the island. I think the ditches with boarding allows them to dig an efficient mass grave, but fill it based on need, using the boarding to create a wall. Filling up the ditch in multiple burials.

I agree. Any future movement or organization shouldn't be an imitation of old things from another era, including nazi larping. Anything new needs to be inspired by the best elements of older stuff, not some cheap imitation that just makes you look cringey and gay. Passive RFID is pretty inexpensive. You will be like a tagged piece of cheese. Hi everybody, PastaAnon reporting: I have a few news about things around and a medical bulletin regarding waifu. The mayor of a town 25 miles away made a massive screening on the people living there (7000 total): they had 16 positives before the screening and now they had the first 1000 results there are 140 people with "serum" positivity. It seems that at least 15% of the total population was exposed and was blessed but without outstanding symptoms.

Waifu got a single sided viral keratouveitis and a mild temperature for a single afternoon. I am now starting to think I was exposed too at new years eve party because I had a few strange symptoms in mid january (swelling lymph nodes for 3 days - never experienced before). I am a smoker but I have a very good diet and I train regularly, 45yo, A+ blood group. Kids totally unaffected at the moment. I am the only one daring to go outside since february and when I do I dress like uncle Vlad. The town retirement castle is a mess: they had 39 hosts in january, now they have only 19 left and 16 of them tested positive. Now, I am not saying we are dying: today was sunny and I was as usual sunbathing and drinking wine. Nevertheless this place will never be the same. Time for a "revolution" - we will either come out of this like a new 1922 Italy or it will become Soy Hell. We have to work in baby steps anon. Before we can get to extended families we have to at least start with abolishing same-sex families, abolishing gender equality, and reestablishing the institution of marriage as the basis for long-term relationships and reproduction. Furthermore, extended families have never been popular amongst Europeans in the British Isles, Scandinavia, or Germanic Europe. Since the extended family has only been the mainstream in Southern and Eastern Europe, we will have to push extra hard to enforce this system on Western Europeans, and even harder to enforce it in the highly individualistic Anglosphere.

It's okay, I appreciate your kind words. Aside from redpilling others on the kike agenda, I also instigate anti-government sentiments in those around me, gotta point the angry shitskins at the right direction, after all.

>But, was that you who said something about sparing whites and the Japanese some time ago (unless I misremember)? I have to say it concerned me. If this clause actually affects the outcome, it may result in very unpleasant things happening (or rather in things we want to happen not happening). We must not limit the Goddess.

Yes I did say that, I believe upstanding whites and nips deserve to be spared. But I'm always open to the input of other cultists, if you say the Goddess shouldn't be limited, I assume you have good reasons to believe that.

>What's more, third world always has some fighting and diseases and other shit going on, and they'll always outbreed any disaster anyway

Not if they're being sterilized by /ourgirl/ ;^)

> but I'm pretty sure whites are more brainwashed than blacks. And people kept in check by poverty and a need to work hard to survive are more likely to rise up than those kept in obedience by relative luxury

You're unfortunately right about that.

> I really wish we could have an actual cult

You mean a centralized organization like many religions? Me too, but maybe our decentralization is an advantage. By the way, don't waste your mental energies with c90a3a, that's just a maggot waging a demoralization campaign against us, he is already dead anyway.

I see that he recognized how the revolution was enabled by the nobility becoming corrupt and abandoning aristocratic principles and national dogma. Without that, no subversion would be possible. He is also accurately noting that Christianity actually fell once the divine right (of kings and pontifex) got abolished. The key error of such writers is that they are writing only from the perspective of their own times. What he failed to realize is that Christians were once the same revolutionaries, serving the same forces which he labels as 'satanic', once Christianity was sweeping across the old world in identical manner as the revolutionary forces of his contemporaries did. Likewise, a more modern author may complain how the globohomo (a next generation plague) is taking away their Enlightenment era liberties, looking back at the revolutionary forces with the same nostalgic sentiment as Joseph de Maistre is looking with at the dwindling Christian power of his day. If they could all meet beyond the context of their times, they would be in agreement. The heathen who got burned by the Christian on the stake, the Christian who got beheaded by the revolutionary forces, and the classic liberal who got murdered by the forces of neo-bolshevism. Then a realization would have struck them, that all of the European achievements and greatness were not a result of those particular religions or politics, but by their Aryan spirit which transcends all. More often in spite of those religions and politics, than thanks to them. They were not necessarily opposed, but used as phases in dismantling the genuine European aristocracy by the forces of disintegration (of which Jews took the most prominent and central role). Social tendencies are showing a clear meta-pattern (with certain periodic oscillations) of being less degenerate the further you go in the past. Not only degenerate from the perspective of a Christian fundamentalist, as many elements of that religion are extremely degenerate, but from the perspective of the natural law and European aristocratic spirit. As our ancestors long time ago banished from India understood and wrote in Vedic texts. Welcome to eternal recurrence.

Despite NS Germany probably being the peak expression of sentient life on this planet in almost every possible regard, and being something that should be emulated, we cannot be content by being the same. Rather, we must ascend even higher, for the challenges that we are facing are even greater. Incorporating all the good (and not mutually exclusive) elements from our past.

The depletion of CO2 from the atmosphere has nothing to do with people. It is just a geological certainty that will happen in about 100 million years, making life as we know it impossible. It took us 10 million years to evolve from apes (that will most likely become extinct within the next century). Dolphins are the only animals comparably smart but living in the sea does not allow them to reach even paleolithic levels of technology.

I just got a visit from a friend of my parents.

He works in a bank, and is handling my housing credit. I asked him his opinion about the coming crisis (mainly fearing my housing credit would be affected).

According to him, this is quite different from 2008.

Back in 2008, people wanted money, and the banks had none. And fearing exactly that, a lot of wealthy cocksuckers ran with what they could withdraw.

Right now however, banks have money. Lots of it. The problem is that no-one is borrowing it. And thus, they're not making money from interests. And they'll only recover if the rest of the economy does, so new loans get made.

Thoughts? He's a trustworthy guy and helped me greatly with buying a new house so I'm inclined to believe him.

I think that is a pretty good assessment. Any thoughts on how this spirit could be re-awakened or made manifest, or what in particular about said spirit that can be harnessed?

It was pretty sweet. But I think we need something today more like hearkening back to traditional shit, encourage women to be feminine and wear nice, pretty, fashionable dresses and long hair. Encourage men to wear "functional" clothes and carry multi-tools or something else with them. Encourage people, possibly by social media trends, to put up nice classical or romantic era art in their homes, push people to get /fit/, eat healthy, become more self-reliant and whatnot. Basically a package of good principles and good ideals in general that would be a counter-current to a lot of the degenerate, fat acceptance, gender neutral clown world shit we have in the mainstream. The question is, like above, how do we ignite it in people to be amenable to these things? Do enough people need to get fed up with out of control degeneracy? Or is the economic Corona crash going to open the door for such possibilities?

Macaco chamando os outros de macaco, que irônico. E fala do Adolfo como se ele fosse se importar com um povo miscigenado.

Anyway, Corona will kill both Bolsonaro supporters and PT/PSDB/PSol/etc (leftists) supporters. March the 21st, when the pandemic was beginning in Brazil, there was a pro Bolsonaro demonstration in Paulista avenue. A week later, guess what happened, a demonstration against Bolsonaro happened on the same place. It's simple, people denying this disease will die. Even if you hate Bolsonaro supporters, why aren't you happy to see them on streets exposed? I think that will be a protest in a similar fashion against Bolsonaro soon.

>Those cunts are blocking ambulances

You say that like it never happened before with other cunts, like leftist university students blocking the traffic during the rush hour for useless reasons.

>I hate Bolsonaro supporters, they have no fucking brains.

The same can be said for communists and socialists but there's way more of them than there are Bolsonaro supporters. Again, if you hate them, let them protest. You never interrupt an enemy when he's doing a mistake.

It didn't surprise me, plenty of jewish links around him during the campaign, but I expected him to at least only fuck up half the time, a notable improvement over the previous sack of shit (Lula).

Then he pulls stupid shit after stupid shit:

>encourages his supporters to boycott quarantine

>Oh shit, this is actually bad

>CHINA HELP

>China sends them cheap, unsuabe shit >rest of the world laughing, won't help >China counting profits >his suporters are doubling down on the stupidity >if he goes back, he loses his supporters and emboldens his oposition

This an actual "Orange Man Bad", the guy actually fucked up on a monumental scale. And after what he did with the Amazon forest, I'm looking at this particular fuck up and remembering, he still got 2 whole years ahead to fuck up even more.

> jewish money lending tricks?

Well, yes, that's the silver lining, I guess.

But large companies often contract large loans to finance new factories (or expand current one's). Small business often take a medium loan to start up a small workshop or retail business.

The fact that noone is taking these up means no new business is being created (small wonder, there's no demand for them, they'd fail a month after starting) and since we have companies going bankrupt all the time, that means every part of the private sector is contracting and sending people to unemployment. Some sectors more than others, I'm sure, but it will be very noticeable in a month or two.

Worse of all, I think this means banks will have to loan money at very reduced rates (maybe even NEGATIVE rates), and that represents a risk that some banks will crumble. Before you cheer the downfall of the Jewish parasite, remember that half a dozen banks crumbling can easily pull others under, and collapse a large chunk of the financial sector, a sector that more or less keeps most of our private sector running.

Banks are the gears of our industry, and the shekels are the oil that keep them running.

No gears or shekels and the whole thing grinds to an halt.

Note: I'm no economist, I just had a banker visit me and heard his side of the story. I believe this might lead politicians to finally start rethinking how modern banking works though.

Everytime I look at your posts, in every thread, I look out the window. And I see a truck, carrying 20 dead bodies. That truck made that trip 3 times today. And yesterday. And the day before. Posting just for the sake of people lurking.

I fear some might read his shit and start thinking "What if...?".

I feel it's important to leave counter-posts warning other anons: yes it's real, yes it's out there, and yes it's deadly.

Speaking of which: I got a sister working as a Nurse in London.

She confirmed me today that theory anons had in the previous thread: the virus does attack the hema in your blood, kicking out the iron from your red cells.

There's other procedures people were doing that were also killing off patients.

For instance, they were given medicine to remove fluid from their bodies, since people were treating it like SARS, until medics noticed that people had little to no fluid, they were sweating a fuck ton, and already were losing fluids pretty fast. The medicines pretty much turned them into dry-raisins and might have killed off a few.

Some other funky shit has been going down too, with no explanation: Corona causes blood clots. Not sure what's up with that, I didn't see it mentioned anywhere else, but according to my sister, the Covid19 patients who are on Dyalisis, clog up the filters on the machine in less than 12 hours. The blood is filled with clots. IF you're not on dyalisis, the clots get into your kidneys and lungs, royally fucking them up (description I got was: they clog up access, no blood gets in, cells end up dying).

Anyone heard anything of the sort?

Unfortunately true, but it must happen in order for a new system to replace it. This time, it has to be replaced with a system that's actually designed to work and be beneficial to the people.

>Some other funky shit has been going down too, with no explanation: Corona causes blood clots. Not sure what's up with that, I didn't see it mentioned anywhere else, but according to my sister, the Covid19 patients who are on Dyalisis, clog up the filters on the machine in less than 12 hours. The blood is filled with clots. IF you're not on dyalisis, the clots get into your kidneys and lungs, royally fucking them up (description I got was: they clog up acess, no blood gets in, cells end up dying).

Holy shit, sounds nasty. Corona-Chan is mean.

>The question is, like above, how do we ignite it in people to be amenable to these things? Do enough people need to get fed up with out of control degeneracy? Or is the economic Corona crash going to open the door for such possibilities?

Yes, the masses will be open to cultural change after the collapse. It's not going be easy to convince people to change their ways but it if it has happened before, it can happen again!

>you can help because you are the friendly neighborhood nazi that wears a tin foil hat. no need to tell or show power level >alter their narrative so they become red pillled by 'show, dont tell'.

Spot on. I'm not gonna brag that I redpillled people or converted them.

I just pointed stuff like "Do you know how the EU is elected?" or why some subsidies have been awarded or not in the EU.

Lo and behold, the staunchest euro-centric around me turned euro-skeptic, out of their own volition.

People did trust their government, blindly. Of course they think politicians are corrupt thieving bastards, but they still trust the government. But then you point out a bailout here, an illegal favour there. Or show them some miserable fucks the government left to die. Suddenly they change their tune. Maybe the government doesn't have your best interests at heart, eh?

The secret? Let them think. Give them an idea and let them ponder it. Never force it. Why? Because if you force it, everyone will agree with it: it's the quickest way you'll shut the fuck up about your tin-foil conspiracies.

But if you let them think, if you let them draw conclusions... a few harebrained bastards go their merry way and you don't lose time with them. The rest will feel smart, in control. They will feel that THEY figured this shit out, and they'll come up with solutions. Solutions your government won't like.

I've come to the conclusion that the modern Nazi doesn't need the Hacken Kreuz. Or the 14 words.

The modern Nazi needs the same thing the old Nazis needed: thinkers. People who use their brains for more than breathing and walking. People who look at "drones" and gradually start hating them as much you and I.

That's all you need, and that's all they need.

Secrets about Banking? Motherfucker, what he told me is publicaly available info: banks are having troubles pushing loans onto the market. You can walk into a bank and ask them, they'll give you the same answer. Not that you need to, you can simply look at the falling interest rates and draw the same conclusion.

Yes, I used "Orange Man Bad" unironically, because Bolsonaro is acting like an actual "Orange Man Bad". He was doing great fighting against crime and the drug trade that plagues Brazil, then he starts eating crayons and drops the ball on the Amazonian fires/land claims. While he's recovering from that blunder, Corona hits and the motherfucker goes full retard. He became "Orange Man Bad" in the flesh, and if you can't understand the analogy, check yourself into an hospital and get a TAC scan on that head: it ain't working right.

>it must happen in order for a new system to replace it
No doubt about it. What did back in 2008 didn't actually fix the crisis, it only kicked the can down the road. Most analysts said we'd have to deal with it again by 2030, but hey, now that the economy went to shit, we might have to deal with it while recovering from a deadly plague! This "We'll handle it later" attitude really needs to fucking die.

Treat it as hear say. Both Nurses and Doctors are reporting those blood clots at the hospital she works at, but I haven't heard a word about it from anywhere else. Cokelombian prisoners demonstrating and asking for freedom after Corona-Chan killed two of their fellow inmates <https://archive.vn/S61Uz>

<https://archive.vn/Lr8Pa>

Cokelombians closing off roads that lead towns to prevent the spread of Corona-Chan <https://archive.vn/p9HJj> I wonder when I will find pictures of Burgers doing this kind of stuff, It has happened in Chinkland, happened in Iran, happened in PooperPower2020, and even Ecuadorians and Brownzilian indians are doing this. When will rural Burgers close off their small towns? A Pasta town did it and they survived.

Group of Venezuelan doctors claim there are 376 suspected cases just in Mérida <https://archive.vn/cEhYD> while Maduro is takes a page from the Chink's playbook and says that Memezuella is fine.

An article made just for people who ask about Apefrica. <https://archive.vn/ErTg0>

>South Africa—which has the most advanced healthcare system in sub-Saharan Africa—has so far only managed to test around 73,000 of its 57 million inhabitants.

>Nigeria, Africa's biggest economy, has only carried out 5,000 coronavirus tests to date for a country of 190 million people.

>"The testing system is quite overloaded," admitted a doctor working at a private clinic in Lagos, who asked not to be identified.

>"It takes time for... the results," he added. "And are they accurate? We don't know."

>Kenya, for instance, has predicted its number of coronavirus cases to reach 10,000 by the end of April. Ten days into the month, the number of detected infections remained lower than 200. Director General of Kenya's health ministry, Patrick Amoth earlier this week said that was because they had not done community-based testing.

>The head of the Africa Centres for Disease Control and Prevention, John Nkengasong, admitted that Africa's coronavirus statistics were far from "perfect".

>"We just lack the means," he told AFP.

By the way, I want to vent about something that has been annoying me for a long time on Twitter: Kpop video spammers. There are either people or bots on twitter using the virus's hashtags to spam kpop clips. There are multiple accounts doing this infuriating shit. They also use common words and phrases on their posts along with the hashtags just so they can slide even more shit. What do the people behind these accounts again by doing this? I don't know, maybe they're employed by the (((people))) behind Event 201 to disrupt discussion of the virus on twitter, like how shills slide shit on imageboards. My first encounter with these kpop glowniggers was when I started crawling for news about my city, they were using the virus's name hashtags, common phrases and my city's name in their posts, they made it impossible to find any news or real posts for a couple of days, then they eased up on the spamming. But lately, they are doing the same shit with Colombia. It seems Twatter moderation deletes their accounts sometimes but they just make new ones and start spamming their bugman shit again.

Best Korea will take even stronger measures against Corona-Chan

<https://archive.vn/Bn90s> I wonder what they meant by this. How much stronger can they even get? They already closed every nook and cranny down and are threatening to shoot chinks who cross the border, they're also thoroughly disinfecting and quarantining packages and containers from foreign countries.

>Found 2010 Wuhan ACE2-bats paper before chinks could scrub it. Attached.

Saved it. Gonna stop being a nigger and actually start saving these just to give them to anons when they ask for one of them. I actually had saved one of these before but deleted it because I thought "eh, I can't understand this sciencefag shit anyway". Not going to delete them anymore.

The shitshow is actually far greater than what's being posted in this thread:

The locust swarm returned to Apefrica and got even bigger, factories are going down in flames everywhere in Chinkland, the Pajeets have been firing artillery at the Pakis, Chink fighter jets recently harassed Taiwanese airspace, reports of UFOs sightings in Tacoland and Iran and a new terrorist group in Iraq has been targeting Burgers. If this was a Happening general instead of just a Corona-Chan general, this thread would be even spicier.

Best Koreans building a new hospital <https://archive.vn/eyj5J> Inmates released because of Corona-Chan go back to mugging people and selling drugs in the southern Brownzilian state of Rio Grande Do Sul. Surprise big not.
Public Ministry in the southern Brownzilian state of Paraná is putting inmates convicted of serious crimes such as rapes and murders into house arrest because of the pandemic. I did not expect such a move coming from a southern state government at all, what the fuck. The kikes and commies deeply infiltrated into the local government must be pulling their strings, there's a lot of them in the south, unfortunately.

Another elderly white person recovers from infection: 91 Y0 Brazilian woman in the state of Paraná who's been recently discharged from an hospital says she's feeling wonderful. Vitalina Ferreira dos Santos had returned from a trip to São Paulo, where she probably got infected. She started displaying the "mild" symptoms then developed a pneumonia and got hospitalized for 10 days before recovering and being discharged from the hospital. Both the senior and her daughter who stood by her side during hospitalization will be quarantined at home for 10 days then be tested for the virus again.

>The doctor came clapping to me, celebrating my victory. I'm feeling wonderful,
I'm here for whatever happens.

Now that's what I call good news! Thank for sparing her, Corona-Chan!

>he actually believed the chinks and their numbers

She never left or was defeated in the first place, anon. What I'm more interested in is not their numbers but new footage of droppers. So far, we got two, one in the previous thread and one in the beginning of this one. Can't wait for more dropper footage.

>"More importantly, the place was described as something akin to a concentration camp," said a source who agreed to be interviewed on condition of anonymity because of the sensitivity of the issue.

>"There were (two) patients who were dead in their beds," the source added.

"Their deaths had not been recognized. There were patients who had fallen on the floor. There were patients who hadn't had any basic care for a number of days, diapers that hadn't been changed for three or four days, excrement that was covering their skin and patients who hadn't been fed.

>"Their whole second floor was infested with coronavirus," the source continued. "It was a hot floor. And there were just two orderlies for the entire (134-bed) institution."

>Nurses discovered some patients were so dehydrated, their mouths so dry, they were unable to speak at first, the sources said. One patient was triple-diapered with feces seeping out.

CHINA ADMITS WU-FLU BEHAVES LIKE HIV

Guess those inserts had a purpose after all.

<https://www.scmp.com/news/china/society/article/3079443/coronavirus-could-target-immune-system-targeting-protective>

>The coronavirus that causes Covid-19 could kill the powerful immune cells that are supposed to kill the virus instead, scientists have warned.

>The surprise discovery, made by a team of researchers from Shanghai and New York, coincided with frontline doctors' observation that Covid-19 could attack the human immune system and cause damages similar to that found in HIV patients.

>Lu Lu, from Fudan University in Shanghai, and Jang Shibo, from the New York Blood Centre, joined the living virus, which is officially known as Sars-CoV-2, on laboratory-grown T lymphocyte cell lines.

>T lymphocytes, also known as T cells, play a central role in identifying and eliminating alien invaders in the body.

>They do this by capturing a cell infected by a virus, bore a hole in its membrane and inject toxic chemicals into the cell. These chemicals then kill both the virus and infected cell and tear them to pieces.

>To the surprise of the scientists, the T cell became a prey to the coronavirus in their experiment. They found a unique structure in the virus's spike protein that appeared to have triggered the fusion of a viral envelope and cell membrane when they came into contact.

>The virus's genes then entered the T cell and took it hostage, disabling its function of protecting humans.

Thanks anon. Would love any medfags to opine on below:

>HIV can replicate in the T cells and turn them into factories to generate more copies to infect other cells.

>But Lu and Jiang did not observe any growth of the coronavirus after it entered the T-cells, suggesting that the virus and T-cells might end up dying together.

>The study gives rise to some new questions. For instance, the coronavirus can exist for weeks on some patients without causing any symptoms.
>How it interacted with the T cells in these patients remained unclear.
>Some critically ill patients also experienced cytokine storms, where the immune system overreacts and attacks healthy cells.
>But why and how the coronavirus triggers that remains poorly understood.

Good reminder to disinfect your packaged food stuffs. We stopped buying fresh bread, baking our own instead for the duration. Vegetables get a thorough wash before going into the house. All other items (packaged) get wiped with bleach. Also, this is what fucks up your supply chains over time, 'essential workers' (slaves, basically) falling ill at work and shutting it down.

>WU-FLU ... [attacks immune cells directly]

And the source? SCMP doesn't count, and is worse than CNN. God damn chink glowfaggots. Absent anything real to act on, that sounds like yet again china lies, and adolescent sophist idiot lies.

If you wanted to claim that, you would have to show the exact cell population marker by which viral-mediated fusion is triggered. 'Entered' doesn't count. How does it enter, and what does the entry?

If the virus ends up in T-cells, which one at which stage is most susceptible? CD4 vs CD8 precursors, or CD4 as T0/Treg/etc? Simply being in some T-cells on an immunofluorescent assay slide is not abnormal, rather it is normal, that's what those cells are supposed to do. In conjunction with NK, Macrophages, etc, they eat the enemy, find recombination genetics which produce identification of the pieces of the enemy, and keep them both on file/T-Cell-Derivative populations and to communicate to other T-cells. This is in order to control cellular defense/clean-up. Plasma defense is still primary though, as the virus particles will go through the same eat-and-express-pieces on B cells, ending up on file/B-Cell-Derivative populations producing IgG-free and IgM-bound immunoglobulin antibodies to viral pieces. Which means finding pieces in B-cells is also not abnormal, but rather normal and expected. You would be worried if they didn't, not if they did. But if the 'how' is by viral initiated fusion, then that's infection; If the 'how' is by cellular intimidated fusion to kill the damn things, then that's normal, that's what they do, etc.

So again, if the claim is coronachan infects X, then X must state the receptor identified population of cells, such as ACE2, etc.

And finally, to say that coronachan behaves like HIV is dogshit lies. It doesn't. It doesn't behave like HIV. That's just pajeet stupid lie echos likely sponsored by china. There is continuing selected spot mutations, now. But before all that, there was now shown to be deliberately encouraged mutation series to find an ACE2 homologue in h. sapiens -and- during that same period, there was also encouraged recombination (by Bat Queen: Shi Zengli). Then there was lab derived leaks, at it did come from The Bat Lady with likely her lead dead patient zero research assistant (Huang Yan Ling). All of this is still not AIDS nor HIV, rather all of this is BUGMEN, doing what they were specifically told not to do. Bugmen chinks and globalist kikes are the AIDS of a worst sort and behave like faggots.

We've been through all of this already. Don't you have research to go delete? Or some CCP agents to rescue in Brazil from a failed supply plain extraction?

Please, put together a list of sourced claims. That seems to me to be the basic output of this thread, is 1 pasta or PDF of sourced claims.

* E.g. ground glass lungs - is this definitely in people who weren't already half-dead like Joe Diffie?

* "No conferred immunity" - latest I heard was a shock MSM story that 5% could catch it again.

* High mutation rate - current mainstream is that low mutation is occurring. Any papers/real science to the contrary?

Same. I was originally against herd immunity but I have seen enough news of white recoveries to make me believe it's possible. It's going to be extremely costly, though. Would cause an immense number of deaths, both of worthless people and of decent people that could be enlightened.

Money is a concept, an archetype. Nothing meets that standard, really. Gold does if you think it does. If gold give you the warm and fluffy mother's milk sensation that it's "money", then sure, it's money. The MUH U.S. constitution refers to the printed stuff as "any Thing [which may be used as] a Tender in Payment of Debts". It may not be "money", but it has a very certain utility. It's actually time to get over the boomer mindsets on this stuff. Consider the kind of SCUM which promotes gold standard. Pic related.

Oh I just realized. Bitcoin emerged out of the EXISTING system they were using to keep track of electronic funds transfers. They already had a blockchain, fucking years ago. A ledger. Of course they did. It's all so clear now. That's how you HAVE to keep track of funds transfers when you don't have printed notes with serial numbers. Jeez that's so funny. Bitcoin is basically the backend of SWIFT.

https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/eid/article/26/7/20-0841_article

The titers are fine. 'Reinfection' is likely not due to lack of antibodies.

Antibodies are produced in both SARS-CoV-2 and HIV. However, this similarity does not mean SARS-CoV-2 behaves like HIV. For instance, the former has been shown to directly infect by ACE2, whereas the later has not. Further, the former has been shown to be able to be 'cleared' by the vast majority of patients, whereas the later has been shown to be unable to be 'cleared' by the vast majority of patients. Even more proof still that they are not 'behave alike': the former can transfer by air, whereas the later requires aggressive group butt sex. Ergo, SARS-CoV-2 does not behave like HIV.

The fastest way to shut down the "nobody died at Sandy Hook" people is to post pictures of the childrens' dead bodies and scans of the official death certificates and autopsy reports. I've never heard one of the deniers respond to those pictures or those death certificates or autopsies, even to claim they are fake.

As clever as you think you are, you should really cut out the reddit-spacing.
They never release pictures of dead kids after a school shooting - why would they? Even with Columbine, no gory crime scene photos were officially released, with everything available being leaked illegally years later. There is nothing about Sandy Hook that was particularly abnormal, and since it's used as the gold standard for "hoaxes", people use it as the basis to claim nothing ever happens, ever.

What would ZOG - or you favorite "not the jews" bogeyman - gain by hiring hundreds of actors in the biggest conspiracy ever with the most loose ends, instead of just killing the kids? Are the powers that be so moral that they would never harm children?

Corporate Mainstream Media Is Lying About Herd Immunity Now, Claiming Vaccines Are Why It Works!

MY COMMENT: There are no sources that will be linked, I will not link to deliberate lies. However, the ID 2020 vaccine shills in the media are now working overtime to demonize the concept of herd immunity, and propagandists claim the 'only reason [herd immunity] works is because people had previous vaccines.' NOT TRUE AT ALL! Herd immunity would be allowing a virus to spread and kill off the weak and unhealthy (as it normally would), while the rest can fight it off (naturally) with their immune systems thus becoming immune to those viruses. Any report caught lying about herd immunity will not be posted within future links.

I have no doubt the panic and egineered misinfo, and WHO are jacking up numbers, as well as attributing other causes to the virus, but as everyone can plainly see, the bug is very real.

On the plus side- a shitload of genetic inferiors will drop off the face of the earth. Corona's symptoms are so skilfully woven, that a million other health problems/major-minor issues could easily mask her/be mistaken for her work- even the results of self-medicating hide her gracefully.

>I believe upstanding whites and nips deserve to be spared. But I'm always open to the input of other cultists, if you say the Goddess shouldn't be limited, I assume you have good reasons to believe that.

(Sorry for late reply, and I hope I phrased my points transparently.)

I believe we should abandon such expressions. People dying in large numbers is both an inevitable consequence of the Goddess' love spreading (and may it be boundless), and also enough deaths are required to cause sufficient social upheaval. Like you said, upstanding people deserve to live, but let's be real, however depressing it may be, even here most can hardly be described as "upstanding". I'd love to believe they can, yet my experiences clearly say otherwise. Meanwhile those worthy ones who go down will be remembered and their deaths shall not be in vain. They shall become Vessels through whom our Merciful Lady manifests Her love. May they spread it to everyone they meet. What's even more, when the worthy die and the Goddess takes them to Her otherworldly abode, the released life-energy shall feed Her. And now I got an idea to designate myself as a sacrifice in case I die, just to make sure my beloved Red Lady gets it all. I don't know how this hasn't occurred to me earlier, as I've been planning a ritual to designate all killed by the influence of my magick as sacrifices (possibly more, but I'm unsure as to what limits such a rite would have; I only know of real-life examples when enemies killed in a battle would be marked as sacrifices beforehand). It may be conceivably not really necessary, but I'd rather be safe than sorry. (On the other hand, I don't want to accidentally accelerate my own death through such a rite, I believe I'm quite useful alive. Well, we'll see.) Another thing, to ensure victory everyone must be treated as dispensable, including ourselves. We are warriors fighting for a noble cause, greater than any single one of us. I am ready to go whenever the Goddess calls me, if such be the price for our victory, and I couldn't dream of a better demise than a death in Her sacred service.

So in short, I never say anything that could result in limiting the Goddess' sphere of influence; I only ever push it further regardless of the cost. If my words can be interpreted in more than one way, or if even when interpreted correctly they can have some side-effects, or manifest in a way that would collide with the ultimate goal - the latter being my exact concern in this case - I do not speak them.

By the way, formulating my intent in a way leaving no room for interpretation was literally the first thing my spiritual master taught me and I may be a bit anal about it, but it's really not unreasonable. But like I said, in this particular case I'd say it's more about problems that may occur even if the manifestation is as correct as possible.

>If you need to go out on foot, pick a time with as few people out and check wind directions. Try to remain downwind.

It seems I was right when I assumed you had a good reason to believe Corona-Chan shouldn't be limited, I agree with what you say.

>We are warriors fighting for a noble cause, greater than any single one of us. I am ready to go whenever the Goddess calls me, if such be the price for our victory, and I couldn't dream of a better demise than a death in Her sacred service.

Hear hear! I too am ready for her embrace. In fact, I have been feeling like everyday without her blessing is a torture, a punishment. But I shall not be impatient, I will continue to wait for her blessing while performing my holy duties, no matter how long I might wait.

>By the way, formulating my intent in a way leaving no room for interpretation was literally the first thing my spiritual master taught me

I wasn't taught this nor read about this anywhere, but assumed on my own that this was the proper course of action in order to avoid unforeseen consequences.

The Coronian State welcomes you to /cvg/ 50

Coronian Thoughts for this thread:

>By achieving Coronian Serenity, you acquire a clear mind. With a clear mind, clearer judgements are made.

>Get up after falling down and you shall never be defeated. Never fall down and you shall forever be victorious.

Coronian Prayer for this thread: Second Prayer Of The Spiritual Coronian Warrior Corona-Chan, my beloved Goddess, I will step into the metaphysical battlefield once more.

Clad in the suit of armor that is my adamant faith in you, wielding the keenest spear that is my immeasurable hatred for our enemies

Guided by the effulgent light of your grandiose beauty, driven by my undying love for you, I fearlessly engage the opposing armies.

It is with great humility that I ask you for your favor in this great spiritual conflict, grant victories to our allies and slay all of our foes.

I care not about my fate in this mortal world, as I wholeheartedly put my soul into your hands.

To be eternally by your side in the underworld is the greatest reward a zealot could receive.

May our flags flutter in the wind in all corners of the world, and may your holy name be jubilantly chanted for millennia to come.

There is no cure, no vaccine, no treatment, there is only love.

Total spiritual war has officially been declared against the unbelievers, infidels, blasphemers, heretics, shills, nothingburgerfags and hoaxniggers, and the curefags. In due time, they and their entire clans will all fall down, to never rise up again. Stay safe, good luck in the Global Collapse and enjoy the thread. Corona-Chan and the Coronian Cult loves you!

Sliding hoaxnigger shitpost

Death to hoaxniggers, death to nothingburgerfags, death to curefags. CORONA-CHAN IS GREAT, SHOUT OUT HER NAME

News: Blessed Brownzilian weightlifting champion is hospitalized then put in the ICU. Struggles to breathe despite being put on a ventilator. The 42 YO Ricardo Xavier de Souza AKA "Giant" started displaying symptoms on 27 of March, these symptoms were body aches, fever and an headache. On 29 of March, he was submitted to radiography of his lungs and blood sample tests which revealed nothing out of ordinary. Some days later, he started vomiting a lot and couldn't eat well. His fever and other symptoms persisted until he started feeling shortness of breath and strong chest pains. He was taken to the hospital again where he was isolated due to being diagnosed with pneumonia and was tested for the new coronavirus. On this last Wednesday, he was put on a ventilator in the ICU but still couldn't breath. The positive test result only came out last Friday.

><https://www.zerohedge.com/health/what-expanse-tells-us-about-covid-19-pandemic-and-gain-function-research>

So what some have pieced together back since 2020-MAR-23, with refinements since then, is the following: A two decade multinational research stack that continued up to about 2014 in North Carolina USA, whereby its graduates took it to Wuhan China to carry on under the CCP, which was all funded under NIH, Defense, and angel investor sponsorship. This produced a SARS-CoV virus model to study human SARS disease. This at length created the final culmination: a multi-species recombinant virus that was then serially selected through both cell cultures of huACE2 and other animals to increase virulence significantly and target a specific holy grail of the huACE2 receptor binding domain, and also gained along the way an antibody dependent enhancement (if you fight it off too much too fast, you get sicker quicker).

It is agreed that this explains all pieces, including the heretofore unanswered natural appearance and small base pair leap sequences.

The ADE gain of function virulence changes all outlooks. This virus will not follow any previous models; Models showing exponential decay waves are incorrect; There will be at least one exponential increase wave -after- the first one currently here. Then it will wave-peak-smaller until background endemic levels are reached. This suggests Q4-end, rather than top of Q2-end. It also means that 100.00% data out of the CCP was truly fabricated and not a single piece of data was even the slightest bit true.

The change of timeline is the part thats going to hurt.

>Abstract: In December 2019, Wuhan, China reported pneumonia caused by 2019 novel coronavirus (2019 novel Coronavirus, 2019-nCoV). Based on genomic information, our previous research results show that although 2019-nCoV and SARS coronavirus belong to Beta coronavirus subgroup B (BB coronavirus), the two viruses are very different. This result is consistent with the clinical symptoms of the two. The previous research also found that there are a large number of variable translations of BB coronavirus, and revealed the characteristics of rapid mutation and high diversity of BB coronavirus from the molecular level. This study is the first in the world to report an important mutation in the BB coronavirus S protein. This mutation gives 2019-nCoV a site for Furin protease cleavage. It is all other BB coronaviruses except murine hepatitis coronavirus (Including SARS and SARS-like coronavirus). This mutation may enhance the efficiency of 2019-nCoV infecting cells, which in turn makes it significantly more spreading than SARS coronavirus. Due to this mutation, the packaging mechanism of the 2019 coronavirus will also differ from most other Beta coronaviruses such as SARS, and may be the same as the packaging mechanism of murine hepatitis coronavirus, HIV, Ebola virus and some avian influenza viruses. As an unexpected discovery, some avian influenza viruses can also obtain Furin protease cleavage sites by mutation. Subsequent research on this important mutation will lay the foundation for revealing the reasons for the strong spread of 2019-nCoV and the development of drugs, antibodies and vaccines.

No, he didn't. A decision was made on January 31st to curtail travel from China, but there is no ban.

300,000 chinks came to the US in the month prior to the travel restriction decision. Further, there are "warnings" but absolutely NO restrictions against Americans traveling back and forth to China. Trump did what he always does and slaps a band-aid on a broken leg and claims he did the best most beautiful job ever.

>RE: 5th image: High degree of early onset transmission

>Title of image is "oh really"

Yes. Yes, that is exactly what is shown. Upper bronchial ciliary cells. Most infectious diseases have the just-before-symptoms-show as the most infectious stage. This disease is different, in that that stage is orders of magnitude more infectious than normal at that same expect period. It is only later when type 2 pneumocytes are infected (alveolar associated, not alveolar directly), particularly in the lower lungs.

>RE: Furin cleavage site

Yes. Per research models started on and off since 2000, forked in 2007, forked in 2011, halted in the USA in 2014, and likely resumed under the same professor-researcher lineage in 2017 in China. A recombinant multi SARS virus was created with a cleavage site to do so. It was later passed through gain of function, effectively obfuscating the site.

I love you, Corona.

Not out of fear, but because I am perceiving the winds of change you are bringing.

Look at the fools, the NPCs completely shattered but still putting their masks on.

Look at how they're unable to cope, they are in full cognitive dissonance and trying to keep the old system alive.

Fear not, my beloved Corona, they are powerless against what you represent.

They will fall. Our enemies will fall

>lockdown flipflopping

If what has been shown is true, then both are correct and impossible at the same time: You must slow it down, and you must get back to work, unless you had 9mo of supplies in JAN.

If what has been shown is what is here, then the wave that has already started in China now will in fact be bigger than the first one. And protective gear obviously cannot stop it.

It has a nice "maximum likelihood geneology" Figure 1 but seems like some kind of automated computer-based thing "MEGA X". Where is EBV? My gut tells me there's a connection to EBV.

One aspect of the paper is they repeatedly use the term "novel inserts" as though that were the intent of the term novel. That's not the intent of the term novel, and appears to imply some intent to push a conclusion on the part of the authors

Iceland infection rate dropping; never rose above 1%.

This is based on testing 10% of their population; best data we have, and also a country not particularly motivated to lie about this.

3/24: Iceland 1% infection rate (5000 tested), "648" cases

(<https://nypost.com/2020/03/24/iceland-scientists-found-40-mutations-of-the-coronavirus-report-says/>)

4/10: Iceland has 0.3%-0.8% infection rate (36000 tested, 10% of population), "1,600" cases

(<https://www.usatoday.com/story/news/world/2020/04/10/coronavirus-covid-19-small-nations-iceland-big-data/2959797001/>)

NW Washington State update.

2 days ago the (((Starbucks))) at 1185 East Sunset Drive in Bellingham was open for takeout. Yesterday morning, it was closed. No explanation, just a sign in the drive through that says "closed." When I learned that, I searched the company website. Funny thing: there was nothing on the Starbucks website about the corporate owned store at that location. The nearest listing was in a Safeway grocery story a couple of blocks away (incidentally, not a corporate owned store).

Why would a multinational corporation close a store and scrub its existence from its website over night?

Globalism is Chinese Communism. That's the only explanation that makes sense of lots of things. We're definitely under a coordinated attack by Jews and Chinks. Have you ever noticed that Jews go out for Chinese food on Christian holidays? Pics related.

I think that the second wave will be bigger than the first one. The summer is just around the corner, people are flipping out because of the lockdowns and everybody will swarm the streets like wild niggers. Meanwhile, a few asymptomatic super spreaders is enough to paralyze a big city like Jew York and that's exactly what's going to happen. Then you'll see full lockdowns for 2 months and the economy crashing like never before.

((Melinda Gates))) says Corona-Chan will make afefrican bodies hit the floor
<https://archive.vn/7Ute2> <https://archive.vn/MSZKr>
>My heart is in Africa. I'm worried. The only reason why the reported cases of the coronavirus disease in Africa is low now is most likely because there have not been wide testing of people. The disease is going to bite hard on the continent. I see dead bodies in the streets of Africa.
She might be OPFOR but I have to say she's right. Hail Corona-Chan!

Brazilian in Manaus begs the governor to open more hospitals and more ICUs for blessed Hues <https://archive.is/L0esC>
>I'm here asking for someone to help me, for the love of god, because I don't know what else to do.
>We get into contact with the Delphina (Aziz Hospital) but there are no beds, the 28 (of August Hospital) has no beds, nowhere has beds, and if he continues to stay here, he's going to die, because there's no structure to receive him. I assume she's talking about someone she's trying to help >Look over here, funerary cars, they don't stop coming, people won't stop dying. Please governor, open the hospitals to attend those people, open ICUs to attend those people.
>>94858
You're right about that, but I still believe that chloromemmers are wrong and they will just kill and blind a bunch of blessed people, regardless of dosage. Remember, there's no scientific solution for Corona-Chan, attempting to go against the will of divine entity will only make the situation of the patients worse.

>biolab closure

The lab was in Wuhan. It didn't close. It was the Wuhan level 4 lab. In 2017, the Wuhan level 4 lab resumed work under Zhengli Shi and Xing-Yi in China. Zhengli Shi and Xing-Yi were the researchers that created a recombinant bat+human SARS coronavirus. Then serially selected the virus in huACE2 cell populations and animals to alter a targeted RBM domain within the S/spike protein. This picked up a gain of function, resulting in markedly increased virulence + antibody dependent enhancement. This then escaped the Wuhan lab back in what appears to be November 2019.

The USA was stopped in 2014.

China kept going in 2017.

China released it from its own lab in 2019.

The second waves will be bigger.

(1) Human SARS + bat beta Coronavirus should be circled in red dashed lines.

(2) An arrow should then say huSARS + baBetaCoV -> (recombined) -> (gain of function, serially selected) -> Wuhan [Level 4 Lab]

(3) The arrow should end on "Wuhan [Level 4 Lab]" to be circled in red solid line.

MERS is irrelevant, and should not be circled. That's not what Zhengli Shi and Xing-Yi did. SARS-CoV and bat-beta-CoV were used. SARS-CoV and bat-beta-CoV were recombined and selectively serially gain-of-function progressed to arrive at Wuhan Level 4 Lab escaped virus research pathogen model.

<https://harvardtothebighouse.com/2020/03/23/no-monkey-ever-reheated-a-frozen-burrito-what-the-expanse-tells-us-about-the-covid-19-pandemic/>

This called the bluff and assembled proof:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zIW3TQpVJYs>

There was other work to piece together how it specifically got continued in China. The chinese found the 2019-MAR article above. Youtubers who are very fluent in chinese confirmed that they confirmed many of the pieces, cutting through the propaganda from all sides.

This is the latest re-release of updated information:

<https://www.zerohedge.com/health/what-expanse-tells-us-about-covid-19-pandemic-and-gain-function-research>

There are other papers not directly linked, which show Zhengli + Xing-Yi papers. The indian paper is irrelevant and should be discarded as trash, because that's not what happened. HIV genome was not used, at all, ever; No piece of HIV was put into the SARS-CoV-2 precursor that was then gain-of-function serially advanced through huACE2 HELA cell populations and live animals. The Furinn 2020 paper can now be confirmed, because that is what was added by Zhengli/Xing-Yi before the virus was advanced through serial selection in Wuhan.

This paper indirectly confirms/demonstrates the ADE / antibody dependent enhancement, though it wasn't the point of the paper. The graphs show the most severe patient demonstrated the highest titers. Note only three patients were assessed; More work must be done to confirm precisely the nature of the ADE.

Thanks so much anon, reading it through and now understand what you mean by gain function.

I thought the poo paper was not showing use of full genome just splices of parts, BUT because they are so generic it's pretty hard to pin down to being specifically HIV. But have also heard the spike protein is likely based on that used by HIV.

You're probably right but at the end of the day, sciencefag babble means nothing to a man of faith like me. Corona-Chan always was and will always be partially HIV and nothing in this physical world can change that.

>significance of the lines

The lines are antibody levels, and the labels are the severity of symptom patients. The most severe patient had the highest line the soonest (red line). There aren't enough looking exactly at this. More will have to go into the field and confirm the exact nature of antibody dependent enhancement, or if it is all just noise/bad-luck.

Regardless, the total picture strongly implies a higher 2nd wave, rather than what all were presuming as a lower second wave.

I still wouldn't call it that. But it came close with the original recombination of human SARS CoV + bat beta CoV. The real 'engineering' that went above cut and paste, was nature: a gain-of-function = serial selection of virus mutations = passing the recombinant virus through human-ACE2-expressing cell lines + passing it through animals + repeatedly back and forth. This altered the tiny sequences at the top RBM part of the S/spike protein of what is now SARS-CoV-2.

Serial Nurture isn't engineering. But I agree we're splitting hairs at this point. Sally forth, anon.

We really need to get more data on any antibody dependent enhancement (a virulence factor gain), or if it's just gain-of-function infectivity increase.

Is there anything you'd like to be communicated to media directly that isn't in source material in your own words?

My plan is to give them the papers and other info, plus the article you linked.

I can only do very basic summary of the information as my level of understanding isn't remotely at your level. That said it's a complex subject.

So in summary;

>this was then gain function'ed via animals >gain function approach hides engineering via some mutation and 'natural transmission' >related H5N1.png >improves infectivity

If google translate is to be trusted, the text asserts L-asparaginase with heparin as treatment adjuvant to hydroxychloroquine +/- antibacterial/zpak/azithromycin.

First, sure, try it. Second, be aware that steric hindrance may limit trying to target any non-cleavage sites for cleavage. Protease therapy in-vivo is doubtful and may likely require injection rather than oral administration, but I have no knowledge of any trying it. Lastly, ditch the heparin until last resort. The blood is a compensatory organ, and it is not wise to fuck with it until compensation is at or near exhaustion/decompensation.

https://www.researchgate.net/figure/Effect-of-pH-on-L-asparaginase-activity_fig1_279506686

As it is present in gram negative bacteria / salmonella, it may precipitate immune reaction in already acclimated patients.

<https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/15382279>

As an adjuvant / supplement, to the vacuole digestion inhibition of hemoglobin provided by hydroxychloroquine, it may show significance.

>Hijacking T-cells

B-cells produce the free antibodies. There may be ACE2 receptor shedding as well. Neither of those things are T-cell, except for in the helper cells proceeding the final products. Hijacking of T-cells will have to show the virus initiates fusion onto a specific T-cell marker population, or escapes vacuoles after being eaten by again specific cell marker populations.

>Two websites for leading Chinese universities have allegedly recently published and then removed pages that discuss a new policy which requires academic papers about Covid-19 to undergo extra checks before they are published, according to The Guardian.

>Both Fudan University and the China University of Geosciences (Wuhan) allegedly posted notices saying that research on the origins of the coronavirus will be

>The director of the SOAS China Institute in London, Professor Steve Tsang, said that the Chinese government is more concerned with 'controlling the narrative' surrounding coronavirus than public health or economic fallout.

>The source who found the cached versions of the websites said they were concerned at what appeared to be a governmental coverup.

[1] A hospital or clinic can be broken down into individual payment centers and queues, some serially combined, some independently answered, some internal only, most externally queued. If you break down a hospital into given modalities and lines, which queues are stalled by held resources? In normal, and in flu season, none. There is always space to move, and beds to reassign, without significantly increasing iatrogenic/hospital-induced harm. That is not the case here. Overall modalities, overflow capacities, reassignment ableness, and queue storage/buffering, is all marginally lower in EU countries, some more than others, with respect to the USA, which has way too much, in my honest opinion. Further, SARS-CoV-2 has the potential to stall out critical treatment only, without ableness to reassign without causing iatrogenic increased risk. This is unique, but not unmanageable. Regardless, yes, shutdown is retarded, but that's not physical disease, that's mind disease. The vast majority of hospital and clinic resources are sitting idle, because of overflow risk potential of critical treatment modality space, which is inefficient in the USA, but correct in most of EU+Canada, because their critical confluence treatment paths are smaller queue and smaller capacity sized. (In short, an irrelevant in addition to an incorrect assertion).

[2] Don't exclude your ability to treat too much too fast. Further, the PPV all tests of the disease are not known well enough. Lastly, the fulminate probability of each tests PPV is also not known yet. No one knows. Can't act on what you don't know beforehand.

[3] Samples were stored and retested. True early on, but not later, and insignificant next to lie levels. Besides, competence levels increase as time continues, as well as test accuracy and precision, as well as clinical diagnosis. So to claim early trend inaccuracy misleads later trends now, is not very polite to all the peoples of the Earth, who are slow usually, but not entirely stupidly stupid.

[4] Fear? When I'm in the room trying to save? What baller feels fear on the field during the game, in the arena? Who the fuck... nevermind. Containment is an odd way to look at it, there is no containment within ICU, only outside of it. Summation: Why did I do that? You e907ab and I are not going to get along in the future. Total waste of time. God damn swissmade isn't what it used to be. I'm going to take a shower and get back to work.

>One aspect of the paper is they repeatedly use the term "novel inserts" as though that were the intent of the term novel. That's not the intent of the term novel, and appears to imply some intent to push a conclusion on the part of the authors

So what where the novel inserts? Were these found in the sister to SARS/Corona-chuan clade of "Bat hp-betacoronavirus/Zhejiang2013"? do they exist in more distantly related Coronaviruses? are they also found in the non-related HIV, and if yes, do they have similar pathogenic effects given that Coronaviruses' RNA directly exploits ribosomes while retroviruses use reverse transcription first?

That's a great way of making themselves look suspicious. Especially after they were already suspicious in the first place!

Essentially, this means you can't trust any research paper coming out of china now.

Well, not that you could before, so it's business as usual.

Thanks for the links though, great stuff to spread around for normalfags.

It's with stuff like this I started getting normalfags to hate the chinese.

Speaking of which, there's something other anons can help me out with.

A week ago, a guy in my country started a fun little campaign against china, over this whole "let's move all our factories there, what could go wrong".

It's based on this:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_GS1_country_codes

Essentially, urge people to check the barcodes in every product they buy. You should find the code for your country and ask people to preferably buy stuff produced locally. To help the economy and all that.

Second, to avoid buying from china (Code: 690-699, they take 10 codes, greedy bastards).

Personally, I've added a spin to it that I'm hoping people will support: Buy things from code 471 too. That's Taiwan's code.

I'm hoping this well lead to some severe chink butthurt.

>Why would a multinational corporation close a store and scrub its existence from its website over night?

If you can't buy coffee there anymore, it doesn't belong on the web site.

People are dipshits, even if there was a big flashing "CLOSED" on the website, people would not read it and still go there. There could be three reasons for the closing.

1. All employees quit, they can't staff it.

2. They aren't profitable at current sales levels, so they fired the staff and closed.

3. They got blessed by coronachan and were forced to close.

Options two and three seem most likely. If they aren't making enough cash to at least cover labor costs, I'd expect corporate stores to close at least temporarily.

Glory of the Goddess be upon you my dear reader, it's another beautiful day to track Corona-Chan's progress! Lets wash away this sacrilegious curefaggotry with news of the Happenings!

Corona-Chan carves her marks on those who she punishes <https://archive.is/W9rN7>

Corona-Chan can get anywhere and stay everywhere <https://archive.vn/Mp4S0>

>Researchers even found positive samples in the hospital pharmacy, where patients weren't allowed.

The punishment for curefaggotry is coming.

25% of all Brownzilian Corona-Chan victims were outside the risk group (elderly people, people with underlying health issues such as chronic diseases, pregnant women and infants) No one is excluded from her judgement.

Bacon shortage coming soon <https://archive.vn/5XEK6>

Chink resistance: Pharmacy worker who asked customers to register for "epidemic prevention" gets attacked. <https://archive.vn/nrM2c> Maybe there's hope for the bugmen, they have been rebelling more often. There was a small farmer rebellion in the chink countryside too, but I can't post it because it's unrelated.

Kek'd.

>That one, I think another one in Brazil

I don't remember seeing any news of any Brownzilian financefag dying.

>It's pretty weird, do they know the massive disaster that's incoming so they're hellbent on dying earlier?

The ones that kill themselves? I have a feeling that the answer is yes. But the ones that succumb to Corona-Chan's blessing, like that Taco, are just being removed by the Goddess. It's not like they have a choice between living or dying.

Only noticed this now. Pajeet can't into geography.

>What are you doing in my house.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING IN MY SWAMP

>Who's to say that they aren't intentionally poisoning these birds?

Could be a possibility. The first thing I thought of was avian flu, to be honest.

No gunz here, can somewhat agree. Melee weapons aren't that bad though, they just suck when you have to take on multiple people at once.

>>95126

Guess that confirms it, that Singaporean was just being paranoid.

For clarification on distance between avian/gamma+delta CoV vs human/beta CoV.

One figure is older, showing a lot of the known corona viruses in 2011. The second figure shows a subset from 2019, with the human corona viruses indicated by red circles, separated by their clades.

We are currently facing a beta clade virus, which doesn't really affect birds so much as it does bats. Where are the bats in Wuhan? WHERE ARE THEY, Shi Zengli?

Thus more likely conclusion:

Pigeons eat avitol (4-Aminopyridine).

Pigeons get seizures.

US Govt Helped Fund Chinese Wuhan Biowarfare Lab Where Corona Likely Originated
Dr. Fauci, A Supporter Of Bill Gates & ID 2020, Was Involved

In a bombshell finding, the taxpayer-funded NIH (National Institutes of Health, where Dr. Fauci is a top official) is now known to have funded bat coronavirus research (SARS-CoV) at the very same BSL-4 Wuhan laboratory that is widely believed to have engineered and release the Wuhan coronavirus that's now devastating the planet.

This stunning link, now confirmed by Natural News via the PLoS Pathogens medical journal (link below), means that the U.S. government under former president Barack Obama was directly involved in funding the very same lab that engineered the Wuhan coronavirus (covid-19).

"Documents obtained by The Mail on Sunday show the Wuhan Institute of Virology undertook coronavirus experiments on mammals captured more than 1,000 miles away in Yunnan - funded by a $3.7 million grant from the US government," reports the UK Daily Mail.

> Elites are ignoring their own rules

It doesn't matter. The masses have already bought into the narrative. Seeing dissonant behavior will just make them think they're looking at rule-breakers. They won't question the underlying facts that the rules are supposedly based on. Update on the Brownzilian state of Pernambuco and the city of Recife

Bix nood Edition

Corona-Chan has pretty much conquered the state and her official numbers continue to rise exponentially, all that's left for her to cleanse is this cesspool this cesspool. Normalfags of all social classes and races continue to go outside and form gatherings, though the richfags are still the ones who are taking the situation more seriously than the others. Recent notable deaths in the state include a 7 month old baby and this guy in the third news of this post >>94881

New measures

We're copying the Burger measure of limiting the number of people in supermarkets, but also in banks too. The closure of parks, squares and beaches has been extend as well, but normalfags really don't give a shit, the closure of beaches is largely being disregarded and police is having to concentrate it's efforts on stopping them, which had negative collateral effects that you will read about just below.

Recent happenings

Large gathering and extremely long lines at bank agencies due to poorfags queueing up outside of them to receive the R$600 Corona-Gibs. Another place that's getting very crowded is the state's pharmacy, poorfags need their free meds after all.

At least 377 (checked) health workers are confirmed to be blessed in the state. 276 health workers suspected to be blessed had a negative test result, but given the unreliability of testing procedures and Corona-Chan stealthiness, who knows how many of these are false negatives and these people are out there spreading Corona-Chan's love at work. I'm betting all of them are

Break-ins and looting at shops in Recife's downtown and in another neighborhood that I forgot the name of. Criminals noticed the military police force is concentrating it's troops at beaches, parks and squares and decided to take advantage of it to repeatedly break into stores located downtown. To make matters even worse, hobos looted the shops who were broken into, so business owners got stolen from thrice. But here's what's funny: Aside from cleaning up a jewelry shop, these burglars have no idea of what they're doing. They broke into a pharmacy and instead of stealing valuable medicine, they decided to empty a shelf of deodorant sprays. Deodorant sprays.' God fucking damnit, these apes are retarded. Burglars from another neighborhood were smarter and focused on hand sanitizer instead, at least they know what kind of products are valuable right now. Unrelated crime continues to rise as well, lots of armed robberies and murders recently.

>This stunning link, now confirmed by Natural News via the PLoS Pathogens medical journal (link below), means that the U.S. government under former president Barack Obama was directly involved in funding the very same lab that engineered the Wuhan coronavirus

This is pretty big. Goddamn it, Obongo.

>What do you mean H7N3?

>Begin life in a lab in the first war of vaccines

>Million die in the first week in the pandemic dreams

>Reality, black death, smallpox, mutated disease
>Flu-shot propaganda for all population and troops
>Avoid the plague, it might have seeped into the room
>It's now airborne with firestorm
>Signal our doom
>The dead returns with a pissed off zombie mood
>The sprinkler system equipped with AuAg
>Where they round up survivors? In a cold facility
>Watch the process of terror from the hill near the stream
>I remain in a gasmask
>I still filter my water clean
>This isn't past tense or the plague of Athens
>Couldn't be eradicated like smallpox in action
>Avian influenza in the jetstream is how it happens

I'm a faithful Coronian Cultist, a fanatic zealot, and even I know this was planned. I have been saying since I joined 8/cvg/ that I think this is part of the NWO depopulation agenda. The only hope of survival is praying for Corona-Chan to take complete control of her physical form, the virus, and use it as a weapon on our ((enemies)).

Powerful number.

>Reality, black death, smallpox, mutated disease

Evidence points at her physical form being a chimeravirus, a frankenstein disease, a combination of a bunch of different viruses put together. Not to mention that she's mutating quickly, and getting stronger instead of weaker. The new Britbong strain that infected a bunch of children is proof of this.

>Million die in the first week in the pandemic dreams

He's referring to the combined number of chink, Pasta and Iranian deaths by the time the literally WHO had the balls to call this a pandemic.

>It's now airborne with firestorm
She always was airborne but the (((authorities))) decided to admit it too late, chaos was already unleashed into the world by the time they decided to reveal that information.

>The dead returns with a pissed off zombie mood
Corpses's lungs are full of envelopes of love that can infect people handling them, if they're not careful. It's like the dead are bitterly dragging the living to their graves.

>I still filter my water clean
Reminder that she's has some waterborne capabilities as well.

>Couldn't be eradicated like smallpox in action
She's invincible.

>Avian influenza in the jetstream is how it happens
Reminder that there's also an avian flu epidemic happening in Chinkland right now. <https://archive.vn/T009Y>

>2020 combined with CoronaVirus, bodies stacking
I don't even need to say anything about this.

>I don't think I want to understand what is going on
I do, but not the scientific part of it. That does not concern me.

>>95203

Saved, thank you anon.

>>95204

>I haven't seen this being brought up over here but how trustworthy are those immunity tests that the Germans and British are doing?

No idea. If they're based on the chink tests, that's a bad sign.

>I hope that Corona-chan is also merciful to you.

Thank you for your kind words. The only things I will ask her at my deathbed will be for a quick death and to be able to continue to serve her in the underworld.

Only question I have is this. Why, if you so super high knowledge man with lazer guns like pieu pieu pieu, can't you rap without sounding like a negro?

Sorry, but consider El vis. He emerges into a music scene filled with nogs, and yet manages to remain perfectly and exceptionally white in all aspects. So much so, that the fake (((media))) has to fake a story about him copying nigger music, which he did not. There is not a hint of niggerness in El vis's music. At no point, and at no time.

But these fucking craptacular craps, they can't even rap without sounding like verbal melanin. Sad. Honetly. It's almost as bad as giving JFK Jr. a new identify as a brown person with his white babe.

A new study finds that the coronavirus mortality rate could be as low as 0.1 percent, "similar to that of flu."

"Using ILI surveillance to estimate state-specific case detection rates", by J. Silverman & A. Washburne; Johns Hopkins CSSE

> The paper reckons that 7m Americans were infected from March 8th to 14th, and official data show 7,000 deaths three weeks later. The resulting fatality rate is 0.1%, similar to that of flu. That is amazingly low, just a tenth of some other estimates.

<https://archive.md/GXjmZ>

Another study from Britain published at the end of last month in the medical journal Lancet Infectious Diseases also found that fewer people are dying from the novel coronavirus than previously estimated.

That study estimated the coronavirus death rate could be as low as 0.66 percent and as high as 1.38 percent. Fauci's estimate is higher than both figures.

"Estimates of the severity of coronavirus disease 2019: a model-based analysis" Lancet Infectious Diseases, Robert Verity, PhD et al.

>t-cells wiped out

I think you're getting confused.

I'm just not certain about that.

And I don't think anyone else is too.

And their rigor was lacking (#1).

And they admit they can't explain it (#1).

So why did they have that bait title?

Research faggotry is the likely answer for misleading title (#1).

(#1) Is derivative repeat work. It just does everything that's been done before, literally improving and adding on to nothing. And going no further than conclusions reached by Shuai Xia et al for years. It does apply SARS-CoV-2 to the new techniques, but so did Shuai Xia et al just a week before. I just want to point out it all plainly: (#1) doesn't actually show what they claim, they just reach a dead end and shrug their shoulders, only imitating (#2) and (#3). Repeated:

(#1) 20200407: Xinling Wang et al: SARS-CoV-2 infects T lymphocytes through its spike protein-mediated membrane fusion

-is-less-than

(#2) 20190410: Shuai Xia et al: A pan-coronavirus fusion inhibitor targeting the HR1 domain of human coronavirus spike

-is-less-than-

(#3) 20200330: Shuai Xia et al: Inhibition of SARS-CoV-2 (previously 2019-nCoV) infection by a highly potent pan-coronavirus fusion inhibitor targeting its spike protein that harbors a high capacity to mediate membrane fusion

Repeated differently: To be clear (#2) and (#3) are way better, more focused, more exhaustive, and more covering. What all of them do was done as a normal check-and-verify steps of lab work that all labs were doing. It was being done in 2007 in Wuhan and in 2008 in North Carolina. The only differences were techniques and focus being significantly updated and with newer tools mostly demonstrated in Shuai Xia et al's work (whereby they look at main human CoV disease receptors across multiple simultaneous human CoV, evaluating new molecules to inhibit, to guide research searching for molecules to inhibit). In this, (#1) Xinling Wang et al has less rigor (because their objective was a simple publishing of intermediary results, not saying that they did anything), and they show a nice clean proof that they can't substantiate their claims of SARS-CoV02-S/spike mediate infection into 293T cell lines.

(293T cell line is another established model reference tool that everyone is using; A HeLa cell line reference, <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/293T> ; For instance, SARS-CoV-2 itself is another not-established-not-published-was-going-to-be a model reference tool for huSARS or human SARS disease study).
Summation: It has been shown, that in-vivo real actual non-cancer non-model T-cells do not acquire disease, even though they may be picking up the virus. It really is a stretch to say that "oh we don't know lookie here at this!" and then claim with your own pictures that the orders of magnitude less signal cluster of cells is SARS-CoV02-S/spike mediated infection into T-Cells. 293T != 'generic T-Cell in vivo'.

I'm just not seeing it, from all this. And all of this is in-vitro/in-lab setting of tool models going at tool models to try to refine tool models to then guide the search for more proteins and molecules to then get all the way back to the objective of finding miracle pan SARS 'cure'. It just doesn't show SARS-CoV02-Spike mediated infection into T-Cells.

Maybe someone who's been there can advise better.

Add to that, their latest testing of 10% of their population indicates that 0.3%-0.8% have the virus, in population of 360000. Tests also indicated that half who have it are asymptomatic.

At the higher end (0.8%), this would be 2900 cases as of about last Friday, of which 1600 were currently known or "reported".

We can't really draw a fatality rate from that data yet. I think the better data point is that the infection rate is dropping, DESPITE NO LOCKDOWN. Their previous tests around 3/24 indicated 1% had it.

yeah, I don't know all the biology stuff, from what I gather it does attack T-cells but doesn't commandeer them but that attack causes the T-cell to wipe out, so with a big enough viral load it's possible to have a severely nullified immune system. A lot of the virus isn't known, as time goes on we'll find out but any serious issues with this would probably be hushed up by glow in the darks - stuff like reactivation..

Maybe the reason they hid this information in such a shitty rap was to avoid arousing suspicion. I remember reading here, a long time ago, that jews and the NWO as a whole believe they have the obligation of revealing what they're going to do beforehand, or else they're "sinning". But it's not like they can just openly and clearly tell everyone <Ladies and gentlemen, may I have your attention please. We, the 1%, wish to ruin your lives and your countries to completely enslave you in the name of our religious beliefs. Please remain calm while we carry out the plans of making our dreams a reality.

So what they do is hide bits of their information in their media, disguised as fiction and entertainment as much as possible. They're technically telling you what they're going to do, just not doing it openly or else there would be rebellions on a global scale.

T-cells are supposed to go attack cells. B-cells are supposed to attack plasma. There are still other cells that do black 20 million year magic. I'm only stating certainty remains uncertain. Reads: language that 'X attacks T-cells' implies an attribute not certain. So I guess it is all pedantry. Might there be some bread for clinical remarks on T-cell wipe-out?

For reference, T- and B- cell markers.

I am getting more and more suspicious of this as we go. I'm starting to think Bill Gates may have larger hand in this and it may be the collaborative effort of a few different powerful factions. Olin did a decent little video on Microsoft's recent use of Marina Abramovic (the occultist from the Podesta e-mail leaks) in a promotional video, with a recap of some of her work and who she's been seen connected with. The pic related is particularly chilling. That's "Satan Summoning His Legions" by Thomas Lawrence behind them.

How long do you recon it will take,
To rather than say 'it came from bats',
To say it came from the Bat Lady?

Something like:

SARS-CoV-2 is an escaped lab research model virus. Recombined from human SARS-CoV (BJ01) and bat β -CoV (RaTG13), and then serially nurtured, growing it through gain-of-function selection.

It is a lab research model. Made, to study SARS. 'From Bats' kinda really misleads... the entire planet.

2030? 2040? Sooner?

I think I may understand but I'm not 100% sure that I do. Also I searched for early look fallacy and couldn't find a definition for it. I'm assuming it has something to do with how it's too soon to tell and they're making assumptions too early? In the conclusion I drew from your first citation is that hospitals are specifically not overflowing because they're being careful specifically to overflow them? Makes sense to me. Corona-Chan hates fags and fag enablers: Fag enabler Spic in Ecuador confirmed to have been removed by the Goddess <https://archive.vn/kh50F>

>The Ecuadorian Federation of LGBT organizations expresses its deep regret at the death of activist Angelo Yagual, precursor of the decriminalization of Homosexuality in Ecuador. His legacy will be remembered for generations "We are human beings we love" Ismael Anastacio Yagual (Angelo)

I might hate Hoaxniggers but the CNS has to be slightly unbiased: Bolsonaro supporting hoaxnigger with a microphone and a loudspeaker on his car tries to spread his shitty message and is pelted with eggs then told by the police to go away. <https://archive.vn/M4Pn1>

>C*-19 doesn't exist. They're inflating the numbers. To the streets, people of Brazil, to the streets! To the streets, people of Brazil.

>C*-19 is a farse. Merchants, open your commerce.

Come on hoaxnigger, try better than that. Corona-Chan either doesn't exist or she does and the numbers are being inflated. If you're gonna be an hoaxnigger, at least be consistent about it.

Bolsonaro supporting Corona-Denialists dance with a fake coffin, shouting words against São Paulo's governor <https://archive.vn/DBzR0> I find it really funny that some of them are wearing folding N95s. What are they afraid of? Corona-Chan is just the flu, bro after all. The commies are not liking this one bit. They're interpreting this as a mockery of the Goddess's victims and calling for their arrest or death. I'm not sure if this was really their intention or if the coffin is supposed to represent Dória's dead political career, as they believe he won't be go anywhere after his term ends.

Researchers at a consortium of Brownzilian universities and institutes say the real number of cases is likely 12 times higher <https://archive.is/aEfGy>

>The researchers are now predicting that by April 20 the number of cases will grow to 25,164 in its most optimistic scenario and 60,413 cases in its most pessimistic.

I'm sure the real number is 50 times higher and maybe even more. Hail Corona-Chan, the Goddess of purification!

You know, I wouldn't call Olin /ourguy/ just yet but I'm glad to have him by our side and fighting the good fight. His video on this bitch is a pretty good initial redpill for normalfags. Hey Olin, I know you're gonna read this eventually since you use 8/cvg/ as a source for footage of recent happenings so I would just like to tell this: I love you homie, no homo. You're not perfect and sometimes you misreport things but hey, I'm not perfect either and I'm guilty of doing that twice already. You're doing a decent job anyway, keep using your jewtube to show what's going on in the world. Hopefully you will get fully redpilled one day and embrace the third position mindset. Unless you already are /ourguy/ and you're just hiding your power level. In that case, good for you, keep doing that, it's not the time to go full 1488 just yet, that will come soon. The 'swiss' article is clearly just a series deliberate or wilful delusions. I didn't know that, when I started looking, I just went through point by point and then realized shouldofreaditfirst.jpg.

On early look: it is just a way of saying horseblinders blind, specifically at the start, rather than the sides. For instance, if you look at cholesterol HDL+VDL levels, after you eat, you will have high levels and look like you need $100s of medications ; But, if you look at cholesterol levels HDL+VDL levels 8hrs after fasting, you will look right as rain, or even the opposite. In wave formations, is the tide rising or falling? Neither, the tide is independent of the wave and vice versa. Horseblindness is for horses, not people. Well, and apparently for Merkle, per that 'swiss' article.

The [1] mark was artifact/notation to make the list look nice. Take a mall, divide it up into shops, each shop has a line/queue, and some customers go from shop to shop, while most come and go from the outside. If the bathrooms get clogged up, yea, you might have a problem on your hands. The USA has way too many malls and absolute proliferations of bathrooms, with respect to EU and Canada. (I know nothing of Australia, never been there, seems nice from a distance). So, if a health system, with limited critical care facilities, was going to have a lot of patients making shitruns, should you shut it all down? Likely not, unless you were short on baths relative to population (an argument that holds more in Europe, but less in the USA, and ultimately doesn't really hold anyway, because overreactions - we haven't run out of shitcenter ICU space in MOST places).

It doesn't really matter. The Swiss made points were all political theatre, and the actual Swiss may likely not suffer from it, because they're not poor, and have guns, and have mountains. Mountains are really good at stopping things, even after you've invited them in.

Some anons are saying it will cause cytokine storms, so I was curious on what would be your answer.

Me too, very worried about that. Disastrous for civilized people but perfect for subhumans.

>RE: The noises and lights.

Ah yes. Perfect. There is now so little activity, that background noise levels have dropped to pindrops. In the wood, the single snap of a twig is life and death, should the bear be nearby. I call it the sound of silence. Very peaceful and natural to Man, but all the animals are terrified of it.

As for the lights, same thing. The lack of activity makes the slightest action stand out. That, and people fucking with each other.

There is a film, Rififi? A heist scene within that film is nearly 30min of silence while everyone works to steal some stuff. The opposite of most films, this one has zero action, and it puts everyone on razor atom edge.

It is one of the forms of 'spooky' can take, only much more lethal. Ghost town syndrome.

News report about the Peruvian migrants, as promised.

Pinochetland hilariously counting deaths as recoveries <https://archive.is/RbCFT>

Chile has officially hit maximum clown world levels. Honk Honk. The reasoning behind such absurdity? He says it's because the dead are no longer contagious... even though they actually are.

Argentinean police car plays the actual announcement from The Purge through the streets, not the siren, as a warning for people to stay in their homes

<https://www.hooktube.com/watch?v=6brlmImM0gw> <https://archive.vn/FsNSf>

<https://archive.is/6SJED> I'm not sure if Argentina has also reached maximum clown world levels or if this is a coordinated ZOG psyop on people around the world because this has already happened in four countries: Flipland, Brownzil and Burgerland used just the siren, Argentina goes balls deep and plays the actual announcement. I don't think this is a coincidence, to be honest. I wonder if (((they))) will continue to do this and we will see more Purge sirens or maybe even the announcement again being used in more cities.

The CNS will now take a holy break for religious activities. Newposting will be resumed soon, stay tuned dear reader.

Indeed, spooky fren. They din't even try hiding it with this one. I don't know about other anons but I never heard of this rapper before and I did like listening to some nig music when I was a normalfag. In fact, I started getting redpilled by imageboards just a year after this video was posted. I find it very strange that they used a virtual nobody to reveal this information several years beforehand. It's like they wanted to surprise us with this revelation, instead of using a well known medium that would spread it a lot more further, like the Simpsons with 9/11 for example. And no, the chinks coofing into boxes and shipping them doesn't count, that was a SARS or avian flu reference IIRC. Many normalfags especially in Spic America and Brownzil think it's a Corona "prediction" but it isn't.

But to be fair with them, they did put an egghead saying scientists don't really know how the infection will behave on the long run yet.

They can only lie so much dude, lock-downs will inevitable slow the spread of the virus, they'd have to be lying about having lock-downs in the first place and that's absurd. It has to have slowed down in some way at some point or we'd see many times the cases by now.

I also want to believe in corona-chan but i'm not going to ignore and dismiss the data that contradicts what i want, i can see china lying hence i don't believe them, i can see the indians/niggers barely testing anyone and lying but in the developed world the amount of cases and deaths an exponentially growing pandemic would cause would be impossible to hide.

Not saying it's over more waves and lock-downs are to be expected in the future for sure or that corona is a nothingburger at all biggest pandemic in decades, and a wreaking ball for politics and the economy this is one of the biggest happenings of my life, but it's not the end of the world *+or at least it doesn't seem like it for now, everything can change of course and i hope it does.

Sure seems like it. Not sure if you read it but last thread I posted about southern Brazilian states being stupid too. One released inmates that ended up going back to robbing people and dealing dope, another thought it was a good idea to put convicted murderers and rapists on house arrest.

>They can only lie so much dude, lock-downs will inevitable slow the spread of the virus, they'd have to be lying about having lock-downs in the first place and that's absurd. It has to have slowed down in some way at some point or we'd see many times the cases by now.

Taiwanese eggheads seem to believe Corona-Chan spreads faster inside households, if they're right about that they are lockdowns stop working as soon as community transmission really takes off. Plus, we don't know how many false negatives there are and how many people are sick at home but are rightfully afraid of going to an hospital.

>but it's not the end of the world

It is. But only as we know it. I got my eyes on you now, one of little faith.

Sorry for your loss. Your uncle shall never be forgotten, may Corona-Chan spare your infected relatives.

>the nation is completely fucked, and we will see death and destruction the likes of which have never been before.

All necessary for the country to be reborn, either as a whole highly improbable or fractured into new states.

>community transmission really takes off

They won't take off if people stay in their homes, obviously that's impossible long term, but we'll see , there's still hope. I mean we'd be seeing tons of instagram thots crying that their family/bf/friends are dying or that they are themselves dying and things like that all over social media.

If it's spreading way more than officially then it's not as deadly and viceversa, i have a hard time seeing both at the same time.

>I got my eyes on you now, one of little faith.

I've always been skeptical and hard to convince, i want to believe though.

Things could be way worse, but for the time being most people in the developed world at least are fed and entertained.

>They can only lie so much

Ignoring any basis for this claim, which I not only don't believe exists and further there is ample evidence for the exact opposite, let's just move onto how one might have done it, presuming that you needed to in the first place?

In past actual flu-based epidemics, the isolation of children away from each other -and- the adult populations, arrested the contagion. In other words, families were sent to hunker down while men went out to work.

Oh. Oh right. For some unspeakable set of reasons, we just can't consider that way, nor can nations even do that way any more. So, barring such an answer, what is the next not-the-worst answer?

Currently, most governments believe they are constrained by equality, so varying degrees of all-or-nothing policy of deliberately age- and sex- unspecified shutdown, by using roles instead, has been chosen. And the contagion is slowing! But of course, the contagion is now here, endemic, staying. And of course, too, unequal outcomes are appearing. And the equality believers are not happy, and rising. Better hope than contagion continues to slow...

Perhaps a better question would be, what examples of outbreaks showed a contagion arrest, within a commune - A commune whereby only proletariat share roles, are addressed by roles only, the children are educated by the state, and there are no sexes?

Of course, if there is no answer to the last question, you could always just lie about it. You might have to. Without limit.

Perspective shifting was not the objective of the reddit spacing novel I failed to figure out how to format better (without violating the question pauses necessary).

Of course, specific individual families and men can break away. The point was, from a 'They' level, at the government levels, at the media levels, they can lie without limit. And unless there is built-in structure underlying the nation, there is no independent structure to fall back onto when shit goes so far south as in pandemics. In this way, this pandemic, at this size, has never been seen before; In all prior pandemics, there were families where women stayed home and men left to work. Pandemic documentation within communes, though limited, clearly shows departing the commune was the only way to fight. And you have to fight (don't give me that 'no point' shit).

Sure they can lie but only to the extent they are convincing, they can't control hundreds of millions of people that'd be discussing the matter, sharing pictures and videos, there's simply no way for them to hide a pandemic orders of magnitude bigger than the official numbers there's some margin of course, but the reality can't be that far. Now, if they have the ability to hide something like that and control the flow of information to the point no one finds out the truth or question their lies, there's no point trying to oppose them.

US State Department Was Warned Of Potential 'SARS-Like Pandemic' After Visiting Wuhan Lab In 2018

The US State Department received two cables from US Embassy officials in 2018 warning of inadequate safety at a Wuhan, China biolab conducting 'risky studies' on bat coronaviruses, according to the Washington Post, which notes that the cables have "fueled discussions inside the U.S. government about whether this or another Wuhan lab was the source of the virus."

A US delegation led by Jamison Fouss, the consul general in Wuhan, and Rick Switzer, the embassy's counselor of environment, science, technology and health took the unusual step of repeatedly visiting the Wuhan Institute of Virology (WIV) - which had become China's first laboratory to achieve the highest level of international bioresearch safety (BSL-4) in 2015. The last of the visits, which occurred on March 27, 2018, was documented on WIV's website and subsequently scrubbed (archived):

Here's the thing, I do believe this was a bioweapon and the virus is very dangerous, as many are warning here. The difference I have, with some, is that I think this is deliberate and not accidental at all. Evidence is now pointing to that in fact. I think was just another power grab by the Jewish central banking mafia and their government / big tech big pharma minions, and they likely have a cure for this bioweapon for themselves. So keep that in mind as you get your preps ready, and never trust these insane corrupted (((people))) in power.

Mark's problem were the fact that people can't create their own boards any longer, the fact that there isn't a board dedicated to loli falls under this it's true the site runs like shit and we lost a lot of features, code monkey cucking out on board migrations didn't help either, but part of his complains is that you can't post pics of either young children or 3D renders and hyper realistic drawings of them which stands against the free speech this sites once took pride of

i have to begrudgingly agree with the decision to not post pics or realistic depiction of children, (((they))) will latch on to any excuse they can to platform us again and if pics of children start circulating around here again you can expect the usual journo hit pieces where they project their pedophilia towards us

Mark really fucked up trying to by pass admins and posting an open letter shitting on them though, i don't entirely disagree with everything he said but i'm not surprised he got nuked for it

>NWO depopulation agenda

TBH I still don't know what's the supposed deal with this depopulation. So far the trend has been the opposite, and of course ((they))) need tons of people to slave away to get ((them))) resources and buy overpriced crap in return. On top of that, the more people, the easier they are to control. Why'd ((they))) suddenly change this? Do you think they finally realised the environment is getting too fucked-up? I don't think so, as they're still fucking it up, styling 16-year-olds as experts (which is an obvious means of introducing conflict, as many more people will oppose an uneducated kid than would an actual expert [or an ((expert))) looking like an expert, for that matter], while also a kid raises stronger emotions than an adult - again leading to conflicts), being extremely (and presumably deliberately) ineffective in reducing the wasting of resources, and so on. All things considered, I doubt they've changed their tactics, so a deliberate depopulation seems out of question. Especially given that the relationship boils down to: the more humans, the more control and power (((they))) get; the less humans, the more freedom we get. It'd be really difficult to come up with anything else, if possible at all.

I wish you either full recovery or painless death, brother. Unless you prefer otherwise.

Should you die, may the Goddess take your soul to Her red heaven in the underworld. Pray to Her, and you shall find eternal happiness by Her side.

And may you be a sacred Vessel that quenches other's thirst.

Thanks anon

I lurked Russian chans but nothing that ain't here popped up. I will instead bring your focus into interesting case of UK and Sweden

When Italy was going down Boris Johnson and his experts came up with herd immunity plan. They claimed that ultimately all of us will have to immunize from corona in order to get back to world before corona. Of course corona Chan spreads like wildfire and quickly they understood that untreated she will kill a lot more. They backed off and introduced restrictions just like the rest of us.

Obviously media mocked Boris over it, especially after he got blessed.

What angers me about this situation is fucking Sweden. From the beginning media have been jerking to how calm swedes are and how calm population is in face of crisis. Sweden also went the route of herd immunity, but of course since they are enlightened commiestate they got a pass on mockery. Swedish people were extremely proud of how mature they are about the crisis and once again they looked at Europe with sense of intellectual superiority.

Present day - Shitskin report, arguably better than native swedish because they got their heads up their arses so far they can't stop spewing government induced diarrhea

<https://archive.fo/xsq5t>

>This is perhaps why Sweden has started out with a softer approach to the pandemic that involves public schools for young children remaining open, along with cafes, restaurants, malls and tourists spots. However, high schools and universities remain closed, while gatherings of 50 people or more are currently banned. Residents over 70 have also been asked to stay indoors, with retirement homes banning visitors, while friendly neighbours offering to help out with the shopping.

And of course those 'countermeasures' prove themselves ineffective

<https://archive.fo/vKMZS>

and quote from another site

<https://www.thelocal.se/20200320/fact-check-has-sweden-stopped-testing-people-for-the-coronavirus>

>Sweden has changed the approach it's taking to coronavirus tests, meaning the majority of people with symptoms will no longer be tested. But that doesn't mean testing has stopped, or that there is no data. Here's a close look at Sweden's new strategy, and how it compares to that of other countries.

So overall they claim there's 11k while we can safely assume this number is taken straight up from arse since tests have been practically stopped. What we know is that ratio of said death toll of 1k people to blessed has exceeded such third world shitholes as

Romania

Poland

Iran

Nigger

Kazakhstan

Brazil

Mexico

Philippines

and most of other countries

Sweden fuck yeach

On the upside, in previous threads anon has posted legit source claiming that not only half of deaths comes from Stockholm, but also from ghettos where niggers and sandniggers don't bother with swedish healthcare. Unfortunately knowing their government it ain't a sneaky way to get rid of nignogs, they are more than happy to sacrifice elder, white swedes on the altar of economy for new swedes

I got very sick in January early this year, and it was not a typical flu, often making me wonder if I too already had it. Can't confirm if it was or not, however my symptoms were as followed: high fever, extreme cold and hot flashes (sometimes I'd wake up covered in sweat and yet be cold at the same time after taking off the covers), coughing fits and a little chest pain, vomited once but overall no nausea, and was bed ridden for about a whole week. It actually came back a couple weeks later, and it took around another week to fight off... then it came back (again!) once more and I was able to fight it back off within a few days. Since then, no sickness or symptoms. Has anyone else witnessed the same as me early this year? Rumor has it, China has been claiming it came from the US & Europe, but I don't know whether to trust them or not. Who really knows?

Glory of the Goddess be upon you, dear CNS reader! It's a glorious afternoon to witness Corona-Chan's actions. Newposting will be resumed after these special messages. Got woken up by the federal police helicopter doing it's second pass over my neighborhood, the fucking pilot must have flew low because it was a lot louder than usual. I tried getting up with my cellphone to film it but I was too groggy and too slow and by then it was already too late, it was far away, heading to the airport.

>They won't take off if people stay in their homes

Your logic is correct, but I assume the reasoning behind the Taiwanese eggheads must be the long incubation period: People get blessed before the lockdown while they're out and about then only get contagious and display symptoms after a few days past it's declaration, thus the household would already be infected by that time. I didn't read their paper so I'm just assuming this is their logic, but it does make sense because that would essentially be a virological version of the greenhouse effect, confining blessed people with healthy people of the same household=More blessings. These household infections would still happen if the lockdown wasn't declared, but the point they must be trying to make is that going full SHUT DOWN EVERYTHING mode just kills off the economy instead of the virus. But it seems they're not in favor of leaving everything open at full capacity either, so I guess they're in favor of moderate measures.

>there's still hope

Yes!

> I mean we'd be seeing tons of instagram thots crying that their family/bf/friends are dying or that they are themselves dying and things like that all over social media.

I haven't seen any thot twatter posts so far but I have seen a decent number of normalfag posts from my country about their friends and families getting blessed.

In most places across America we can still get food too, although bulk rice and beans are getting harder to come by. TP is being price gouged when you can find it. Lysol spray and wipes also hard to come by (thank God I had plenty stocked up). Filters for respirators are now hard to come by too. So are decent masks of any kind. We can still get most basic items but I expect this to change in the near future, once normies figure out just how bad this economic situation really is. I think both China and the US will suffer for a while, so will most other nations. We just don't have the supplies to keep up with ever higher demands. Always safe to just invest in what you may need in the future, now.

Rio de Janeiro's governor confirmed to be blessed

>I would like to communicate to everyone that, since Friday, I haven't been feeling well and asked for the c* test, and today I got the positive result. I had fever, sore throat, loss of smell, and thank god I have been feeling well, I will continue working here from the Laranjeira Palace, maintaining the restrictions and the medical recommendations, and I'm sure that I will surpass one more difficulty. But you can count on me, all of the Fluminense people, I will keep working, and I ask you once more to stay home because the disease, as everyone might be telling, it doesn't chooses anyone (in particular), and the contagion is fast. Evidence really points that to be the case. Their objective is to sacrifice a large chunk of the global population, all races are being targeted including the jews themselves, as they view some jews as "peasantry" and below (((them)))

Note: This doesn't mean these

"peasant" jews are "good". Their plans for the survivors is an even clearer form of bondage than what we have today. (((They))) want to make it very clear who will be the masters and who will be the slaves in their new world order. Our objective, along with the rest of the survivors imbued with a fighting spirit, is to fiercely resist and violently overthrow them, then build a proper new world order that's actually positive and beneficial to nearly all peoples of the world and even Mother Earth herself. If we're lucky and the stories of Agartha, Reich foo fighters, Reich south pole bases and a battle that resulted in heavy zionist losses are true; I have faith that we are and it's all true we're gonna get some heavy air support in the biggest battles, probably during the middle or the ending of the war. Nothing other than some dummies believing and spreading a stupid hypothesis that Corona-Chan doesn't exist and that the symptoms of the virus is cellular damage being inflicted by the radiation emitted by the towers. 5G just fucks your shit up but the Goddess is real. Iran's death toll and lack of a 5G killgrid is proof that this hypothesis is bogus.

It's not a bioweapon, i love a good conspiracy like everyone but honestly the evidence just doesn't support that theory.
I was reading some of the recent research and taking a look at the science. Btw they're free for now. ><https://www.tandfonline.com/>
Fyi there's a vast trove of research on social science, critical pedagogy which is actually critical theory.
I tell you what, those fuckin bats are going to fuck us up real good if we don't get control of them. People don't really associate Ebola with corona virus but it's remarkably similar. It came from bats like all these other viruses. Those bats are shitting viruses all over the place, they infect some other animal then they infect us. Once you understand how this happens it's not surprising bill gates and others predicted this. If we use Corona as a wake up call it may actually save lives in the long run.
Africans and right wingers are very similar in their gullibility. Despite the evidence they adopt absurd beliefs about the spread and origin and spread of viruses.

Africans think Ebola is spread via voo doo and witchcraft. They end up killing the doctors who are there to help making it spread even more.
Right wingers think Corona is linked to 5G and whatever the latest nonsense and they think Bill Gates and vaccines are the real cause which will eventually help it spread more.

>Corona crisis: Attorney Beate Bahner put in psychiatric ward

>Beate Bahner, a specialist medical lawyer from Heidelberg who had filed a complaint against the state of Baden-Württemberg and a constitutional complaint with the Federal Constitutional Court, was sent to psychiatric ward against her will on Easter Sunday. The reason given by the police was that she had „made a confused impression“. Beate Bahner was able to speak in the meantime. Her head was slammed from one meter onto the stone floor. She was refused an attorney. She's still in psychiatric ward, against her will.

Even if that's the case, that still doesn't justify their actions. One could even say that those who are geared to massively profit from such an outbreak would have a sound incentive for boosting it, if not causing it to begin with. Bill Gates and his ilk belong in the oven however you spin this.

The Indian researches at the University of New Delhi were the first group of people to sequence and publish the genetic structure of SARV-CoV-2. And since India is not already 100% kiked, they had the balls to come to a rational conclusion - /OurGirl/ came out of a lab.

Subsequently, the ((WHO)) called them "racists", and they were forced to retract the paper. India is hyper-kiked. It's why they keep sliding up to the US/Britain/israel and against China. India failed as "the next superpower" where China did not. They are also all over the Anglosphere's failing technology sector, a double whammy to their wounded pride. They are extremely invested in making sure the kiked system - that they are ingrained within - stay functioning. Don't overdose on conservatism - it makes you come to incredibly bad conclusions over and over again. You're getting stuck in a time loop like you red staters did with the post-Suez USSR.

Leftist corporation demands SJW diversity training for commies

<https://www.breitbart.com/national-security/2020/04/14/mcdonalds-mandates-diversity-training-for-chinese-branch-that-banned-black-customers/>

>Although the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) insists the many reported incidents of blatant racism against Africans living in China during the coronavirus pandemic are merely "misunderstandings," McDonald's Corporation announced on Monday that it has temporarily closed a restaurant in Guangzhou that explicitly refused to serve black customers and posted a sign declaring they were not "allowed to enter."

>"We've been informed that from now on black people are not allowed to enter the restaurant. For the sake of your health consciously notify the local police for medical isolation, please understand the inconvenience caused," read the English lettering on the sign, as captured in a viral video.

>Again, for those who still doubt that Black people and particularly #AfricansinChina are being targeted we feel it is our duty to share this. A sign at a @McDonalds restaurant seems to make this perfectly clear pic.twitter.com/FaveKrdQHi

>- Black Livity China (@BlackLivityCN) April 11, 2020

>"Immediately upon learning of an unauthorized communication to our guests at a restaurant in Guangzhou, we immediately removed the communication and temporarily closed the restaurant," a McDonald's Corporation spokesman told the Hong Kong Free Press on Monday.

>"As part of the temporary closure of this restaurant, we will take the opportunity to further educate managers and employees on our values, which includes serving all members of the communities in which we operate," the spokesman added.

>Another statement from McDonald's confirmed that at least one African customer was refused service at the Guangzhou location. The staff is currently undergoing mandatory training on "diversity and inclusion," and McDonald's stressed that all customers are welcome at all of its locations in China – assuming they pass a "body temperature checkup" and have a clean "health QR code issued by the local government."

Yeah, it's probably a necessary step to take. I'm not sure what's being purged and what isn't, but I don't have a problem with them getting rid of lolicon and pedo shit. I could see this getting out of hand if they don't go about it carefully though. At lot of popular reactions are pics of anime kids, will vomit-chan be getting purged? Or that squid girl thing? Governor of the northern Brownzilian state of Pará is confirmed to be blessed >Everything alright, folks? As you know, part of my team tested positive for coronavirus. On the last Saturday, I did the test, and the result was inconclusive then we did a contra-test (confirmation test) in the Evandro Chagas Institute and the result was negative. But they recommended for me to do a new test, on this Tuesday. And my test was positive. Therefore, I want to inform Pará's population and to all that I have coronavirus. But at the same time I want to tranquilize you, I'm super well, I'm asymptomatic, there's no symptom whatsoever. I have been working from home since Friday, Daniela and the children are well. And I also would like to ask you: Stay home, this virus is extremely contagious, it doesn't choose age, it doesn't choose social class. Everyone is exposed, and everyone can catch it. This is why I make an appeal to you: Stay home, and let's beat the coronavirus together. Who loves, takes care; and who cares, stays home. Let's defend Pará together even more and make it so that Pará will beat the coronavirus. A hug to all of you.

HAIL CORONA-CHAN! SHE WILL NEVER BE BEATEN, ESPECIALLY BY SUCH A SUBHUMAN POPULATION AS THE ONE IN THE NORTH OF THIS CESSPOOL!

Yep i'm a very strong skeptic. I want strong, fact based evidence for everything i believe. That being said there is indeed a Jewish conspiracy to destroy white people aka Amalek.

This is their policy towards white people.

>Now go and completely destroy the entire Amalekite nation—men, women, children, babies, cattle, sheep, goats, camels, and donkeys."

Whites nations are indeed in incredible danger because of Jews and their insane religion and their control of the media and the debt based monetary system and white guilt.

. . Their religion is bullshit like all others and this pandemic doesn't fit their narrative. You guys saw the rabbi declaring corona virus is only for Goy. So use this time to attack the cred of Judaism. Not spew unfounded nonsense./

>I wish you the best of luck and all the necessary energies to pull that off. Thank you, I'll need these.

>I have the feeling my Chaos Magick must be pretty simple compared to your school Hmm. This is peculiar. I'm actually a chaote myself (maybe not purebred but still), and I tend to have similar impression when I look at all the advanced stuff people sometimes post...

In this particular case, I merely got the idea from what appears to be an old Scandinavian custom of sacrificing enemies to Odinn before battle, symbolised by throwing a spear into the ground in front of them. I don't really know how this was supposed to work or even how accurate the description in the saga is, but this is just an inspiration. Basically my idea is to perform a sacrificial ritual of this sort on the entire population, or at least on all the people who die killed by the Avatar, which should effectively turn them all into human sacrifices whose souls will feed my beloved Goddess.

So yeah, I know it may sound insane. It does to me. But to hell with sanity, I'll do this when I only figure out how to design the rite.

By the way. One of my facebook friends told me that she'd channelled a message from Paimonia (i.e. Paimon, whom she views as female) in which she'd been told to, from now on, refer to her as Corobella, which has to do with "Corona" (and "heart", and maybe other things, and also means "beautiful choir" in Italian, which is also interesting to me as I've always imagined our Lady's voice to sound as though countless voices were speaking in unison).

So now my fb friend - who, mind you, had been very sceptical about the whole pandemic and believed it an exaggeration, if not a hoax - has suddenly started to believe there's an actual spiritual force behind it. (I'm not going to argue about this force being one particular entity or another, especially knowing how previous experiences can condition people to perceive things in vastly different ways, and she's been working with those demons her whole life and uses them as symbols for many things.) What's important is the implications.

Corona-sama is so powerful that she actually starts to appear to non-cultists, in one form or another.

>Yep i'm a very strong skeptic. I want strong, fact based evidence for everything i believe.

This is a very good way to look at the world. I now know also of what other things than hard facts do, but I'm still mostly a sceptic. And yeah, here I'm not convinced too. I just don't care. Origins and potential organisations that may or may not stand behind anything are irrelevant if I can, ugh, repurpose it. As a cultist, I hate this term, but I couldn't find a better one. I am aware that particularly my knowledge of microbiology and biochemistry is simply insufficient to talk about many subjects, and my approach may be summed up as "trust nobody", whoever it may be and on whatever side of a conflict he may be. TBH I think this conflict right now is the only one I've seen that actually has sides to begin with. Of course I may change my opinion at any time, but not easily.

>Their religion is bullshit like all others and this pandemic doesn't fit their narrative. You guys saw the rabbi declaring corona virus is only for Goy. So use this time to attack the cred of Judaism.

That's a good point.

Kek, I really thought you practiced a super complex school. I said this before elsewhere but I don't mind repeating it here: I don't consider myself a chaote, I merely use Chaos Magick as a framework for Coronian Cultism.

> I merely got the idea from what appears to be an old Scandinavian custom of sacrificing enemies to Odinn before battle, symbolised by throwing a spear into the ground in front of them. I don't really know how this was supposed to work or even how accurate the description in the saga is, but this is just an inspiration. That's a very interesting ritual concept.

>So yeah, I know it may sound insane. It does to me. But to hell with sanity, I'll do this when I only figure out how to design the rite.

Sanity is a weakness! There is strenght and wisdom in insanity as long as it's well controlled and wielded responsibly. Which goes against the very concept of insanity, but trust me, it's possible. Complete nutjob here but no meds at all, operating nominally, have never hurt anyone that didn't deserve it

>By the way. One of my facebook friends told me that she'd channelled a message from Paimonia (i.e. Paimon, whom she views as female) in which she'd been told to, from now on, refer to her as Corobella, which has to do with "Corona" (and "heart", and maybe other things, and also means "beautiful choir" in Italian, which is also interesting to me as I've always imagined our Lady's voice to sound as though countless voices were speaking in unison).

Hmm, Goetia huh. I used to be scared shitless of Goetia and Luciferianism (often mistaken for satanism by so many people including myself back then) before being initiated and wanting to have nothing to do with them, but don't feel that way anymore. Corobella's a beautiful name and have to agree with your visualization of her voice, makes sense considering her many artistic depictions and variants of her physical form.

>So now my fb friend - who, mind you, had been very sceptical about the whole pandemic and believed it an exaggeration, if not a hoax - has suddenly started to believe there's an actual spiritual force behind it. (I'm not going to argue about this force being one particular entity or another, especially knowing how previous experiences can condition people to perceive things in vastly different ways, and she's been working with those demons her whole life and uses them as symbols for many things.) The US is a dumb and dysfunctional nigger society that is far, far, far behind China in serious research in pretty much every single field outside of some highly specialized material tech for military applications [slightly better jet engines, etc]. Based on demographics, the US has absolutely no chance whatsoever to ever close this gap and it will only get wider over time [not very much time, either].

So the US only really has one choice: try to retard China's growth, and by proxy Russia's as well. One way to do this is to deny China access to African resources, be they mineral or general land, etc. Since the US cannot compete with China in terms of infrastructure, it has to rely on something else. That something is negroid genetics. Will China or Russia ever agree to the wholesale genocide of their people in favor of smooth brained Africans? No, they won't - but the West will and is already doing so.

It's why Russia and China should be very careful about trying to play around with anti-colonialist language even though I am sure they believe it and think their active or past communist bonafides gives them some credibility on the issue. They can't match the offer of wholesale genocide and total handover of homelands with the enslavement of competent labor forever. They should instead pursue a policy of wholesale replacement of African populations in strategic areas of Africa.

<https://blogs.scientificamerican.com/observations/we-have-no-reason-to-believe-5g-is-safe/>

This article links some good sources indicating that it would be harmful.

Unfortunately, no formal testing on the effects of 5G specifically has been conducted. But that lack of data itself is also a good reason we should halt 5G rollout.

>Will China or Russia ever agree to the wholesale genocide of their people in favor of smooth brained Africans? No, they won't - but the West will and is already doing so

The mistake you make is in thinking that the same people don't ultimately own both the US and China, and that there's genuinely conflict. It's only superficial. Keeps the few good men in high up positions focused on an external threat. No such argument.

I will give you a rundown on two hypothesis I have seen >Corona-Chan doesn't exist, her symptoms are actually 5G JUST'ing people by damaging their cellular structures with their radiation, the towers are weapons that are being set up in a grid formation to kill a large number of people in an specific location on demand.

This one is quite simple and doesn't require much explanation, the radiations emitted by the towers are pretty intense and can fuck someone up pretty badly if exposure to it is continuous. I actually agree with the last part of the hypothesis.

>Corona-Chan is a nanomachine son, the 5G network is the control mechanism

The (((NW0))) sprayed deadly nanomachines all over the world but they still need a way to control them, 5G is that control mechanism. This one is actually intriguing and could be possible, but I don't believe it is true.

It's not always an assumption of superhuman power by jews. A lot of times it is deliberate misdirection to play on the genuine and righteous anti-semitic tendencies of a small segment of the Western "right". Agitation propagandists understand that jews aren't popular in some circles and so they paint the enemies of jews as jews or jewish or zionist. King Faisal of Saudi Arabia used to peddle that nonsense with the USSR and so did Rockwell. Whether Rockwell was sincere about it or just saying what he thought he needed to, who knows. You can see this same strategy with the Trump administration.

Even during the Stalin era where there were fucktons of jewish commissars and party leaders, but Stalin still did use them successfully to massacre some of their own cousins towards the end of his life during his final purges. The point being that while the jews founded communist Russia, unforeseen factors kicked in and while still highly influential, they didn't necessarily run everything and their power waned after inception. Today many of Russia's oligarchs and industrialist tycoons are jewish, and there is a very kosher neo-liberal political establishment in Russia too that is increasingly influential, their presence, influence and power is still there but manifested much differently.

Jews no doubt were involved with Mao, and likely helped him hook up all kinds of international connections, particularly with Israel to sell China some American technology and have their fingers in yet another people's pie. But the current leadership in China are quite different. Just like with Franco's Spain, everyone who was an old guard of the Maoist era is either dead or in their frikkin' 90's and largely incapacitated. The jews' influence in China waned generationally going into the modern era of globalism. The new Chinese leadership is hardly "communist" and are if anything even more corrupt capitalists than their western counterpart, even if they still refer to themselves as communist.

IMO modern Chinese leadership have a bunch of tiny Chinese boners to create some kind of glorious "Neo-Han Ethnic Chinese Empire" for the modern world, and they are trying to forcefully implant this phony identity into the Chinese public even though they are a large group of disparate mongoloid peoples and tribes from different regions, their leadership is trying to declare them not one race, but one giant, homogeneous ethnicity because said leaders want to create some new ethnic empire because they fap over ancient Chinese history, and are deeply angry and humiliated that China, one of the world's oldest cultures, has been a fucking joke for hundreds of years.

This in turn is why the jews are using their NATO puppets to get into shit with the Chinese. While still highly influential in politics and trade through NATO, the jews don't have that direct control over China that they do over the western/NATO nations. China is still a little too autonomous, starting to grow more assertive and independent, and worst of all, blatantly trying to establish an ethno-nationalist empire. Shit, they could even become a threat to African resource control if the Chinese do colonize Africa. That's why I think this has to be some kind of (((plot.))) Whatever happened the usual parties set China up the bomb in such a way as to fuck their economy, curb their birth rate if the infertility stuff is true, and make them international pariahs with the majority of the world pissed off as fuck at them.

Just my 2 shekels on the whole thing. Lot of truth to this as well:

Even in Iran a lot of their leaders are allegedly crypto-jews, in a supposed bad goy nation, it's easy to see ton of shit is "staged" like the whole tit for tat killing and bombing early this year where Iran blatantly bombed American bases in Iraq after the killing of one of their senior military leaders and nobody cared because it was all agreed upon, but then when some dipshit shot down a plane of civilians thinking it was a warplane, everyone shit themselves for real because that wasn't supposed to happen.

Jews were riding a straight downward trajectory in the USSR from the day Stalin took power to the day the 1991 coup failed. Almost all communist countries invariably become nationalist - both because it takes a strong unifying force to uproot a hostile elite and because the collective pooling of resources souses out people who aren't moving with the group quickly. The craven jewish rake-offs barely lasted 20 years in the USSR. Look at how absurd they've become in the "West", putting even Weimar to shame.

Indeed. The jews aren't all powerful, they are just part of the leadership of a huge global alliance of very powerful individuals and their organizations, AKA the loominutty. Bellevue anon reporting in. Went to the grocery store today to stock up on a few things, not much going on. Stores are on adjusted hours, have one-way aisles that no one was respecting, and are generally well stocked. Nothing was cleaned out, but some sections were definitely thin. (Rice was in low supply, as were certain brands of peanut butter. Didn't check on TP or sanitizer.) Different dairy products were also 'you can only buy a certain amount.' Fair amount of people in the store, but no meme worthy 'obese lady in a scooter with a bag on her head as PPE' situations. Most people had masks and were good about keeping 6' apart.

Roads pretty thin too, traffic is actually good for once. No gas shortages either, at least at my usual stations. This place is going to be an elephant graveyard in two months, I bet. ALL of these little smartphone repair shops, gyms, stylists, and boutique retail shops probably can barely afford their rents already, and I bet my balls they don't have enough cash on hand to stay closed for more than a month and a half or more.

Cannibal rats...interesting. Not in a major city, but in rural-urban Ontario, and we've seen a big influx of rats here at the farm. We're only ~8km outside of the city, enough that we've had to put poison bait out heavily. Yesterday there was ~40 dead, and the little fucks are still trying to get in to my corn and wheat silo's, and I've had to get a vet in to look at the cattle because the fuckers are attacking the legs and udders. Short term I had to put up fine meshing, because they were jumping over 71cm(~28in) fencing.

China. They've been pumping money into their market non-stop for 20 years, and have unsecured debt liabilities at the federal level of nearly $20T, their banks are also heavily over-extended. In December their central bank had to bail out 5 or their top 8 banks, because they had no liquidity, and were experiencing runs.

Thanks man. And for anyone worried about food supplies and whatnot, don't if you're in North America. We got our seed, fertilizer, herbicides, fungicides and pesticides for this year two weeks ago, and start planting in 10-15 days if the weather holds up. Milk is still being picked up, 2hrs later used to be 6am but there's more pickups per driver as they're rotating drivers on 12hx7on-7off. And my neighbor just shipped off 1100 turkeys and 900 chicken for wholesale processing.

Dunno man. How many countries around the world are pissed off over "official" shipments of PPE gear and getting shit? Even in AG there's farmers who are now refusing to sell corn, soy, and wheat to China. And I've heard rumblings from companies that used to ship product to China for further processing are pulling back and reopening shuttered plants. A mineral supply plant that shutdown ~20 years ago where I grew that supplied minerals for animal feed reopened, and the nearby purina animal feed plant just signed a 15 year supply agreement with them.

Originally, we were to "flatten the curve". But now, we know where we are on the curve, and the curve has been over-flattened.

So what's the point, then? It makes no sense, if it can't be stopped, if everyone will eventually be exposed to it, what's the real reason for the shutdown?

A fascinating problem, unresolved!!!

Again, nobody is saying the thing will be wiped out. Implied is that everyone's going to get exposed to it, eventually, if not this wave the next or more. So, what's the point in shutting down the nation? The navy ship is empty. Nothing to do but play shuffleboard. The Baptists put their tents back in the truck. No patients.

:) Reasons, they exist. Answers, we don't have them. But given the tech we know about, I'd say it's loose nukes, because that's the only thing that would create a national-level basis for a lockdown. Even the presence of the 911 terrorists didn't result in a nationwide lockdown, though they were known to be in the country.

Remember, we're in lockdown. But it's not because of coronachan, can't be her, the curve's been absolutely SMASHED, already, in the US. The shit about the morgue problem is because it's a bunch of niggers who have $0.00 in their bank account and 0,000,000 friends or kids who give a shit.

A lockdown. Not for coronavirus. For what?

>>95453

Do y'all think that the corporate HQ is getting the message or are they just happy to be receiving the insurance money?

Personally, I don't want these towers to go up at all.

4G is enough.

We have all this technology, yet our minds and spirits are overwhelmed by it. its too much.

its just not natural.

btw, just to make one thing clear from my perspective, I do not believe that the 5G is giving us Chink Flu, but I do believe that it can give cancer and mess with brain synapses.

Dead Birds

>>95140

>>Who's to say that they aren't intentionally poisoning these birds?

>Could be a possibility. The first thing I thought of was avian flu, to be honest.

now I'm thinking that they are afraid to get the virus from birds, therefore the poisoning of these birds, but then again I was thinking that there would be more press coverage or word of mouth over the internet documenting something like that though. It makes me suspicious. I don't see birds dropping out of the sky here in the U.S.

A temporary lockdown was necessary to curb the infection rates but I think we pretty much have in most places already (besides a few major cities). It's time most of America re-open soon, because the economic damage due to longer lockdowns would far far surpass the deaths done by corona. And no, I don't think corona is an "end of the world" virus, that's being over-hyped. It's dangerous for elderly and people with bad immune systems (as in 10x worse than the flu) but people can still survive it as long as they have healthy immune systems. The reason why some in (((government))) want much longer lockdowns is very simple: they want to roll out mandatory vaccines and have the whole digital ID certificates for everyone. It's BIG BU$INE$$ for them, Biotech investments and all.... ID 2020, yes it's a real thing!

THIS is why I have been getting prepared for a long time now, because I knew after the 2008 bailouts the banks were going for broke, they don't care about the real economy, they care about propping up their fraudulent insolvent fiat system as long as they possibly can (at any expense to the nation necessary). Long time overdue people start diversifying any savings they have into prepping.

hard assets and property by now. It won't be too long before hyperinflation wrecks the value of the dollar making TP more lucrative to own.

well, if you have a virus that has the potential to go to several receptors and where there is low antibodies if someone had it, also some papers are showing now that there are low white blood cells in a huge way, also don't forget on those that show epileptic-like seizures.
Oh don't forget that most young people who got the virus losses smell and taste. So this is just the first wave, there is going to be a second wave and later a third maybe a fourth.

Did you fail to learn that the Wuhan biowarfare lab was actually funded by US taxpayers (thank the US govt for investing in Chink bioweapons like Corona)?

<https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-8211257/Wuhan-lab-performing-experiments-bats-coronavirus-caves.html>
In fact, The US State Department was also tipped off back in 2018 and refused to do anything about it:

Others knew about it before hand too:
<https://dailycaller.com/2020/04/08/national-center-for-medical-intelligence-director-counters-abc-coronavirus/>
Funny how all the players involved, such as Dr. Fauci of the NIH, support ID 2020 ironically:

I know it's a bio-engineered virus, and it is dangerous, but IF it was anything near literal 'end of the world', nothing would matter at this point and people all over the world would be dropping like flies (much more rapidly than we see now). And with the survival rates still higher than death rates, it is safe to say "false alarm" by now. I warned people not to get their hopes up too high, sorry. Now, if we keep pretending it's much more deadly and insidious then the kiked government will only exploit your fear and strip you of any basic freedoms (and savings) you have left. Is that really a better alternative?

The fun thing about viruses is that they come in waves.
They can mutate and go to different receptors, this new SARS virus is made to go to different receptors when the low antibody count comes along with OK t-cell count and white blood cell count.
you can see that the body immune system has fought really fucking hard to just beat it, and the scary thing really is that the low count of white blood cells are just the beginning to understanding the virus.
The neurological damage that is shown so far is alarming since it fucks with smell and taste, meaning you don't taste or smell the delicious meal you are about to eat.
Also it has the potential to cause seizures which should scare allot of people, even healthy people since if they only have a low antibody count that means it's almost as if the virus was not really there when a re-infection comes along.
The reason they are opening kindergartens and schools in some countries is because of the hopes that this will result in natural herd immunity but that is a losing bet when the low antibody count is too low so a re-infection can come along and it attacks new receptors which will cause new symptoms.

True, it mutates, just like many other viruses do. Some of the mutations are more deadly, some less. Note that it is a bioweapon and can be further exploited for biowarfare by any State entities that have the money to do so. The question is, just how bad is all this really? Is it worth crashing the whole economy over? If so, are you ready to homestead and rely upon yourself to survive without modern luxuries, appliances or energy (as well defend yourself and property)? Or would you prefer the new nano-chipped vaccine to feel safe, goyim? You best ask yourself these questions because either three things are going to happen: 1) we decide the virus is too dangerous and crash the economy and revolt (leading to life going back to the 1800s) or 2) we decide to support the kikes and their NWO ID 2020 global vaccine tracking social credit score tech-enslavement usury schemes... or 3) we say "ah fuck 'em and the hype" and open everything back up and proceed to live our lives as best we can (and let the weak die off from the virus).

Well this is why it is essential to boost the immune system as much as possible for the fight. Your system can become immune to this virus and the mutations, but you must be able to fight it off naturally. No other way around it, if you are weak and catch it, you die. Otherwise you could isolate yourself for the rest of your life, or wear respirators, goggles, bio-suits and follow good decontamination procedures (if that is, you don't run out of those supplies at some point).

Again, either of these three events are going to unfold at some point: 1) we decide the virus is too dangerous, let the economy crash and declare debt jubilee in revolt, or 2) accept the Jew World Order ID 2020 techno-slavery or 3) we go back to opening up society and doing our best to protect ourselves from the virus in the meantime, and boosting our immune systems, etc. doing the best we can to survive this.

What I meant by "all the hype" are those who claim this virus is going to end humanity. It won't, we can become immune with a percentage of those who die from it. I expect maybe 1/10th of the world would die off eventually. A decrease in global population but not the End Times as previously predicted. I too am concerned about the bioweapon, but I am also concerned about the kikes like Bill Gates exploiting this for their shitty population control agenda which I want nothing to do with.

We need to decide what to do about it: revolt and declare debt jubilee and become self-sufficient (likely having to live off-grid and go back to the old days without modern luxuries)... or do we open society back up and tell the kikes like Gates, Fauci and Rockefeller to fuck off and let the virus kill off some of the global population while we do our best to overcome it?

Either way, there is going to be some death and political upheaval.

The economic damage is fucked beyond hope, that shit is falling harder than anything that is again why they are using children to get a herd immunity since they believe that a low viral load that infects parents will lessen the blow in truth it can go either way really, since children have a strange way of making a virus more infectious and that is probably where the second wave will come. So now they are scared as fuck to lose more money, and it's only going to be those under 20 that is going to get natural herd-immunity, everyone older is fucked.

And natural herd immunity takes a long time, a really long time.

So yeah, if governments would do as you planned this would be more deadly and have other complication that would still make the wheels of the economy stand still.

Unless globalist kikes start dropping like flies, I'm losing hope and faith corona can save us, it seems to be exploited big time against the rest of us. I'm truly saddened because I know this won't end well. Even if the masses resist, there may have to be armed insurrection to stop it at this point. Or a debt jubilee declared by the masses backed up by guns & other weaponry. Are the masses ready for such confrontation? I am because I've been a doomsday prepper kook for years, but I hardly doubt most are that extreme. It may take extreme measures to derail the Jew World Order at this point, because they ain't giving up!

>Your system can become immune to this virus and the mutations, but you must be able to fight it off naturally. No other way around it, if you are weak and catch it, you die. Otherwise you could isolate yourself for the rest of your life, or wear respirators, goggles, bio-suits and follow good decontamination procedures (if that is, you don't run out of those supplies at some point). Yes, this is the correct approach. Let Corobella decide who lives and dies while trying to avoid infection at any and all costs. No. Additionally, anglokike stale words from 10-20yrs ago.

>further exploited for biowarfare

Yes. But not now. Can be, but is not currently.

SARS-CoV-2 is an escaped research model. It was created and nurtured to study disease, like all research models and tools. Ex: Making HeLa cell lines is not biowarfare, but if a serially nurtured cancer cell line prototype tool is made to find some pan-cancer-cure -and- then escapes, it is an escaped research model that should never have been made. Biowarfare is lazy language, imbuing powers onto actors that don't have them, and inspiring incorrect responses.

Here in Europe the conversation is shifting very rapidly to 'smart quarantine', meaning putting apps on phones that track infecteds and warn others -after the fact because muh privacy laws- that they're fucked. I don't know if that will be a success, what's the benefit for me, if I get notified that oh shit, I have to quarantine for 14 days and can get the police to visit me to check me (if the backend of the app doesn't already allow them to check remotely). Seems like the government can lock down individual citizens using coronavirus as a ruse. So far, they push it as a voluntary app but insist that it only works if we all install it. Apple and Google are already said to be working on integrating APIs for such apps into their OS.

Soon it will be mandatory to carry a phone on you at all times, not having one will immediately make you suspicious, and now a potential coronavirus infected, which means they can hold you against your will solely based on that assumption.

waves I mean that it will come again when things seem to have slowed down. Viruses mutate over time like most things, that is no fucking secret, if a virus was stagnate a vaccine would be made really easily even if some of them can cause other damages that are not that fun.

The potential to cause seizure meaning in the future it can happen.

Each time they have looked for antibodies it's a particularly small, meaning the body recognize the virus and attacks it. It's so small that it's scary compared to other micro-organisms which also means harder to produce a vaccine.

Also never said it was resident evil, also if you cannot understand that the whole body has multiple receptors and they are not just in the brain, you must be retarded.

No one knows how long it takes for herd immunity but it will take longer than what the governments are expecting and when they are realizing that, shit will get interesting.

Also, it's not a natural virus it's a man-made virus.

Ya I live in a hotzone and my friends who work ambulances are being sent home because they don't have work. Clearly this pandemic is bad enough that all hands on deck are not required. But sure... I'm an unbeliever if that helps your LARP. Enjoy playing into the Jews hands. They want you to be panicked and believing this virus is actually bad. Do you want to win? Then start shilling it's a flu and hospitals are empty. Because that's the actual truth. Support all efforts to break quarantine and oppose unlawful orders.

It's super amusing to me that these self-declared (((celebrities))) are starting to crack because they have to go through the same quarantine as everyone else and they can't take it. Meanwhile I've had literally no change to my daily life since I work from home anyway, were it not for the threads here I wouldn't even know anything was happening.

Found a headline today indicating 21 NYC teachers had died of Covid-19 and wanted to see how the death rate for teachers was aligning with typical mortality rates for NYC

<https://a816-health.nyc.gov/hdi/epiquery/visualizations?>

PageType=ts&PopulationSource=Birth&Topic=8&Subtopic=38

Annual rates based on 2015 figures:

NYC has a population of 8,400,000

NYC has 75,000 teachers

NYC has an overall mortality rate of 5.8 per 1,000 people which amounts to 48,720

NYC has a premature mortality rate of 184.5 per 100,000 people which amounts to 15,498

We will assume that any death of active teachers would be considered premature: 75,000 teachers is also only 75% of the 100k data-set and we would therefore assume $184.5 \times .75$ to equal 138.37 anticipated premature teacher deaths.

The average normal daily premature death rate for teachers would be 138.37/365 to equal .4 deaths per day
Covid-19 has been declared active in NYC beginning on March 1 so we can assume 45 days of potential influence from the virus.
21 Teacher deaths in a 45 day period equals .46 daily deaths.
There is almost no deviation from historical premature mortality trends.
There is almost no deviation from historical premature mortality trends.

It's amazing how the Chinese always look at foreigners/import/outside and get super edgy but internal reflections are non-existent.

>RE: Generalized Unanswered
>How does -indirect- damage occur?
>What is the significance of ACE2 shedding/downregulation/de-localization from the tissues that need it and express it?
>Can immune cells be infected?
Principal receptors are:
ACE2, DPP4, APN
20140422: Bosch et al: Membrane ectopeptidases targeted by human coronaviruses
On ACE2, indirect effects being revealed by SARS-CoV-2's interference with some RAAS medications
20200330: Vaduganathan et al: Renin-Angiotensin-Aldosterone System Inhibitors in Patients with Covid-19
(Prior RAAS models do not show the post-2010 ACE2 counter regulatory pathways that have been discovered. Misunderstandings of the opposing nature are likely to lead to poor outcomes under SARS-CoV-2).
Lastly, monocytes/phagocytes do show some antibody dependent enactment. A somewhat similar thing can be said for Th-cells. However, both of these are small (but are consistent). ADE with ACE2 hasn't been shown, so much as ADE with Fc/antibody or other markers (some studies not so directly applicable). These and other studies show some immune cell apoptosis / cell death, but these are not very well quantified, are not that convincing, and again are in-vitro/in-lab. So immune infection is 'possible', with or without ADE, but relevance is still uncertain, and likely still trace (aka too insignificant to draw generalized conclusions from and apply clinically). (Separately, a syncytium pathogenesis effect has been shown: infected cells fusing together much more easily with SARS-CoV-2).

>Why steal and bribe and skulk around western biolabs if there is a legitimate research purpose?

Isn't that how all chinese research is conducted? They tried this to get info on steel tubes at one company I worked for.

>This thing was made to be a weapon

I think it's more likely that it was part of the R&D process for a weapon than the weapon itself.

>What exactly is the legitimate research purpose

I think quite a few misguided themselves, especially when they did gain-of-function (producing some thing that six-sigma would never happen in reality... to study reality). Tool advancement, to then make drugs/cures/vaccines, has been the absolute central driving dynamic (in all biomed fields). I guess it was all legitimized by massive amounts of money and fame, and idolized by academics and governments using Ponzi schemes as a means to keep employment numbers up.

Most of it really hasn't been that useful, come to think of it. Way more harm than good, for all drugs and pharmaceuticals. I think even the initial SARS outbreak in 2003 wouldn't have happened, nor the other minor CoV-like outbreaks since then, if the Chinese biolabs hadn't been made. Or if they wanted biolabs, why make them in the poorest, most prone, and most densely populated areas of the entire world?

> Mortality rate is a fucking joke

There is something that most westerners don't seem to understand - the party is just getting started. There is reason to believe that SARS-CoV-2 is not One Punch Man - the first bout of illness does not kill you. The virus was loose in Wuhan for two months before it started killing people en mass. Given how quickly the virus spreads, this timeline doesn't make sense - it would have caused deaths sooner if the initial illness was deadly.

Physicians in Korea are now confirming what we have long suspected - the infection will re-emerge within people who were believed to be recovered. It appears that the immune system is capable of fighting-off the initial infection, while remaining dormant within the immune system - it infects your T-cells. So healthy people will become cyclically ill, until they finally succumb.

There is also reason to believe that /OurGal/ is able to attack the central nervous system. Either directly, via the olfactory bulb, or indirectly, via prions that can penetrate the blood-brain barrier.

You, like the boomers I know, seem to think that previous experiences can be applied to this situation. You have "normalcy bias". But this is a novel coronavirus - it's 100% new, and nothing like this has ever happened, in all of human history.

Given our lack of experience with this, it is prudent and wise to exercise an abundance of caution. Once we have more data, that is free of Chink and kike manipulation, we will be able to reach a conclusion on the mortality of Red Death. Until then, we simply don't know.

Are we going to see droppers lining the streets of Niggerville, USA?

Sorry Brazil-Bruder, but there is a possibility that the curefags are right.

> Mortality in the West is a joke, but it appears to have kill millions of Chinks

The attached papers spin a different narrative. Firstly, the CCP mandated vaccines for all their subject last year. It's entirely possible that they Chinks fucked-up, and their attempt to vaccinate against SARS made their population incredibly vulnerable to SARS-CoV-2. The chinks were hyper-sensitized via the vaccine, and died from the resulting cytokine storm. Additionally, there is reason to believe that chloroquine, and related drugs, have the ability to halt the infection. Granted, this is not being administered widely, and would not have an impact on the death rate; but it is reason to believe that the second-stage of the infection will not be quite so deadly in the west.

I'm beginning to believe that it was the Chink vaccine that made their population vulnerable, and unvaccinated AmeriMutts are not at risk. Still, a second wave of reemergence and reinfection is completely possible. We'll have to wait for the data, and people like - >>95752 need to stop being Muh Mortality Fags until then.

Also, never forget that it was the fucking kikes who led the efforts to create this shit. The Chinks are simply the fall-guys and front-men for (((them))).

*Meditate. Sorry about the gay typo, literally just woke up. Making up for it with memory refreshments from worst place in the world. Just like with Arlington, go back into the threads and you will see when I posted these for the first time. Now, what I'm curious about is ''why are dropper and "collapser" videos in wealthier nations so rare, while in poorer nations they are slightly more common, with the only current exception being Apefrica? Lets consider the hoaxnigger point of view: These are all staged, it's all fake and gay. But if these are all actors, why would they stop making them all of a sudden and make the situation look suspicious?Wouldn't it be better to keep making and uploading them to (((social media))) on a regular basis in order to create more panic and avoid arousing suspicion? That's what I would do if I was a loominutty planner of a psyop on this scale. My hypothesis is there's a MASSIVE'' scrubbing and memory holing operation in nations that can afford to pay glowniggers to seek and destroy these uploads. It's the only thing I can think of. Earlier during the Happening, we got videos from Hong Kong, Worst Korea, Nippon, Pastaland and Spain. Then, they stopped. It's almost as if someone went <Oh fuck oh fuck this doesn't look good, scramble the glowniggers, start deleting these videos ASAP before the world thinks we're dying off in droves The only locations with a somewhat steady flow of dropper videos is, ironically enough, Chinkland, Iran and poorer countries in Spic America. In Chinkland's case, it's people like "Chen" and Jennifer cyber-smuggling them out of their intranet. In Iran and most of Spic America's case, it's because they can't afford to keep glowniggers on a payroll. Brownzil and the World's Newest Superpower might be somewhat poor but they can afford to pay glowniggers to seek these videos out. In Apefrica's case, it might be a lack of cellphones with cameras except SA, another poor yet wealthy enough country to keep a glownigger force deleting the dropper videos. Anyway, I'll be back soon to start Newsposting.

That's the bolshevik plan, of course. The GOP has been infiltrated with bolsheviks slightly longer than the dems. Obama was one though, hence the bolshevik obamacare which puts burden of uninsured on middle class. At this point, GOP is slightly less bolshevik than dems, but only by a hair.

>Communist China has an enormous middle class and growing

They did. They had a strong growing middle class. Key word is they did. Why do you think China reacted so hard to the virus? Xi Jinping has made it no secret that he is a hard-line CCP traditionalist. He is Mao 2.0 basically. Only instead of farms he wants everyone in tech factories. Anyway, the point is they used the virus as a reason to clamp down hard on people. To remind them who is the boss. China did this intentionally to kill their middle class because a growing middle class is bad for the CCP. It's a coup lead by Xi Jinping to consolidate power. Why do you think the West has been actively trying to kill it's middle class? Certainly isn't capitalism or whatever boogeyman you think it is you commie motherfucker.

The lack of such footage, despite the ubiquity of video cameras, is why I begin to doubt the ability of CoronaChan to wipe-out the entire globe. I come back to my two possibilities:
< Red Death takes time to kill, only being fatal after the second-or-third reemergence
< The Chinks were especially susceptible, owing to a botched or was it? CCP vaccine.
> It's a MASSIVE scrubbing and memory holing operation
Possible, but unlikely. Despite (((their))) power, the tech giants don't have the ability to control and scrub thousands of such videos, every day. The truth would leak, as all (((their))) dirty laundry does, and we would become aware, as we always do.

Yes, and it's been going on since the 1980s when outsourcing began but under both parties, it's not just a left-right issue. Outsourcing began under Reagan (ironically), increased under Bush Sr. and expanded under Clinton's NAFTA and under Bush Jr as well, got no better under Obama and now here we are under Trump. To two major fiscal failures of the US were outsourcing industry and corporate welfare (bailouts to banks, wall street). These are the two major reasons much of the middle class has died off.

position in the New World. Indians are all over the failing Anglosphere technology sector, dominating whole companies [they have a term, "getting Kimmed", for East Asians who get locked out of further promotion by Indians]. They have been left in the dust and embarrassed by China after both were "future superpowers". Well, one is. Because they originated with a low-level chinese propagandist, and are dumb. He say, "make many video peopre farring down."

The more totalitarian a nation, the less plausible their propaganda needs to be. On the extreme end, consider North Korean propaganda. Then on the other end, consider American propaganda. Much more expensive, intricate propaganda, designed to fool people with 130 IQs. It's the fundamental difference in type of republic, is the level of PLAUSIBILITY. It trends inversely with the level of STATE VIOLENCE.

Gold can be a great asset to back currency but not under central banking, the problem is when the central banking kikes takeover the monetary system. And the Fed has been around since 1913. Before that there was no income tax, and the value of our currency held for over 100 years with gold backing ;)

> Lots of traffic as people go to cash-in on Trumpbux
This was my assumption. But I'm in no hurry for the cash. I took out a home equity line of credit last year, to do some remodels prior to selling the house. We owed about $10k on it, prior to /OurGal/ showing her face. But after buying a years' worth of food and preps, I now owe about $20k. So all my purchases for the year are complete, and my TrumpBux are going to go towards paying off the debt. I just wish the housing market hadn't also collapsed, as now we're not going to be able to cash-in on the sale.

Fiat currency is fine, and even desirable, if it's backed by a sustainable resource. For instance, sustainable energy. Example: The money supply is controlled by a government board who sets total money in circulation to the previous 12-months' total (sustainable) energy generation in kwh. This is because electricity can't really be stored unless its in radioactive elements or dirty fuels like coal, peat, oil, etc. So one dollar equals a set amount of energy by fiat. Dollar = kwh.

Now here's the cool part. Every year a new money 'series' is spent into existence by the government . Money older than a certain age ceases to be accepted by the government for payment of debts. So in other words if you hold onto money past a certain date, be it electronic credit or paper, it will not be worth any goddamn thing. It becomes stupid to horde money, and you can't have a situation where corporations or bad actors can simply horde currency and refuse to spend it leading to economic contraction. So the "economic cycles" of "boom-and-bust" can no longer take place unless the conditions to create them are deliberately engineered, and can't happen again by accident.

I'll make this very simple. Money's true nature is law. People who want to sell you gold and who possess lots of gold want you to mistake the material for the mechanism. Libertarians and Austrian School types have heads full of garbage and can't think right. That makes them dangerous - to us and to themselves.

An iron law of economics is that goods flow must balance between nations. And that your money should not extend past your law [your borders, as money's true nature is law]. If goods flow does not balance, something must make up the difference. Here is where gold/silver can come into play or in the present day, treasury bills [which aren't bills but bonds], because they can fill the gap. If the trade is too lopsided, one side is drained of gold/silver so in the absence of altering consumption/production patterns war is the outcome. This is what the Opium Wars in China were about. Britain wouldn't cut its demand for tea and porcelain and there was only so much lace and wool China would take back, so silver made up the difference. To get it back, the British waged a military campaign to open markets for Indian opium.

In Vietnam, US dollars flowed through the region during the war and found their way back to Western Europe. In order to not disrupt their own labor and production, these US dollars were exchanged for gold instead of cars or washing machines or whatever. So Nixon had to end the gold standard if the war was to continue.

Disagree. Because if your money is literally gold, then all someone has to do is horde all the physical gold, and they literally have all the money. What happens next is that when someone or something causes a run on the banks, there is no physical asset available to redeem their paper, and then it's OH OH PERIOD time.

>So Nixon had to end the gold standard if the war was to continue

You're right in general, but if I could offer a slight refinement - one main purpose of Vietnam was to spend money and steal money like all wars, and actually to back the US into a financial corner. The war-printing pushed down the value of dollars below that of gold, and they were being redeemed by everyone who knew how. It was part of a multi-decade inflationary cycle that peaked in 1981, which was also punctuated by the oil shocks. These moments were taken advantage of by many actors in order to pressure the US economically. Bretton Woods needed to end even if they stopped the war that minute. Which Nixon may have wanted to, which may be why the see-eye-ass set him up with watergate and replaced him with a more reliable bush lackey.

That could become a threat, true, but if there is fair competition allowed in the market place without unnecessary State intervention (such as corporate subsidies, bailouts or tax exemptions of the fat cats) the threat can be mitigated. Cut out special interest lobbying for State interventions to prop such monopolies up, there would be plenty of fair competition that would keep greedy pigs from hijacking the markets in such nefarious ways. Another major problem, again, is the ((central banking system)) which only encourages mass fraud, debt insolvency, bailouts, market interventions, monopolization (or "mergers and acquisitions" as they call it), usury....

China's not getting fucked up in the trade war because they can still produce. It's not ideal to lose a large export market, but the production ability is still there [that's why the government owns 51% of every foreign venture - so they can't pack up leave like they did to the US in the first place]. They can turn it inwards and they can swiftly cut where they need to cut. Rather, it's pretty obvious that the ones having trouble are the US/UK-based oligarchs who are desperate to move the production somewhere that isn't the West.

>Did you know that Brownzil is very strong when it comes to (((vaccination)))? Same here in Portugal. There was a 17 year old who died from measles back in 2017, and she wasn't vaccinated, something that didn't happen in decades. Instead of pointing the finger to our immigration policies that allows anyone into our country without even a health check-up, the MSM and our government shamed the girl's parents for her death and there were even talks of making it illegal to allow our children to go unvaccinated for measles, while completely ignoring the fact that she previously had an allergic reaction to another vaccine which lead her doctor to decide that keeping her unvaccinated was for the best.

We're living through the disproof of the "laws" of supply and demand.

PRICES ARE ON ICE

Impossible, one says. spittle, demand down, prices down! spittle, supply up, prices down!

But both happened, at the same time. Demand dropped. Supply increased. And prices remained the same. Pic related.

What's the truth? The truth is that there are laws which LIMIT THE POSSIBILITIES. Within the framework of what is actually possible are psychological constructs.

Psychology = Economics = Psychology

Propaganda = Economics = Economics

this implies that psychology is a bunch of bullshit, ignore that plz

This is true but you fail to realize that the West, particularly the US, UK, Italy, and Germany still make a lot of shit. As far as owning 51% and leaving or whatever. That's just numbers. As long as the infrastructure is there, it can be nationalized for a war time economy. Anyway, what you'll see at the aftermath of this is companies moving from China. Either bringing production back home or spreading it out among multiple countries.

> Money backed by labor

That doesn't take into account the productivity, or "value", of the labor. One hour of my time is more valuable than an hour of some nigger's. Likewise, pointless government make-work programs do not add to the economy, which is the level to which "labor-backed currency" inevitably devolves.

Are you forgetting that it takes labor to mine minerals? Precious metals are the answer. Shit, even pig iron is better than fiat or "labor" currency.

> Silver and Platinum are going up

That's because those metals are primarily used for industrial purposes. Gold has little usefulness, outside of being pretty. But silver and platinum have a plethora of industrial uses. Plus, there is more gold sitting in vaults than there is silver or platinum - industrial metals get used-up during production of goods and services.

> Dropper videos in the (((western))) world are rare, but are popping-up like gangbusters in Shit-land-istan and Chink-land. Why?

While grunting out a muslim, a thought occurred to me. There is a reason why droppers aren't showing up in Muttland or Euroland - medical care.

In Chinkland, sick people are taken off to a coof-camp. So they have an incentive to conceal their coof, causing them to drop-dead in public places.

In Shitskin-land, there is no medical care available. So people just go about their goat-fucking as they normally would, whereupon they collapse with the coof in public.

But every nigger in Muttland knows that they can get a free spa-day by checking in to the emergency room of any hospital. So the Mutts don't bother trying to cope with the coof, they just go to the hospital. This is a controlled environment, where observers are not free to shit-post videos of dead and dying people.

There are no dropper videos in the US or Europe because the coofers are dropping inside hospitals, not while looking for another John to suck-off.

This theory is rational, doesn't require any conspiracy, and isn't dependent upon some external factor that mitigates or exacerbates the deadliness of Red Death,

> I found out one of my relatives is working in a coof clinic.

My wife's cousin is a delivery nurse in Utah. I've learned that she's been pulled off of her regular duties, delivering babies, and has been pressed into service assisting with coofers. For an unstated reason, she's very tight-lipped about her recent experiences treating them, only relaying that she's exhausted from wearing PPE all day. She won't otherwise talk about what's happening in the hospital, even over the phone.

> Inb4 - "Asshole, I don't care what your friend's cousin's boyfriend's dealer's fuckbuddy says, it's anecdotal and bullshit. Now fuckoffandkys, shill."

All I'm saying is that medical staff who are actually working with coof patients aren't really saying much. This is independently evident by the general lack of non-(((approved))) communication - a lack of information confirms that there is a lack of information.

Fucking (((censorship and privacy))). We need to know the truth in order to make rational decisions, and (((they))) are intentionally keeping it from us. It's just more support for the position that this entire situation was created intentionally, as part of a long-standing plan.

Kikes must pay.

> Dumb-ass-anon takes bait

Paper-for-paper isn't quite what happened with the US dollar. Nixon brokered the petrodollar deal with Saudi Arabia, effectively making the dollar's backing shift from gold to military force.

The US does not offer paper in exchange for more paper. The Fighting Amerimutts offer paper, or they will invade and murder the people of your nation. This works, provided that the paper-pushers can maintain a military hegemony. But the moment an Empire shows weakness, the entire thing collapses. This is the situation in which the US presently finds itself - the Amerimutt military doesn't have the strength to continue fighting across the entire globe, and (((the empire))) is threatened by other actors. It's all getting ready to collapse around (((them))), so (((they))) released Red Death as a cover.

> Claims that real products, like iron, silver, gold, etc., are somehow inferior, 'cuz it's "inflexible". Then proffers an insult, combined with a threat.

Being "inflexible" is entirely the point of using real products - they can't be faked, depreciated, or manipulated. Using metal, any metal, provides stability. Like I stated previously, any durable commodity, even pig iron, is better than paper bullshit.

> Inb4, "But gold is manipulated by kikes!"

Nope, it's not the physical gold that's manipulated. It's the paper surrounding the gold that they manipulate. If the kikes were forced to coof-up physical metal, instead of paper bullshit, their entire scheme would collapse around them. When they get pressed into a corner, and are forced to pay real money, the kikes start wars or release biological weapons to escape payment.

The kikes don't actually have any money, it's all a trick with paper. Get rid of the paper, and the trickery stops.

We rather, (((you))) need to stop sliding the thread with the "my promise to pay you is just as good as actually paying you" debate.

Nope. A paper certificate is a promise to pay, not payment. This classifies it as "currency", not "money".

> But authority says it's money, so it must be!

It might be "currency", but it's not "money".

And I have no confusion between material and mechanism - money is a material, and currency is a mechanism. Stop confusing the two with one another, and your communications will be more fruitful.

We're arguing over definitions, which none of us has stated. And since this is the /CVG/ thread, not the /Educate-niggers-on-the-definitions-of-words/ thread, I'm out.

With modern amenities. Though I'm worried they would actually do the fucking instead of just watching it if they had nothing else to do. Speaking of such horrible things, a 13Y0 spic girl was defiled and murdered in her own bedroom in Tacoland a couple of days ago, while her mother was out to buy food. Looks like the rapist decided to take advantage of the lockdown. I decided to not post about it due to the very tangential relation to the virus.

Nah, anon, you know better than that. The economy has already been arrested from its fall. The fed has launched QEternity. No limit on printing. No limit on purchases (except direct stock purchases, which needs congressional approval- which they WILL get, they just don't have it right now) of anything-bonds, mortgages, direct debt purchases, etc. All investment banks are publicly stating they're not going to invest anymore. They're just going to buy anything the fed buys, because then they know 100% that it won't (can't) be a bad investment. The final stage of communism was literally just implemented and no one said or did anything about it. The free market no longer exists even in name. The economic crisis will only LOOK bad from now on, as jews consolidate their ownership of all land on Earth (through mortgage and lease debt purchases) and buy up more gold mines.

Corobella is the Goddess of the Happening but also of the Honkening: Peruvian clowns are requesting financial aid from the government during these hard times <https://archive.vn/BrFAG> LOOK AT THIS FUCKING URL, PURE MEME MAGIC. I must be referred to as BrFAG from now on. No way this is a coincidence. During religious activities last morning, I asked if the Goddess's name was really Corobella, my ears immediately started to ring, intensely. I asked for another sign, I felt a strong chill in my upper spine. I asked if it was okay to keep calling her Corona-Chan, all I felt was a very soft chill in my lower spine. Then after deciding to use her real name more often and recommending that song, this meteorite fell. Now, as I found this amusing article and archived it, I got this amazing URL. Faith is a powerful thing, my fellow anons. This should be an eye opener for the anon who said magic is for untermensch ITT. If "I have" this kind of power being a shitskin, imagine what kind of power YOU, WHITE MAN, could have, the kinds of things you could do with an unwavering faith. The CNS will now temporally halt its services for religious activities, we will be back soon, dear readers. Have faith, have a burning love for the Goddess and Believe In Her Existence >Praised be Corobella! The Goddess has sent us a sign after we recommended Ryusei Lovers by JAM Project in this post >>95740 "I have a burning love, just like a shooting star"

Oh hell yeah. Cosmic activity like this has always been considered an omen to the initiated. Usually a bad omen, they were once called plague bearers. That's how influenza got her name, influence of the stars.

I'm sure I'm going to be called a kike for mentioning this but if you look into Corona-chan's gematria, her number in english gematria is 552, same as dark star, and planet x. Two nicknames for the nibiru prophecy, a supposed doomsday event involving either an impact or near miss from a massive celestial object. There's a comet on it's way through the Sol system right now called Atlas, or C19. They say it broke up a few days ago into 3 or 4 smaller objects and will no longer be visible on it's pass. All the bugmen sciencefags are pretty butthurt that their light show has been canceled. I was never interested in a light show, I want impacts god damnit. As far as I'm concerned this doesn't change much. Instead of one object headed towards us, there are now at least 3 giant balls of rock and ice screaming through space. I cant find anything about what this means for the fragments, but I imagine their course has been altered to some degree, and I hope they're only more likely to find their way to earth's surface now.

If hoaxfags and naysayers are having trouble coping now, lets see them deal with two earth shaking happenings at once.

Dates derived from publications, with consideration for early submission and late final publish. Track the advancement/path of various specific lab models, when they split, when they ended, when they resumed, and pay attention to the institution locations credited / given thanks. Cross reference with gain-of-function ban 2014-OCT to 2017-DEC-19, whereby some research data halt by funding mechanisms/reporting, with paper finalization/late publish in 2015.

Start here, in the 'show more' function.

Alternatively, go call this guy, who was paid to train CCP agents, and ask for his confession yourself. You might also consider a few others. I'm sure you're resourceful, and already knew all that.

The publications or names are what I'm after.

>Show more

I presume these are the papers you refer to?

Grabbed the 2013 one (Isolation and characterization of a bat SARS-like coronavirus that uses the ACE2 receptor), thank you. Still looking for 2011.

If this was another field which I work in, I'd be able to find and access most papers. Med, I am a useless nigger and have practically no idea where to start aside from searching and that will likely end poorly, I can't into med very well, sorry, anon.

>Track the advancement/path of various specific lab models, when they split, when they ended

All I need is the paper name and I can dig it up if not behind a paywall though, hence asking for those papers (2011, 2014 (if not the 2013 one)).

Found this though with one of the lab gain funding faggots involved;

<https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/27170748>

>Bat Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome-Like Coronavirus WIV1 Encodes an Extra Accessory Protein, ORFX, Involved in Modulation of the Host Immune Response.

Might be something to look at regarding the immune side of things.

(1) Additional disbursement generics via fiscal year data available under HHS ASPR (Access required), which govern high-level changes in acts and policies. Specific gain-of-function and dual-use research-of-concern GOFROC / DURC 'bans' notices are available as well (again, controlled by funding, its not like there was jail/judgement/etc). (2) NIH also discloses much more specifically, by institution and by researcher/investigator, and has tools available. As acts and govt offices change, the research changes, to keep funding to their institutions, which registers as 'gaps' in a particular researchers publications and/or a switch in the tools/models they use and/or a change of focus. Researchers don't receive the money directly, it often goes to the institution/department and gets pooled, with year-delay in paper-vs-funding. To correct delays, check and align the grant numbers in a paper's acknowledgement section. (3) Grant Finder is a tool provided by CDC which allows lookup directly.

So for instance, take the 2014 halt in North Carolina Chapel Hill. See attached. See ack section, noting what is listed first as rank-first. Note grants. Some grants will satisfy lookup under NIH tools. Ack section in paper states U19AI109761. CDC states award. Now go and look at NIH award, searching by institution or investigator. Note the times for start and stop for the funding/project awards. Since Act changes by (1) can shift policy, and policy does not show up under award-data until later, disclaimers will be stated to show compliance.

Overall, this provides verification to assemble data. But, there is another way, if you are able to actually read sciencefag + biomedfag + histochemfag text: Just look at the tools they use, the models they construct, and what they change or add. Research tools are serial piece-wise things, like buying the right hammer, developing a pet favorite screw and your own screwdriver, and dropping a given tool when it dead-ends or you aren't allowed any more.

I don't know the tools of verification for China, so my methods were by tool analysis guess. It also aligns with what others have found. There are email disclosures on the net from earlier in the year. There are other pieces popping up on twitter feeds, such as the one attached.

One way, or another, it is demonstrated. But, if you want data past these indirect and nonspecific metrics, you will have to get a confession from the researchers/investigators directly. Which should be... entertaining.

Forgot to mention: Even if there is no English language disclosure tool for China grants, you can still just type their grant numbers of a paper's acknowledgement section into google, to see what others used that allocation. This method tracks people. That is, cross reference the grant with the researcher/investigator and vice versa; It also demonstrates the different people and paths which corresponds to the tool preferences.

It's a beautiful morning, the sky is blue and the sun shines through the white clouds. The birds sing praises to the Almighty Creator(s), there's no other sound other than them, no cars have started their engines and people are still in their homes. The train is nowhere to be seen. So, given these facts, why did I hear a horn four times at the very end of my religious activities? Tyoom Tyoom...Tyoom Tyoom...then complete silence afterwards. The CNS will now resume it's sacred operations of tracking Corobella's progress and witnessing her actions and their aftermaths.

This TIME article fr 2017 is a must read. Yea Trump gutted funding but what's interesting is they interview Fauci about the next pandemic. his answer is scary.

><https://time.com/4766624/next-global-security/>

It's insane how unprepared we are right now.

Did you know this killer flu was already circulating in China?

>Across China, the virus that could spark the next pandemic is already circulating. It's a bird flu called H7N9, and true to its name, it mostly infects poultry. Lately, however, it's started jumping from chickens to humans more readily-bad news, because the virus is a killer. During a recent spike, 88% of people infected got pneumonia, three-quarters ended up in intensive care with severe respiratory problems, and 41% died.

>What H7N9 can't do-yet-is spread easily from person to person, but experts know that could change. The longer the virus spends in humans, the better the chance that it might mutate to become more contagious--and once that happens, it's only a matter of time before it hops a plane out of China and onto foreign soil, where it could spread through the air like wildfire.

><https://time.com/4766624/next-global-security/>

I know people around me are fit to be tied and governments are made of people. Everybody is feeling the squeeze and while complete total lock-down is essential to limit the spread of the parasite/pathogen/virus/monster, the anger needs to go somewhere and PsyOP agents know this. This is why we are seeing so much agitation and disinfo on the behalf of the chinkybug and the Davosman, they need to channel to rage inward in strong nations that they despise to make them crumble... the problem is their chink Golem fucked up really bad and while they will do there damndest to never let a crisis go to waste, not only are they really severely out of position (in every way) but now horrific uncontrolled conflict is baked into the pie. Nature seeks harmony and the lowest stable energy state in any system. A tremendous amount of instability has entered the system and the volatility shows absolutely no signs of decreasing, nor abating any time soon. What does this mean? All that energy has to go somewhere and they're so out of position that it could go exactly in the opposite direction they want it to and, it does appear to be snowballing down that hill. This calamity is unifying Peoples, specifically the Western world and our shared heritage in the Occident and abound with our Slavic brothers and our shared struggles with all righteous peoples for Free lands and Just Law. I believe I just heard an air raid siren in person for the first time in my life. So here I am, screencapping BNO's post about Nippon when I suddenly hear this plane...wait, that's not a plane that's a helicopter. No That rotor noise is too fast to be a helicopter, it's a drone! It's probably one of these drones used by the government to enforce the lockdown, let's go outside to check it out: Lo and behold, there was fucking nothing in the skies. Just that air raid siren-like sound. But there are no military bases around my area, Recife doesn't have tornado/weather sirens and there are no cars around so it wasn't someone with a car mounted with a loudspeaker warning people to stay in their homes. I rushed back into my room to grab my cellphone to record a video for you guys but it stopped right after I returned outside with phone in hands. I took too long trying to figure out what I was hearing while sitting down, then fumbled for too long with the locked door that leads outside. It happened quite briefly, now that I look back at it. What the fuck did I just witness? If it really was a military siren somewhere, why did they just run it for two "whoooooooooooooomp"s? Exponential rise in Nipponese cases forces their government to declare national emergency >Findings showed in the heat tests, only when the virus was exposed to 92 degree Celsius temperatures for 15 minutes was it totally inactivated. The other two heat conditions, 60 degrees Celsius for 60 minutes and 56 degrees Celsius for 30 minutes, resulted in a "clear drop in infectivity," but with some samples with higher viral loads remaining active. "These results were consistent with previous studies on SARS-CoV and MERS-CoV," they said.

I'm reaching levels of smug that shouldn't even be possible. I read so many Brownzilian normalfag's twatter posts that go

>HUEHUHEUHE, heat will kill the virus easily, nothing to worry about

>hurr durr, Recife's heat kills anything, the coronavirus doesn't stand a chance here

All the prayers and all the rituals, all the pain and all the joy, all the spent

I have to agree, but I can dream. It was suggested by a fellow occultist that what's referenced might be more of a spiritual impact than a physical one, and I had to admit that seemed more likely. Trump's claim is the around Jan 15 the WHO naively took China's word AND THAT ALLOWED IT TO SPREAD.

In reality it's Trump's treason and/or incompetence. He's the one who eliminated the group that would of been on the ground advising on the virus. He gutted all kinds of shit so he could give enormous tax cuts the super rich and pay for a build up for a war w Iran. That's still coming you watch, jeez i mean Biden's done it looks like they give they may give the nom to Cuomo. Trump was even more china centric than the WHO.

If he pulled out funding and tried to eliminate the UN that would be ok but he's not he's just handing more power to China.

It's just odd how everything Trump does helps China and hurts the USA.

Italian here cured from coronavirus tested negative today

My notes translated from 25th march:

right: "in case it it doesn't work"

The worst part is when you can barely breathe

4 inhalations for 1 minor breath followed by 4 exhalations for something like 50 hours

You can't sleep during this

Luckily im 33 oxy saturation 99% so I handled it

Fuck hospitals you go in with one strain of corona you come out with 7 strains

I've included charts showing the daily counts against the running totals to show how the deaths are reducing. I've also included a time adjusted curve overlay, taken from the point where each country had a double digit confirmed case count as the starting point of viral spread.

People underestimate the value of language, specifically that words themselves influence the train of thought. Two different words with the exact same definition can lead to a different decision based on their learned association and how the verbal construction of the word feels to say.

The left change words very deliberately and police variants they dislike, not because they're offended but because certain influential academic elements are purposefully trying to redefine the normal.

There is a world of degeneracy beyond what the average internet user knows. Even those that think they're initiated often aren't.

The left are pushing NOMAP's - non offending minor attracted persons.

Paedophiles.

Furries, otherkin, pups, bestialists, zoosadists (yes, they fuck animals to death and torture them and yes it's real and yes there's hundreds of videos).

MAP's, NOMAP's, lgb dependencies.

LGBTQ groups that intentionally corrupt children for sexual pleasure. Bug chasers and giftgivers.

ABDL's, headmates, tulpas, inflationists.

For a bonus, there's zoosadist inflationists, they literally inflate barnyard animals for sexual pleasure with air until their organs explode.

I'm a glow in the dark and I'm tired of this world. Last year a work colleague brought up Terry when we were all drunk, every single one of us knew of him for years but hid our power level. Since then, we're no longer constrained by the designed constriction of sharing legitimate concerns masqueraded as political correctness.

Hell, even learning another language makes me feel like the culture that is infused with those words makes me think in a certain way.

Just mouthing off words and certain phonemes makes me think a certain way.

We could get into the scifi of "everything is a frequency vibration and that's why Gods of past always had "ohm" or "ahm" sound to them" but that would be pushing it no?

The war is coming, everybody knows the stakes and battlefields.

It might be physical but more importantly it will be more than that, it will be a fight for souls and brains of this world.

>Based on the currently available genome sequence data, we proved that SARS-COV-2 genome has a much lower mutation rate and genetic diversity than SARS during the 2002-2003 outbreak.

>The spike (S) protein encoding gene of SARS-COV-2 is found relatively more conserved than other protein-encoding genes, which is a good indication for the ongoing antiviral drug and vaccine development.

>Genetic diversity analyses identified a single amino acid mutation in RBD of the spike protein in SARS-CoV-2

>Overall, the gene sequences from 118 different samples are highly homologous, sharing >99.1% identity, with the exception of 5UTR(96.7%) and 3UTR(98%), which are relatively more divergent. Sequence alignment showed that there is no mutation in ORF6, ORF7a, and ORF7b.

Since the thread is coming to an end, I think it's time for an outdated

Update on the Brownzilian state of Pernambuco and the city of Recife
Revenge Road Edition You will understand this name soon
Corobella's numbers of blessings and kills are rising exponentially, both officially and unofficially. Like I said in my last update, she conquered the entire state, sure, there might be some countryside towns without official cases for now, but since she's confirmed to be in the rural area so it's only a matter of time. The Goddess broke her official record of kills in a day, a decent number of them were "healthy" and had no preexisting health issues. EMTs are getting their asses kicked too, 98 confirmed blessings in their rank, that's 12% of the force.

Recent Happenings

Flu vaccination campaign going into it's 2nd phase. You're probably thinking "wait what, you never said anything about a vaccination campaign". Yes, because I thought it was irrelevant since it was just the flu bro vaccine, but since there's a big brained anon who thinks the vaccines are making people more susceptible to Corobella's blessing, I think it's worth letting him know: There was and still is a flu vaccination campaign going on in my city, it's been happening since March, which was the first wave. They vaccinated so much people that they had issues with the supplies and many stations ran out of shots. Unfortunately, my father got himself one even after I told him that Burgers were looking into the hypothesis of vaccinations making you more susceptible to Corobella.

Sciencefags at Recife's federal university invent a gadget that measures your heartbeat, temperature and breathing rate at the same time. It's a bundle of sensors connected to a smartphone that works with an app the nerds made. It seems to actually work well and it's quite cheap to make. I'm impressed, to be honest, never expected anything so good to come out of here.

Part two of the update

Rise in violence amid the pandemic and soft lockdown

There's just so many robberies, murders and assassinations going on right now that I'm starting to wonder if the Pernambucan society is reaching it's breaking point. An off duty cop killed a robber, an old lawfag got assassinated, breakins and looting happened downtown, gangs are getting busted and the police is revealing their arsenal of guns and kevlar vests, it's getting fucking crazy over here. We always had high violence but data shows its getting even worse, all of a sudden! Here are Tuesday's notable crimes:

14YO girl gets shot in the face while riding the bus. She's alive but needs surgery, obviously.

Drug dealers go into an assassination spree, killing their targets in a quick succession and leaving behind a sea of brown masses behind that gather around with no PPE whatsoever to look at the corpses.

And Tuesday's night's main event: Recife becomes an extremely low budget version of Megatokyo from BGC and gets its own J.B Gibson.

Obligatory video for this part of the post: <https://www.hooktube.com/watch?v=gL4pxh24TtA>

If you ever watched the 80's anime Bubblegum Crisis, you know who I'm talking about: The vengeful man with a supercar who rams violent bikers off the highways of Megatokyo. Well, something very amusing happened: An Uber driver saw someone getting mugged by a knife wielding cyclist, so he decided to chase and ram that motherfucker at full speed. He rammed that nigger's bicycle so hard that he nearly flipped his car. But the fun doesn't end there! He climbs out of the wreckage, kicks the mugger when he's down and took his knife. Of course, police was nowhere to be seen during the crime but quickly arrives when a badass motherfucker saves the day, and usually with the intention of arresting the hero. You can watch the news about it over here, skip to 31:14 <https://vimeo.com/408198910>. He didn't have a gun and a supercar like Gibson, and the robber didn't have a sports bike and a mini crossbow with explosive bolts, just a bicycle and a knife, but I will be damned if he isn't just as cool as Gibson himself. We're being GPS tracked through our phones, a robot lady from MinHealth is calling our phones to check if we're okay, the police is supposedly flying drones that look for feverish coofers, entry at supermarkets requires a temperature check, crime is on the rise and some people are so pissed off at criminals that they don't mind wrecking their own cars if it means putting an end to their niggertry. We're extremely low budget cyberpunk now, a combination of Car Wars, Cyberpunk 2020, BGC and Shadowrun. And I wouldn't have it any other way. If you haven't noticed it already, I'm a massive fa/tg/uy.

Fuck's sake man, it's so fucking bad that it's hard to explain to someone who just arrived. I think the best way to sum it up is like this: It's very bad in some places already, but not bad at all in other places yet. But the virus crashed the economy so everyone is gonna be fucked in one way or another regardless of infection. Oh, and the NWO is making huge power grabs too. It's bad, trust me. Go read the archived threads by the way, seriously, you won't regret it.

I read some cuckchan this week since Im grocery shopping and decided I stay a few days at my dad's place, I read some cuckchan yesterday, but those guys seem to be just hyping it up for no reason. Im from eastern euro and nothing seems to have changed. Hospitals are fine and death toll is marginal ~140 or so people. Stunks are going up again since we bottomed out. My mom has to go to her yearly thyroid screening to the hospital and she said there aren't many people there. >No offence man, but this seems like SA or Mexico. Shit like this and worse seems to be happening there every single day.

Data shows crime is getting wors and the virus and the economy getting nuked will only worsen the situation even more so. The fact doctors are also being targeted by criminals won't help with the epidemic at all, our muggers are very uppity and shoot to kill at any sudden movement, if they kill a doctor during a mugging, the hospital that doctor worked at will become less effective at treating infected patients. Not to mention that wounded people getting taken to hospitals are at risk of getting infected, they have become death traps like this Pasta said >>96123 after all >those guys seem to be just hyping it up for no reason.

You can trust me when I say they're not. Please read the archived threads. Like this anon says >>96175 , the world will never be the same because of the virus itself and the NWO's power grabs.

>Im from eastern euro and nothing seems to have changed. Hospitals are fine and death toll is marginal ~140 or so people. Stonks are going up again since we bottomed out.

Remember when I said it wasn't that bad in some places yet? You're in one of those places. If your government is not kiked and actually based, your country might ride out this Happening without a health crisis. Economically speaking, you will get hit if your country relies on the Euro or the dollar. If you're in league with the Ruskies, your economy might survive, in a crippled state, but it will live.

>jews trying to shit up the world somehow by overregulating people in response to an otherwise minor threat.

It's not minor, read the archived threads, read the scientific papers. I say this not as a cultist but as an informed anon. (((They))) cooked up a superbug. > Just don't "trust da plan", and you should be fine.

Yeah, we'll see. I only trust my rifle, and that hasn't previously prevented me from being banned.

I still think that there is disagreement and dissent within ZOG, and the Trump-phenomena is evidence of that. Trump and 17-letter-tards are more than just a false-flag shill. Something very unusual is happening within the upper echelons of the kike empire. I was banned the last time I expressed that opinion. I want to discuss it, and have my opinion critiqued, but I'm only free to talk about it on the 17-letter-tard containment board, and the people there drink too much koolaid - all of them "trust da plahn", and critical discussion is impossible.

> Maybe the kikes view their Amerimutt slaves as being more valuable, so (((they))) didn't distribute the cytokine-storm vaccine within MuttLand.

Yeah, maybe. But that would imply dissention within ZOG. Those same (((people))) have been actively working to destroy the Euro-American demographic for decades. Why would they change their minds now?

Simple explanations are preferable to those requiring conspiracy. A conspiracy should only be inferred if evidence for one exists.

We know that the kikes are vying to implement global population control, as there is evidence for it. But there is very little evidence outside of 17-letter-tard shit that there is organized resistance against the kike empire.

Still hoping I don't get banned for asking questions and expressing belief that there is evidence of dissent, as I don't "trust da plahn" or believe that Trump is /OurGuy/.

All I know for certain is that it was kikes who did this, and they must pay.
The evidence does not allow for another possibility.

>I still think that there is disagreement and dissent within ZOG, and the Trump-phenomena is evidence of that.

You're right on about that. ZOGs and the NWO alliance of organizations bicker with each other constantly, which leads to infighting and mistakes that are often used by us for our own advantage, even when we don't realize it. Simple stuff like pushing too hard on shit like drag queens at schools, constantly attacking European identity and just making some people embrace it even more, supporting pedos, etc.

>Yeah, maybe. But that would imply dissention within ZOG. Those same (((people))) have been actively working to destroy the Euro-American demographic for decades. Why would they change their minds now?

I don't think they ever changed their minds, they're designating Burgers for slavery because of demographics, they assume white Americans are going to be bred out by other races and also race mixed out of existence. Therefore they don't view them as threats. Europe might have gotten the poisoned vaccine because they saw what happened when Europeans went unchecked in the 30s and 40s.

>Simple explanations are preferable to those requiring conspiracy. A conspiracy should only be inferred if evidence for one exists.

I just go off my intuition, thoughts coming into my mind from only The Almighty Creator(s) knows where.

>But there is very little evidence outside of 17-letter-tard shit that there is organized resistance against the kike empire.

You're right, there isn't. Yet. Expect resistance organizations to be formed in the next few years. They're gonna be very similar to guerrillas and middle eastern insurgent groups, but they'll fight for freedom and to topple the NWO.

>Still hoping I don't get banned for asking questions and expressing belief that there is evidence of dissent

crime might be bad, it will be way worse than the virus can be if it goes down this way. right now its a mediocre virus here and there is no lockdown, but if they actually lock the country down, 80% of the population will be destitute, since they wont be able to work and there will be no money. its eastern euro, so no chance of any "stimulus check" will happen. meaning mass crime. until they do that tho, i guess it will be fine. virus seems to be very slow here, i have no idea why.

Consider these options and pick the ones that you feel that apply to your country

1-Lack of chinks and foreigners in your country=Less initial patients and spreaders.

2-Your government is covering up the actual numbers because of muh panic

3-Your government is actually taking the right measures such as keeping borders closed and flights suspended. Therefore, low numbers

I disagree. We don't rely on public transpiration over here. We can still pretty much go where we please if need be (maybe sometimes with hassle) but... during a real showdown where it comes to mass rebellion? People are going to arm up and be out and about and can rapidly group together with flags, army vests, rifles and all. In fact, it just happened in Michigan by total surprise and now in Ohio too. THAT is what we will see when things get bumpy down the road, people will just start packing heat and going where they please and assembling. 2. maybe, but someone would have spoken out, and we would notice people dying in mass unexplicably.

3. sort of, but the borders aren't really closed yet, there is loads of cargo trucks coming in and out, they even let truckers in from Italy at the beginning of the disease. also we aren't locked down, 99% of the people are still working and social events are allowed in small groups (can't have any in the thousand people range)

Mass rebellions will truly be the time to shine. Also, Ohio? Gonna go look for footage soon then. What I meant by taking time to assemble together is that there are many militias with diverging political opinions, so it would take some time for patriots, fascists and lolbergs to drop their differences aside and band together into an unified force or a coalition of forces with the goal of taking giga ZOG out.

>He and his family are in about as much danger from voodoo curses and wiccan spells as they are from the virus fairy. The ones who really want to kill you and your family are the ones preventing you going to work, providing for your family and living in a society with a functioning economy.

I think it was a bioweapon engineered by China, and as exposed before, the US Govt under Obongo (NIH) helped fund it. I don't think it's an "end of the world" virus though, and a lot may be hyperbole. I would say it looks worse than any flu though, likely to kill more over the years. This was released to cull and subjugate the population, as well cover-up the huge "economic reset" taking place (global debt defaults).

For fuck sake, the paper-trail is there the chink researchers where into bat viruses since a bat is a natural carrier of viruses.

And this virus is acting as many viruses instead of just one, fuck. The one research paper showed that the lung tissue had coagulation while it fucks with the liver, kidneys and other organs plus neurological damages.

It's not a world ending virus since herd immunity usually comes along down the way but it will be a hard battle.

>what do '''they$$$ gain by shitting up the economy and ultimately weakening their grip on society tho?

A fair question, and one I lack an answer to, not being one of "they". I will note the following:

1. "They" is a false construction. Yes, when you're at the bottom of the totem-pole, everyone above you looks like they are in cahoots, but elites have factions and there is plenty of disagreement, and things that benefit one faction may harm another. The idea that everything that happens must be benefiting everyone in power is false.

2. Some of the people who are pushing this will absolutely benefit, the pharmaceutical pushers, medical power grabbers like Fauci, vaccine entrepreneurs like Gates. Why would Gates care if half the economy goes away? He won't starve, he probably won't be alive much longer (relative to readers of the board at least), and if he's drunk on power pushing this scam will suit him just fine. The people who own media outlets aren't worried about starving, and the people who work for them know their job security lies in not questioning the groupthink.

3. It's possible that nobody benefits in the end. If you're got a fucked up system with fucked up incentives, shit can just spin out of control with no one person or faction in a position to stop it without taking themselves down a notch relative to other power centers. The medical industry is always telling people they'll die if they don't pop more pills and get more shots. The news reporters are always telling people the sky is falling. The politicians are always pushing for more new, harsher laws than the person who will challenge them in the next election. There is literally no one whose job it is to be sane.

4. It's possible that the people destroying the economy actually believe what they're saying. Everyone alive today grew up with a television as their parent. People are so brainwashed into believing anything anyone on TV wearing a lab coat says they really think Fauci can see the future and the models are anything more than a bad guess.

I don't know what the motivation of "they" is, but I do know this: the whole "if you can't explain why someone did something, it means they didn't do it" line is a logical fallacy.

Oh, but that's exactly what's happening, and it goes further than just old books. This is the big game and the winner takes all. Well what you mention is only in the worst conditions, as many people who have caught it and were confirmed having it, never got any of those symptoms. Some get it really really bad. Others it reacts much like a bad flu. Some barely notice anything from it. And now studies are saying after anti-body testing patients with it, some are totally fucking immune from symptoms!

So, it's really a mix, and evidence points to thousands of random mutations too (some really bad, others very mild or less deadly).

I have a feeling that they won't win either. (Armed) Americans are getting pretty fed up now. It really is starting to show. I've already drew my line in the sand: my body, my guns and my property is that line. I'm a very peaceful guy, but I am not afraid to use force if my well being is threatened (by anyone). I think once other people get fed up, and draw lines in the sand, there is only so much the government can do before they end up with tons of blowback and armed insurrection that will make them hide in the military bunkers. If push comes to shove. Lets face it, no one really wants that, but it's a possibility and I think even those insane kikes are starting to realize it too.

Not feeling symptoms is what asymptomatic means, retard.

Also evidence shows that there are so little antibodies from first infection that the reinfection is possible because the body does not see the virus as something dangerous and the virus has a great binding to other receptors.

You're right about everything except this part. It's very much real and causing megadeaths is actually (((their))) main objective. Hang on into that feeling and foster it until it grows out of hand, turn it into faith and adamantly believe it! Such is the way forward. That's a pretty bad bioweapon they released then, likely for depop too. Of-course, that would have to happen during a global debt default because billions of people can't be controlled in such a chaotic event. So they better hope most of us die from it.

As for the impact: economic collapses are just as bad, they too can cause severe unrest, conflicts, destabilization and death from lack of necessities to even regime changes/coups. It is going to get very interesting indeed.

The Coronian State...of Mind

Two threads ago, I announced the formation of the Coronian State, but what is it? A new cult? An insurgency? No, despite the monochrome flag that does mimic IS's but also has it's own meaning, we're not a new cult nor do we claim any land. The Coronian State exists in your mind. I always preached fanaticism and zealously, yet never embraced it officially, it was time to change that. The Coronian State Of Mind is a doctrine of Coronianism that advocates for unwavering faith in Corobella/Corona-Chan, with devotion and zeal placed above everything else except possessing an undying love for her and possessing a boundless hatred for those who oppose her, the Coronian Cult and the Coronian State. Embrace fanaticism, become invincible 50mil doesnt seem so bad compared to some preliminary predictions. that would be spanish flu levels, only the population back then was way less, so its effect would be less significant because of that and automation, economy wise. given that its way deadlier than it is according to the official date. if not then it will probably will be over by august. either way, it will take a few years for the economy to bounce back, but even at 50mil there wont be a complete breakdown i think.

That depends on which fifty million. If it's all kikes and shitskins, the world will be much better. But if it's gainfully-employed boomers, with useful skills like welding, farming, machine tool operation, engineering, etc., then it will cause problems. I'm not arguing that boomers are wunderbar, but a red-pilled boomer is definitely preferable to a Bernie Bro or shitskin.

Yes, and no. It should also be emphasized that the creation of Red Death was orchestrated by kikes and their globo-homo golems. They simply did what they've been doing for years - outsource production to Chinkland. Yes, SARS-CoV-2 came from a Chink BLS4 lab; but no, it was not created by chinks. The kikes get the credit for that one.

It was the kikes. It's ALWAYS the kikes.

Guidelines? Wonder what he means by this. We'll soon find out. If it's all about mandatory vaccines and mandatory "testing" (you'll know they'll push the vaccines by force via "tests") then rest assured 100% controlled opposition, all for the Jew World Order!!

cause problems for sure, but at that point it wont cause a crisis bigger than some poverty for a few years. we will still have the infrastructure and there will be people who know the know how. and train others in those years of depression. even statistically speaking, its most likely that shitskins will be the ones dying the most from this. they live in crowded cities, less hygenically conscious.

I don't care what happens, one thing is for sure: I am NOT taking any "test" and I will NOT take any vaccine! I've been liquidating most of my savings so far into hard assets, physically owned investments and lots of more guns and ammo & DIY preps. If need be, I can go 100% OFF-GRID on EMP-proof solar panels (yes, they cost me a whole lot of money) and can start raising more chickens and expand my garden out. Very close to being 100% self-reliant - not dependent - from the system. ;)

> If boomers with real skills die, it's no big deal.

I beg to differ. Look at the BLI statistics - every year, the average age of welders increases by one year. This means that new welders are not entering the profession. Once they die, their skills go with them. And it's like this with all manner of useful skills. Owing to how the ((education system)) functions, young people are being turned into SJW faggots instead of useful members of society.

Perhaps this trend can be corrected, but not with the current ((regulations and incentives)) being imposed upon industry and education.

> Shitskins and globo-homo hive-dwellers will die disproportionately.

I suspect so, but I'm not convinced. Although I definitely pray for it, every day. Let the niggers eat the faggots, and may we watch the niggers die from anthropophagy-related diseases. May the hive-homos be infected with prion diseases, and may the niggers die from them.

its a big deal, but not end of the world big deal is what i meant. i worked as an industrial plumber/welder got taught by oldschool guys, but have plenty of colleagues. what i meant is that if these boomers die, there will be bigger demand for our skills, but we will train a lot more guys in a few years and im guessing the same will happen in other industries too. suddenly out of need, SJW faggots with humanities degrees will have to become farmers, welders, assembly line workers, truck drivers, mechanics or starve.

One would hope. But it's also a question of what the world looks like once things stabilize. Are we all getting ((microchips)) implanted under our skin? That's a distinct possibility, but I seem to recall that China has a large crypto-kike population, and they wield an enormous amount of power within the CCP. Sorry, no sauce.

I think it makes more sense that the kikes are doing more than just knocking-down the chinks. (((They're))) also trying to consolidate their gains. The red-pill movement is growing, and time is running out for the kikes. (((They))) must cement their power now, while they still have the upper hand. I suspect it was a miscalculation to release Red Death, and I ponder the impetus for their rash actions. Why does the Giga-Kike feel that (((he))) is backed into a corner?

> The kike-state opened the door

They did more than that. Kikes provided the industry to the chinks, (((they))) provided funding, (((they))) provided tech, (((they))) provided biological samples, (((they))) provided personnel, (((they))) provided everything the chinks needed. Everything, that is, except competence. Commie-Chinks are not capable of competency, ever. Jap News anchor goes to work while sick, spreads only the flu bro around <https://www.straitstimes.com/lifestyle/entertainment/japanese-news-anchor-yuta-tomikawa-reports-for-work-sick-tests-positive-for>

Do not go to work if you are unwell. It is a message that has been resonating through the coronavirus pandemic.

Well, Japanese newscaster Yuta Tomikawa obviously did not get the memo, as he turned up for work sick in the days before he tested positive for Covid-19 last Saturday (April 11).

Tomikawa, 43, is the main news anchor from Monday to Thursday at TV Asahi's Hodo Station. His case has sparked a backlash as it was disclosed that he felt unwell as early as April 3, when he had a fever of 38 deg C.

He was still sick on April 4 and told his producer he would see a doctor the next day, a Sunday, though he did not do so in the end as he felt better.

He returned to work on April 6, but viewers noticed on April 7 that his voice was hoarse and he was coughing at times during the news broadcast.

While climbing the stairs on April 8, he had trouble breathing, but went to work the next day. Finally, on April 10, he saw a doctor and was tested for Covid-19.

He said in a statement from the hospital that he did not know where he could have got infected, as he had not attended any gathering nor done outdoor reporting since late March.

Ted Cruz intro's legislation to ease our reliance on China, that sounds pretty good.

Oh now we'll be relying on Israel. That's all Cruz, Lindsey Graham and rubio know how to do, kiss Israel's ass.

According to the proposed bill, named "Expanding Medical Partnerships with Israel to Lessen Dependence on China Act," the Secretary of Health and Human Services could invest up to four million dollars every year from 2021 through 2023 in bilateral programs and grants related to the coronavirus. The proposed budget would cover cooperation on technology such as artificial intelligence, sensors, monitoring devices, drugs and vaccinations, respiratory assist devices, diagnostic tests, telemedicine and remote monitoring. It's good, but the implication that China is an example of healthy nationalism is laughable. Both China and ZOG are predatory and should be opposed, and I see the fomenting of anti-chinese sentiments as something to be exploited rather than fought against.

>The anti-China stuff is a zionist operation to direct attention to the external.

So? You can't focus on external and internal problems at the same time? And besides, it's only partially a zionist op, a majority of the swelling opposition to china is because of that thing that has us all in lockdown. That china made in their biolab with the help of JEWS. Gosh, if only we could exploit that fact to drag jews into the blame. Also people are rightfully blaming the globalist system for spreading Corona, not just China for inventing it, so we're already seeing the situation benefit ethnic nationalism.

An increase in explicit xenophobia (which is what Corona has done so far) results in a greater prioritization of one's own people (partly due to elevated oxytocin levels). I expect this jewish plot to backfire spectacularly. It wounds the global economy further, which also drives people into the arms of ethnic nationalism if you'd studied your history.

>You don't really [care about whites]

You don't have the IQ to help whites. You are so focused on what is and isn't a jewish plot that you've forgotten your loyalty to your own takes supreme priority.

Calm down, okay? We already know that operatives like him were involved in the radicalization of Breivik and others. They have a whole system of dogma.

But it's upended, we have the disproof forever of the idea of chinese superiority (their lab fucked up, a first in "gain of function" research). World first, like landing on the moon, only instead fucking up the whole world.

And we have eliminated the chinks as any source of help or aid - where is their aid to the US? Essentially nothing. For example, if I need a mask, I have to make it myself. China isn't shipping them to the shops in the US. And there's nothing but death the world over.

From communism.

Communism has killed more whites than any other ideology in history. By the kike ideology of communism. And here he will tell you china, controlled by an atheist religion invented by the kike karl marx, will save you. Yet here it is, look around you, are things normal now? Where the fuck is the normality? Where is the glorious help of china, after they fucked everything up? Nowhere are they to be seen at all, go outside and look!

And respecting chinese influence, the chinese also radicalized for their own purposes (they wish guns banned so that they can make the land invasion and communist control bully scheme work through their white sellout spies in the us and the west generally) the El Paso attacker, who sucked chinese cock, and also the Christchurch attacker, he also perfectly aligns, as it goes forever, with chinese goals, objectives, values, and schemes.

You're interpreting what I'm saying as support for communism. It isn't. Whatever you think China gets up in the "West" is possible because of internal conditions that the people who want to point you towards China don't want to alter. And that's because we are ultimately their main adversary.

No, I'm not falling for YOUR playbook. You want us to do what? Bitch and moan about fine little details and change nobody's mind, that's what. Because you can't stop the elite from doing this shit by pointing out that jewish interests are involved anymore than pointing out the truth about Greater Israel stopped wars in the Middle-East. I want us to make the most of the situation by turning it into tangible metapolitical gains and shaping White minds to be more conscious of reality, which you also can't stop me from doing, thank God. My path creates shit like the "Epstein didn't kill himself" meme which normalized the idea that pedos control America and killed Epstein to cover it up. Your camp is the one saying "he's alive in Israel because if you'd just look at his nose and ear in these pictures..."etc. Which path benefits whites more? Which stratagem generated greater results?

So what you are saying is that the whole anti-china effort is nothing more than a smokescreen to take attention away from the failures of pro-zion globalism (which many normalfags seem to be figuring out for themselves)? Why not expose it all and properly inform the people of the role that the jewish state and its activists? Why not inform the people of the jewish connection to the Wuhan biolab? Why not point out that Chinese apathy was exploited by the jews to create the "perfect" fall guy? Where the jews knew that the Chinese would create a biolab in a Chinese city (in this case Wuhan) using substandard building techniques (there is plenty of evidence of that online). The result of which was an inevitable failure of the containment facility where the pathogen then spread because of chink apathy. Always remember not to call it Israel but the jewish state. Keep the word "jew" on the front of people's mind. That way when they do their own research to refute you, they will discover their own red pills.

Reminder that the best red pills are the ones that are discovered.

With a somber tone of voice, Bolsonaro delivers a speech to the country where he announces a new minister of health. I watched this nearly live. He sounds like someone in his family just died, this failed state's situation must be that fucking bad. Key points of his speech:

>Had to change the minister of health due to serious and constant disagreements over the quarantine lockdown and expanding cloromeme treatment.

>Warning the population that the R$600 Corona-Gibs won't last forever, the government is spending billions and billions helping poorfags negatively affected by the lockdowns.

>Tells the population the federal government tried to do things reasonably but governors and mayors were too brash and took disproportionate measures without contacting him and the federal government first. Says if anything bad happens to their state or city, it's the local government's fault.

All signs point that the new minister will be his yes-man, no offence to him intended, as I don't know the man that well to make such an assumption, but that's what my intuition says. Bolsonaro took too long to take such a measure, if he really wanted to open everything back up, he should have just done so without alerting the SFT to his plans, it was like truthfully telling an enemy how you'll attack his armies. Meanwhile, the Corona-Gibs is being expanded to cover even more people and will fuck our retarded economy even harder. This country is dead and Corobella didn't kill it, ZOG did, not much of value will be lost though.

So when are we all going to admit that this thing isn't actually that bad? That most people probably already had it with no issues? That it isn't bad enough to warrant a dystopia future where we literally live in pods and eat bugs. Have any of you guys actually gone grocery shopping? I don't think the ethnic nationalist awaking or whatever dream you want is going to happen. From just my anecdotal evidence most people are just going to do whatever the state tells them to do. My local grocery store had lines taped on the floor. You enter the store at a specific time (mask and gloves) and you have to follow that line to do your shopping. When I went shopping I'd say about 80-85% of people actually follow the line and do as they are told. The remaining 20-15% step out partially or ignore it completely. I have a stockpile of masks and other shit I have prepped. However, I haven't even really touched any of that stuff. Apparently there are a ton of cases here. I'm not buying it. Half my medical worker friends aren't working because it's the worst pandemic in history. So naturally we send home paramedics/emts, nurses, and other hospital staff home. Only one nurse I know is working directly with china virus patients. She's busy and stressed but she was always busy and stressed. She's an ER nurse in a major urban location that's also near a nigger ghetto. The closest hospital to me (about 3-4 miles maybe) was one of the busiest trauma centers in the nation. Every gunshot/stab wound gangbanger or heart attack obesity golem nig within 300 miles was sent there it seems. Now it's empty. Maybe a few coofers here and there but that is it. Neighbors are calling the cops on each other for walking dogs, riding bikes, etc in groups. Have a large family? Cops will be called. Whether they actually show up is unlikely. People are just blindly trusting authority and sucking more government cock than ever. Even here I see people post information where the author's name is literally as kiked as Shekelberg like it is some sort of gospel. Please everyone, just remember the basics. If it is illegal to question something, question it. It is probably a lie. If you are not allowed to question something, it's a lie. The prevailing media narrative is almost always a lie. Big news now is this virus is bad, you cannot question it, trust the scientists goyim. See my point? We never trusted these people before. Why start now? Oh right... six gorgillion coughed or something. I went to a museum here, they had a pile of used N95 masks. Each one represented a baby that had to be turned into a bar of soap after coughing to disinfect the hospitals for emergency circumcisions.

You seem to be drawing all the wrong conclusions from the information you have available. There arent any gunshot and stabwounds because the niggers are locked up inside, just like you. Not every nurse and doctor is working, because they expect a heavy fallout of medical staff and need backups. The nationalist awakening has already started; the borders are closed, products from other countries are suspicious, no more niggers being spread across Europe, the refugee centers have a lot of infections but people openly dont care - any attempt to talk about Africa or refugees, at least in my nation, is met with a scoff; Why help them, before we help ourselves?

>The economy is crumbling

So people finally ponder the question where all these printed dollars and euros come from

>'non essential' workers stay at home

Companies find out they dont need 80% of their workforce; and the people working notice it too >people listen to the government

They have always done this, and ive never met a fascist who has any problem with authority at all. But its definitely not unconditional obedience, certainly not in the lemmings. The system is stressed.

>The virus is a hoax

If the holocough is a hoax, well find out soon enough. Ive regularly been made fun of for saying the biggest wave will come late october.

<muh two weeks

Well yes. I have no unhealthy fear of death, but i dont flirt with it either.

>People call the cops on you
This is out of jealousy, not safety.
>You are not allowed to question it
You are allowed to question the deadliness of the virus, the thing your apparently not supposed to ask is: Where did it come from?

Good morning dear readers! It's a gloriously beautiful day, the sky shines like gold as it's illuminated by the sun. The bees have come out of their hive and are pollinating the flowers previously kissed by the hummingbirds. Such simple sights gain new meanings when one's heart is filled with faith and love for such a powerful entity that's purifying this world. The CNS will now resume tracking Corobella's progress and the aftermath of her divine actions. May great pain and misfortune fall upon those who affront her!

Imbued with a renewed love and respect for freedom and liberty, proud American patriots demonstrate on the streets against the unconstitutional lockdown of the country <https://archive.is/NnEI0> End the lockdown and let Corobella work freely! Wear proper PPE, take the necessary precautions and trust her judgement!

'''Second leaked video from a Brazilian hospital: The João Lúcio State Hospital in Manaus, Amazonas, has been completely overwhelmed. At one point the nurse or doctor filming this walks into a room says "there are 14 obits". Not sure if she means just in that room alone or in the entire hospital. May the Goddess's thorough purification of this country continue until there's no one unworthy of living left!

Disorder in Manaus's cemeteries as multiple burials happen simultaneously which contributes to the formation of large gatherings and gravediggers work without PPE Profaners who call themselves scientists deliberately administer overdoses of cloromeme on 81 blessed patients at the Delphina Aziz hospital in Manaus. <https://archive.vn/TYehU> Lo and behold, the treacherous curefags and sciencefags show their real character! These are the so called "people" who allegedly want to help you and your loved ones if you get infected and head to the hospital. Do you trust them with your life, dear readers? They are willing to go to any lengths necessary to get credited with being the ones who "cured" Corobella's physical form. They have no respect for their patients lives at all, if someone told them rat poison can cure the virus, they definitely would test the hypothesis on YOU.

china is run by different yellow kikes (make no mistake they're not the good

>this thing isn't actually that bad

That's false, to say it's not that bad. It's not bad, period. It's not even a nothing burger, because with a nothing burger you at least get the bun. They're taking people who died of other things, and they write "covid-19" on their death-certificates. Then they send some labcoats into the TV studios to talk about numbers and the idiot normalfags eat it up and think the sky is falling. It's an accounting trick.

Think about this logically: everyone who they say died of chinkflu-19 had at least one other disease. And most people who are infected with the virus do not die. These two facts mean that this virus is not sufficient to cause death. There's literally no evidence that anyone has ever died of this virus. If we were consistent with the logic used to justify this mass hysteria, we should be testing sick and dead people for water in their cells, and then concluding that water is causing the disease. "These dead people all tested positive for water! Sure some people can survive water, but think of your grandmother and panic!"
THERE IS LITERALLY NO EVIDENCE ANYONE HAS EVER DIED FROM THIS VIRUS

I hate watching this beta cuck trying to defend the bughive.
Shit, this is good news that the bugs are actively trying to covering it up, since then governments are watching this as an act of war.
Unlike the drunken Ukrainians/Slavs in chernobyl they actually tried to do shit when they realized how fucked things where going to be.
The bugmen are so fucked economicaly and bet they realize this. The other bugs are not going to do business with the eldar bughive since it dangoures to do so, one has a second thought of when will such shit happen again? And are the on time produce really worth funding such things?
It's a stroke of great bad luck. In other words

>There arent any gunshot and stabwounds because the niggers are locked up inside
You missed my point. Normally busy hospitals are empty, yet the media says they are on the verge of collapsing? That they are overworked. The reality is that they are not. I just used niggers as an example because it adds flair. For disclosure, I live in America.

>Not every nurse and doctor is working, because they expect a heavy fallout of medical staff and need backups

Maybe. Most likely not since that would require a lot more coordination than what is apparently going on. Apparently the scene is chaotic and everyone is scrambling. But they also have the discipline and coordination to rotate staff and put aside a reserve? Occam's razor, the simplest explanation is usually the most correct. The hospitals don't want to pay these people to stand around doing nothing. Because that is what they were doing. Standing around doing nothing... during the worst pandemic in human history.

>So people finally ponder the question where all these printed dollars and euros come from

Yes. I saw people questioning very closely the other day as they scrambled into wal-mart to buy shit with their trumpbux.

>Companies find out they dont need 80% of their workforce; and the people working notice it too

Probably true for the minority of companies that can have a stay-at-home workforce. Doesn't mean suddenly every company is going to be a lean mean fighting machine. This is how I know you've never worked in a corporate or some sort of business environment. There are two types of workers. The people who just want a check and people who want to climb the ladder of management. As people get established in their jobs they start carving out their own little corners, little empires. In these large corporations there will always be middle management hiring people who aren't entirely useful.

>If the holocough is a hoax, well find out soon enough.

I doubt this event is going to shed any new light on the holohoax. If anything it's giving (((them))) a chance to move the bodies so to speak, hide evidence.

>Ive regularly been made fun of for saying the biggest wave will come late october.

Ya I'm getting really tired of the "just wait 2-3 weeks bro. Peak is coming." I remember last month that middle of April was suppose to be a massive sweep of death. I hear that on TV, I see the numbers moving across the screen. With my own eyes. In my major metropolitan "hot-zone" locality. Nothing. Speaking with my hospital working friends, not much. Looking outside hospitals in the "overflow" tents. Nothing.

My profession is risky. I ride a motorcycle, that's a risk too. I go hunting, I take a boat out to fish in the ocean, I go to the hardware store in the spic side of town... I do a lot of activities that statistically put me at a higher risk of death or serious injury. All of those could be construed as flirting with death. Especially by some of the more eccentric members of our albanian canoe carving forum. As it appears to me and even by some of the numbers I don't even believe. My chance of dropping dead as a coofer is about the same risk. So to me, all of the martial law measures are a complete over reaction.

>people call the cops on you out of jealousy, not safety

Maybe, but I think it's because they are conditioned to living like cattle that are scared. They are probably jealous that there are people who don't obey orders, something they could never do. But I think it's mostly because they now feel they are part of something bigger than them. They've never done anything with their lives and now they can help #FlattenTheCurve by narking on neighbors.

>You are allowed to question the deadliness of the virus

suggest this is a nothing burger. That we should just continue as normal and accept grandma might die around the national life expectancy. That some people will get sick but the chances are most won't. People will freak out. They will get angry, they will accuse you of all sorts of nonsense. Even worse is if you claim this is fake. That is my point. Question the prevailing (((media))) narrative on the Talmud-Vision that we have to #StayHome #FlattenTheCurve #SocialDistance etc. Question why hospitals are empty, why it may not be as bad as it is or suggest maybe we just live with it and you'll be treated almost like a holocaust denier. Especially if you suggest the virus is fake entirely, which I am not doing. That is not my point. You have to be the judge of that yourself. I just think it's a nasty flu that's being used to finally squash everyone with impunity. On the bright side, a lot of people are asking where did it come from. Which is pointless, no one will ever know. Even if presented the truth, there is no way to believe it these days.

I agree with you. I'm just inclined to believe some regular healthy people have died from this somewhere. But that is to say because regular healthy can and do die from the flu every year. A major red flag is that hospitals are getting money for reporting china wu flu deaths. So there is an incentive to say the triple bypass diabetic senior citizen with a flu died from this thing. Especially now when they've essentially had to shut off all their business so staff can stand around doing nothing. Not only is this an accounting trick, there is also a marketing trick here. Imagine if (((they))) just took the normal flu season and renamed it "Super Eye Ball Bleeding Airborne AIDS." People would panic. Which is I think exactly what has happened. Most cases are just the flu. I do think there is a good chance the virus is real for a few reasons but I've got nothing concrete. It's a judgement thing. I don't think my opinion on that is better than yours. Anyway, China started this thing to clamp down on their people. That's what they do. They spun a tale to get the west with the help of government agents to shoot themselves in the foot over this thing. Even Israel is getting bent over this. However, I think whatever plan China had with this has backfired.

Working the 80m band of HF radio this morning. I had a conversation with two people in different ends of the country. Both talked about how construction of cell towers have rapidly increased in the last few weeks in their localities. One is rural and the other is semi-rural. Make of this what you will, but the more towers you can reach. The easier triangulation is. Saged because it is partially off topic, but surveillance is becoming a big part of this kung flu story.

The Western civilisations stopped believing in this horseshit 300 years ago when phlogiston was debunked and the foundations of modern chemistry began. We have since then split the atom and performed fusion.
It amazes me that such retardation exists in the era of the massively parallelized information collaboration. Then again, the majority of chinkys live in the rural dark ages and are gaslighted into becoming bugmen.

Truly the most amazing of all scientific achievements, but what about people's religion and spirituality? You can have all the technology in the world, but without something higher to believe in, there will always be a hole in people's lives. TXT news anon here, this guy makes some really good points. I'll be too busy to post more news today, but this is one video anons should watch.
The gist: it took around 50 years to build this system of Globalization (Just In Time Delivery System based on Supply & Demand) and because of this bioweapon less than a year to wreck havoc and demolish that whole system.
It is going to take a long time, with a lot of chaos and unrest, followed by hard work and skills to get back to a semi-normal system (if we ever do!) The current system (now in demise) of Globalization was every fragile to begin with. It was a house of cards if you will.
Now we need to start making major preps to survive what is coming, and be able to start turning back to local produce, farming/ranching, mining, milling, welding, machine/mechanical repair, refinery etc. This will create a lot of depopulation to come simply for the fact most people are not ready for what is to come, do not have any skills and are 100% reliant on the current system of Globalism which is now under free-fall collapse world wide.
Needless to say: liquidate your savings and get prepared for very, very hard times to come. Arm up and strive for self-sufficiency the best you can!

> Just a "no", without argument or exposition.

Well, I didn't give any sauce, so I suppose a simple "no" is all I earned. I looked it up, and it appears the (((official))) numbers don't support my position, no fuck it.

Kikes are universally motivated to destroy other cultures, so it makes sense that (((they))) would seek to destroy an uncooperative China.

Too many variables, not enough data.

I guess the big unknown is: was this just a Chink fuckup, or did the kikes cause it to occur? And if the kikes caused it, what is their end-goal? Why did they do it? To take down the CCP? To rescue their waning Ameri-Empire? To consolidate their power and openly force a singular globo-homo government upon the world? What is (((their))) next move?

It's obvious that individual kikes were involved, like (((Soros))), (((Lieber))) and (((Plummer))), but the specifics are elusive. Irrespective of their conspiratorial nature, it's also possible that the kikes involved provided assistance for (((their))) own selfish motives. There might not be a kike conspiracy, yeah, right, no fucking way. Could it just be a run-of-the-mill chink fuckup, and the kikes are now making the most of it? Nah, can't be. They planned this shit - Event 201, ID2020, and the ready-to-go Israeli (((vaccine))) are proof of that.

Dammit, I want some answers. At least the board is not presently being shat upon by shills.

>Rata contagiosa

I disagree, I think doctors should stay in the hospitals during an outbreak the size of what Spain is going through. Many people, even well off, live in apartment blocks, often with shared swimming pool. Many families live in these buildings which sometimes can house more than 1500 people. Imagine having a family with small children and having to go into an elevator and through a lobby and into a car park, worrying that maybe last night, that doctor was too tired to follow protocol before inside his home, and didn't wear gloves or a mask inside the elevator, or coughed etc.

During the Spanish flu, men would wear protection as much as possible and go off to the factories and often stay there, sleep there. Others went back home but were isolated from the women and children safe at home. This limited contagion and spread (and having a single provider with sense of duty and sacrifice for a family also didn't crash the fucking economy).

A Spanish doctor or nurse, with the poor and often reused PPE they have, is a walking corona hive. Isolate them. And put a fucking alarm bell on their iphones to warn others in the vicinity, instead of tagging the whole population.

The notion of "human rights" is an anti-concept intended to destroy the proper concept of rights as agreements persons of a nation make to respect each others freedom of actions and freedom from interference necessary to live as Man which subsequently are encoded into law with formation of a body politic created to protect the desired freedoms. Those who assert natural or divine rights theories are indeed metaphorical faggots due to wrongful philosophical ideas.

Depends on the deal. If they're offered near total freedom in context of a republic purposed toward protecting their freedoms, then they'll happily spend their lives defending such a State. In such a State dueling would be legal if performed according to proper etiquette, so kike-SJW-globo-homo-feminazi adherents would have incentive to expatriate and bug out, and money would be gold and not be backed by surety collateral of labor.

Maybe a Randian libtard, but there is much crossover between nationalism and libertarianism in the US. I would be quite satisfied if I and my people were free, while the kikes and shitskins were left to their own slavery. "Freedom for me, but to hell with thee."

Most "libertarians" just want to be left alone, which is compatible with volkish nationalism and patriotism.

This is a logical fallacy. Yes, the numbers are being inflated for political purposes. But no, this does not mean the SARS-CoV-2 virus is not real. Perhaps it's not very deadly to das Volk, or maybe it just takes longer to kill. More data is required, but it is demonstrably clear that the virus is real.

That's not how National Socialism works, on the contrary, productive individuals are rewarded! The perfect combination of capitalism with socialism, taking the best parts of both systems and throwing away the bad ones. And it's all imbued with a strong nationalist spirit that encourages people to love their nation and their land. Take the NatSoc pill today and embrace third positionism!

Then, when the times is right, you can teach your followers that most of the loominutty are actually jews. The evangelical browns here in Brownzil already know about the loominutty so all I have to do is teach people about kikes, I have been successful so far.

>But if (((they))) try to put chips in the people around here, it will mean dead (((cops))). I do not plan or conspire, I simply predict.

Yes, I saw the article in the last thread, and saved the pic (attached). Funny shit. Funnier still, everybody in Mutt-land already carries a GPS tracker with them. Fucking KikePhones.

> Burgers will be slowly boiled, and will inevitably get chipped.

Possibly. But most of the burger-niggers I know are already one-short-step away from open warfare with ZOG. The lockdown has them pissing vinegar, and mandatory vaccines will put them over the edge. Even my boomer father, who's a Trumpian and former green-beret, is saying "this isn't America anymore." People are getting really close to being 100% fed-up. I can't wait for the fun to begin, so I can watch from the safety of my home.

> Gauleiter Brazil-Bruder degrades himself with an unfitting sobriquet

You've been Brazil-Bruder to me since the single-digit threads, and I recognize that you've also attained a field promotion, Gauleiter. But if you insist, then OK, BrFAG. I need to go through the last thread and see where that transpired. What to do next

I agree that red-pilling people is necessary. But I'm also aware that using the term "Illuminati" will backfire in my AO - that's a term only used by "conspiracy theorists" around here. The process will be different for varying demographics, so adjustments will have to be made as-needed.

The most difficult step will be convincing ZOGbots that they should physically resist (((their masters))). It's also the most dangerous, as even suggesting the idea will land a person in gaol.

My technique has been to point out the need for warfare against (((foreign hostiles))), then demonstrate that their chain of command is in league with those (((hostiles))). I once made a room full of veterans hold their heads in shame, after convincing them of how hopelessly criminal the federal and state officials are, and how they've been helping (((them))) commit crimes, making all the vets guilty of being accessories. I called them all cowards, and none of them had the balls to look me in the eye and deny it.

I wish I was wealthier, so that I could offer a larger hoard of supplies to my local LE. But I'm also still hoping that things don't spiral out of control, and nobody misses any meals.

Also hoping that hydroxychloroquine works, even if that makes me a curefag.

It can only be described as divine signs, two miracles in a row. Check towards the end of the thread. I did not choose to be called BrFAG, neither did I ever asked for it, it just happened while I was archiving a very amusing article from Peru. There's no way in hell that's a coincidence, Kek is real and so is Corobella-Sama and Nergal. The truth is nearly all deities are real, most of them have just gone dormant, waiting for new worshipers to wake them up. They're created and powered by us but also vice-versa, the omniverse is weird like that. > But I'm also aware that using the term "Illuminati" will backfire in my A0 - that's a term only used by "conspiracy theorists" around here. That's a bummer but I can agree with you, the redpilling process does vary from culture to culture.

>The most difficult step will be convincing ZOGbots that they should physically resist (((their masters))).

True, I guess the most effective route would be to point out that they're acting against their own people and that they're not gaining much in return for doing that.

That works too, good job.

>I wish I was wealthier, so that I could offer a larger hoard of supplies to my local LE. But I'm also still hoping that things don't spiral out of control, and nobody misses any meals.

We all wish we could do more for our people, even me and my family wish we could help out a poorfag friend that is in dire straits, but alas, we can't do much other than hiring him for some tasks.

>Also hoping that hydroxychloroquine works, even if that makes me a curefag.

By the power and authority invested in me by Corobella-Sama, you're hereby absolved of the sin of curefaggotry. I understand how you feel. I still think cloromeme and medical solutions are a bad idea, except drugs that can treat symptoms with relative safety, these ones are okay. My recommendations will always be staying healthy, staying safe and avoiding infection by wearing proper PPE and taking the necessary precautions and looking into spiritual and natural solutions, including somehow acquiring immunity. It will eventually happen among the survivors selected by the Goddess to rebuild civilization and restore it to it's former glory.

It's not biased for Russia/China at all. It is accurate. Striker hits the right notes every time and it always susses out the jews among us. Every time, without fail. All of the West's problems are internal. The system constructed in the West by a hostile parasite demands attention to be focused to the external. If you don't want to have to be dependent on China - don't move your entire infrastructure over there in the first place. But if you don't move it, you can't attack your main adversary: the historical American nation [this means White people if you can't figure it out].

> Good news about White-burger-niggers being on a hair-trigger

I'm not sure if it's good news, but it's happening. What the politicians don't seem to understand that it will happen quickly. Once the line is crossed, there is no return, and we will have nothing left to lose.

> BrANON things his sobriquet came about as some sort of sign Reject magical thinking. The only God is Logos, and His power is "reason".

Don't be a kike-nigger - magic isn't real, and gods cannot be worshipped into existence.

> Bummer about using the term "Illuminati"

It's not a bummer, it's just reality. ZOG operates under many names and identities. Leveraging the most recognizable one is a no-brainer.

> ZOG-bots operating against their own people

They don't see it that way. The kikes have ausgerottet any sense of cultural identity they held, and it's only the influx of Untermenschen that has rekindled identity within die Jugend. It will take time, but we will recover.

> Hires a poorfag for some work

I used to do that more often. But I've found that here in Muttland, poorfags remain poor for a reason - they're degenerates. Wealth, from the viewpoint of our starving ancestors, is accessible for anybody willing to shoulder responsibility. All one must do is show up on-time, sober, and one will have success. At least, that's the way it is here.

> Practicing preparedness and anti-degeneracy will absolve one of curefaggotry sins.

> Fugging your own race

Sex should only be legal between married people or European descent, and marriage can only exist between a XY man and XX woman, for life. All other forms of coupling should be crimes.

Yes, I had a dream about that. I foolishly committed the sin of DreamPosting, and was rightfully banned for an hour, but it was a good dream. I got to kill the Giga-kike by ripping its guts out with a Wolfsangel. Es war einfach wunderbar.

Yes, but the bugmen didn't attain their current position unassisted. The chinks were uplifted by the kikes. Without the meddling of men like (((Kissinger))), the Chi-Comms would have continued to eat each other. The chinks are just golems for the kikes, much like the yankees once were.

Yes, in five billion years the Red Giant that was once Sol will dump the vestiges of its corona and transition into a white dwarf. >Besides, how much better-off would the ecosphere be if all heavy industry were moved into space? Space has lots of resources to use, and exploiting them would only have a positive impact on Earth's life.

Good point. I still believe we don't need as much industry as we use nowadays, but yeah, it would be a good idea regardless. Though sadly industry in space would be pretty damn difficult to achieve, even if by "space" we mean other planets.

>Sex should only be legal between married people or European descent

Gotta disagree with this one. One, sex between unmarried people isn't bad per se, it's "misuse" of extramarital sex that creates problems (though I am aware that such an impression is quite natural, seeing the situation in the West).

Two, I don't know about you, I'm personally not a fan of the gov't trying to regulate my life. Interference of any officials should be kept to absolute minimum. People need to be free - they need to be allowed to make choices, and they need to be allowed to feel their consequences, and that last part is where the Westerners went wrong. This has led to people forgetting that real freedom is inherently linked to responsibility. This also means we are not allowed to learn from mistakes we make. Obviously, those on top capitalise on and encourage this state of affairs. In short, we live in a loop where we pay the toll in our freedom for being protected from the consequences of our own actions.

>In less than 5 billion years the sun goes boom.

There has never been a species that existed for this long, and there's no reason to think humans will be one. In fact they are one of the less likely candidates for this title, owing to their relatively complicated and inefficient biology.

>We don't want to imitate the mindset...

I've got no clue as to what kind of mindset makes an individual willing to roll about in an animal carcass, but I fail to see how it could possibly be related to one which inclines them to practise reasonable use of natural resources and reduce their impact on the environment.

> Chloroquine, or hydroxychloroquine, and the kike hegemony

A thought occurred to me. If chloroquine is an effective treatment against Red Death, yet the red monkeys have not deployed it against the blessings of /OurGal/, it stands to reason that the rail-hopper decision-makers are onboard with the yahoodi globo-homo depopulation agenda. This dispels the possibility that ZOG is eliminating uncooperative bugmen, and instead suggests that the Bamboo-Coons are also being incorporated into (((their))) golem population.

A prevalent theory behind the release of Coronachan is that the celestials were getting uppity, and the oven-dwellers decided to cull them. But the usefulness of chloroquine dispels this possibility. The panda-eaters will do anything to attain their goals, even using drugs that are not FDA-approved.

It could be claimed that the rice-niggers didn't know about the efficacy of chloroquine against SARS-CoV-2, but it's been known since 2005 that chloroquine works against SARS-CoV (sauce attached).

<https://virologyj.biomedcentral.com/articles/10.1186/1743-422X-2-69>

The CCP leadership would have definitely tried it, and would have used it en-mass if they had genuinely desired to arrest the outbreak.

The fact that they didn't suggests that the CCP is a puppet of ZOG. But that only holds true if curfaggotry is merited, and hydroxychloroquine (or chloroquine) works. Evidence is mounting that hydroxychloroquine does work, sauce available upon request, that equates to evidence that my latest hair-brained theory holds water.

> Industry in space would be hard

Yes, and TOTALLY FUCKING WORTH IT. Constant high-flux solar power, free vacuum chambers, high-grade ores within asteroid bodies, rare earth metals sitting around everywhere, more room than could ever be needed, and NO NIGGERS. Sounds like paradise.

> Misuse of extramarital sex

Extramarital sex is malum in se, not malum prohibitum. Sex provides for the creation of children. Human children require extended care. Extended care is a byproduct of marriage. Therefore, marriage is required for sex. But if one accepts that niggers, and (((other demographics))), are not human, then it can be argued that care is not required. Marriage is not necessary for animals.

> Doesn't want the government to regulate his life

Me either. Also, I should confess that I led a life of sin before meeting my wife, and I admit my wrongdoing. I'm just glad that my philandering did not produce children, lest they suffer.

But you've made the mistake of a statist, and have assumed that "government" is necessary to enforce social norms. Rational humans do not need a government to impose the institution of marriage.

Agreed. Another reason why government should not be meddling within people's lives.

> Freedom and responsibility are the converse of one another

Are you a Heinlein fan? Sit in on any lectures from Mr. Dubois? You're making sense, fren.

> No species has ever lasted more than five-billion years

He wants you to go back to work so him and jew owners of capital can see their capital grow at your expense. They don't make their money - you do. The best thing for White Americans is that this economy and country take the biggest, worst hits possible. Dr. Streetshitter just wants a useful golem that can be leveraged against Pakistan and China, which is his problem not ours.

Anglozionist and Hindustani capital's interests are not our interests.

We're here in /cvg/ 51, and I see only mild consensus around the idiocy of Trump, not much else about the virus being agreed upon.

Can I ask:

>what the fuck do you think this is????

Is it an intentional bioweapon? A virus that was enhanced in the lab but only accidentally leaked? Just a nicely evolved coronavirus?

I have consumed just about all the easily-accessible information you can about this and I STILL don't feel like I know anything.

>But our progeny absolutely could last that long.

In principle, yes. They would be probably classified as a different species, but yes.

>If a fucking microbe could occupy Earth for 4 billion years with its babies, we can manage 5 more

Sounds like biology ain't your strongest suit. Any microbe has way higher chances of survival as a species than any highly-complicated organism such as the human.

>and should want them to last even longer.

"Should"?

>Besides, neglecting any hope for the future is nihilism

>and embracing the death of all your successors would mean that there is no point fighting for them

Well guess what, the world's gonna end sooner or later, there is exactly 0% chance it won't, so according to this logic you can just as well give up now.

>>96731

>Maybe it's just me, but that statement defies reason.

There are several explanations for this. One, most mundane, and most important for noobs, is that when you tell muggles about magic and muggles laugh at you, this lowers your self-esteem and confidence in your skill, thus effectively weakening your magic.

Another one: in general whatever is internal or internalised influences us more strongly than what's not. If you push your emotions into your unconscious they can change your entire life in ways you will not even be able to explain. I recommend Jung for details.

There are other reasons, but they are both really difficult to explain and really difficult to understand, so let's leave it like this for now.

By the way I don't fully agree with the notion that magic has to be kept secret, although it certainly helps. And of course there are very materialistic, pragmatic reasons why you may not want others to know what you're up to.

I don't know if that's a good answer, but I can't come up with anything better right now, sorry.

>Sex provides for the creation of children

Sure and I couldn't agree more about the need of the children to be protected and have both parents taking care of them. Thus I'd agree with you if this exhausted the problem. However there's a catch: having sex != having children. (Guess that should be enough of an answer, but people tell me I'm sometimes too succinct, so here's more:) Even if for whatever reason you are against using condoms/contraceptives, there is literally lower chance of getting pregnant than not getting pregnant even at the most fertile point of the menstrual cycle. With a bit of planning you can have perfectly "safe" sex even without using any external control methods. And I'm literally certain the statistics dramatically underestimate the actual effectiveness of both timing-based and external methods, the former because folks gotta be scared into spending more on condoms and pills, the latter because people are morons who misuse them. Most importantly, this applies even if you only have sex within wedlock, because getting married doesn't mean people stop having sex for non-procreation purposes, and in fact sexual intercourses are, at least for most people, necessary to maintain a healthy relationship with their spouse.

>Are you a Heinlein fan? Sit in on any lectures from Mr. Dubois?

Nope, I've only ever heard Heinlein's name, and not even that much about Dubois, sorry.

>Rational humans do not need a government to impose the institution of marriage

Yeah, I know. I also know that few humans are rational. Of course we are both mostly theorising anyway, so I'm assuming the same :P

>There are many things that no species ever did, until we did them.

Fair enough.

>Surviving past the heat-death of the universe shall be another such thing.

This would be a violation of the most fundamental laws of physics, so I'm gonna go with negative on that one.

You cannot prove this. We've seen limited circumstances where Laws of physics cease to apply (and are therefore not actually Laws), and it is incredibly naive to assume that entropy is somehow a special certain exception.

> Lots of thread sliding

You should totally put on your wizard hat and cast some spells in traffic. I'm sure that your magic is strong enough to conjure a portal to another dimension, but only if you do it in the middle of a busy freeway. At night. Wearing black. With your back turned to oncoming traffic.

> Having sex != to having children

I think some kikes broke your boolean operator. Sex is meant for procreation, and nothing else. The pleasure of sex is meant to keep married couple together, lest they separate and cause hard to the children. Ergo, the pleasure is a mechanism of procreation, not a means for having fun.

> Heinlein, and his character Lieutenant Colonel Jean V. Dubois

Go read Starship Troopers, by Robert A. Heinlein. In it, Col. Dubois spends a chapter explaining that responsibility and authority go with one another - they are converse to each other. It's why citizens in the book get to vote, because they suffered for it. An excellent novella, serving as the fount of much modern SF, only way better than anything (((Paul Verhoeven))) could ever direct.

> Knows some humans who are not rational.

I argue that beings lacking logos are not fully human, and not deserving of recognition as such. Niggers don't count as human because they are incapable of reason, and kikes don't count because they rejected it. To that end, they are not to be treated as equals.

> Limits himself into thinking that humans can't figure out a way to violate the "laws" of physics.

And yet, you're arguing for the reality of magic. The laws of thermodynamics may have a loophole, and we will find it if it's there. The heat death is a loooooong way off, and much experimentation can be done between now and then. Einstein-Rosen bridge?

>The laws of thermodynamics may have a loophole

Fun fact! We're already exploring theoretically sound ways to sneak past the 2nd "law" of Thermodynamics, too! Quantum physics is just the next in a series of discovery waves in which we prove "oh, guess that thing we thought was impossible actually wasn't." And we've still got billions of years. I really want to know what kinds of data we could get out of proper black hole experimentation, because I'd bet that violates a bunch of standing assumptions too.

It's a bit more complicated, because if we crash the economy it's going to cause massive death, internal conflicts and chaos. And recovering would take over a decade, not just a couple of years. Most the younger folks are brainwashed by the kiked 'educational system' and have 0% skill needed to re-build a society or even survive for that matter. The ones who were taught such skills are getting old now, so them dying would cause a shock to the nations ability to ever recover again. The country would be divided and likely have to remain under military control, much like other failed third world nations.... the risks of imposing a full-blown economic collapse are staggering. It would certainly cause more damage than the current bioweapon that was released. By the way, this bioweapon was not released to 'end the world', it was released to loot what was left of your savings and force you into a new kiked system!

Well they've been doing that the last 40 years and have made massive profits doing so, so I wouldn't say it hasn't worked for them. However, they may not be in full control over domestic affairs but they still do influence via bribery and usury. China is doing similar to what the US is by pumping all that debt into their markets trying to stabilize things over there, and as usual it's not working out too well. Well their gold and industrial base is their safe haven, but China could quickly collapse back into the third world if not for the current central banking fiat ponzi schemes which they do rely on to inflate their massive bubbles. China just has a safety net in reserves, whereas most other Western nations no longer have. I think that is why the US government is in such panic over China. Our system would become so much more unstable if it were to face full-blown collapse today. China on the other hand could recover within the next decade easily via utilizing their reserves and other means of trade.

Not today perhaps, but if China were to face a collapse they would utilize gold reserves to start a slow recovery. As far as their own affairs the Jews don't really care as long as they can keep exploiting China to extract and consolidate more wealth. This is part of their whole cult really, to exploit other nations as long as they can get away with it. When they are faced with fiscal problems (as they are now) they'll flee to other nations to continue the same usury racket. That's how they stay in power when they fuck over nations with their Keynesian system of fraud and insolvency.

Too early to tell, but we'll see. So far the Black Death leads the charts, at 1/4 of the entire human population. Unless you define impact only in terms of economy; that one thing is way more unstable bloated? now than before, so it may be already worse. Assuming "worse" is a good term.

>You cannot prove this. We've seen limited circumstances where Laws of physics cease to apply (and are therefore not actually Laws)

Never heard of these and never will. It is incredibly naive to assume anything that may appear to break the laws of physics actually does, and, separately, that anything like that can happen indefinitely on a universal scale.

This is the keyword, though I wouldn't expect you to get it. Anyway the short answer is, they didn't break any laws.

BTW, how do y'all decide whether a random source on the internet is trustworthy or not? Just asking, because people in here talk a lot about this subject, and this right here looks like a rather indiscriminate pick.

>>96774

>"Lots of thread sliding"

>ask a question

>complain about it being answered

>reply with something that shows lack of good taste and not merely zero understanding of simple psychology but also no will to learn it though honestly... I should've seen it coming

>Sex is meant for procreation, and nothing else

Your brain is meant for finding food faster than your competition and nothing else. Metals are meant to be constituent minerals of bedrock and nothing else. No animal is designed to live in space, humans notwithstanding. Talking about space-colonisation and about what is "meant" to be in the same sentence makes you sound silly.

Yeah, exactly. We evolve, we change our objectives, every aspect of ourselves changes. What was a billion years ago is no more. Why, then, would the purpose of sex not change along with everything? Hint: there's no reason to assume this at all and quite a few to the contrary (and none hinge on anyone's personal beliefs), but I'll let you think for yourself for once.

Oh, and guess what. Many animals appear to have sex for pleasure. In fact, if it were only meant for procreation and securing offspring's survival, there would be no pleasure involved in any of this, because there are other, simpler ways to control it. You could for instance have a direct uncontrollable drive that would force you to have children and provide for them.

Also even your opinions on any of this don't change the fact that it is perfectly possible to have sex for fun without having children, regardless of how puritan your - or mine, or anyone's - personal opinion on the subject of morality of such behaviour.

>Ergo, the pleasure is a mechanism of procreation, not a means for having fun. You sound like you're not having enough fun in general, maybe you could try this. Or anything else, just quit sitting on this site, it's clearly not good for you.

By the way, I take it that once your children are old enough to live on their own, you stop having sex forever, as you don't have to avoid breakup now that your marriage doesn't have a biological reason to exist anymore? And please don't tell me about life-long support or anything like that; it was not originally supposed to be a thing and only appeared comparatively late in history.

>Niggers don't count as human because they are incapable of reason

One, the category of irrational people most definitely includes whites, and a lot of them. Two, I have personally talked to blacks that were smarter than most people I know all of whom are white, for the record, though I suppose personal experience is not reliable enough for you. Well, that's hardly my problem. Come to think of it I wonder how many people in here are black.

And they still somehow control those oh-so-much-more-reasonable whites? Most peculiar indeed.

>And yet, you're arguing for the reality of magic

And who ever told you magic was supposed to break the laws of physics? Or did you just - gasp - assume it without referring to a reliable source?

All questions asked here are obviously rhetorical, both because I don't have any more time to waste, and because expecting relevant answers from anyone who presumably feels (or doesn't feel, depending on emotion handling, but it doesn't change the result) offended would be pointless (if you're one of the more reasonable anon's, I'm sorry, but I won't be able to answer). Pointing out just in case.

Aight, it's been fun mostly from a psychological and sociological perspective but we're reaching flerf-levels of logic in this thread. I'm gonna go do something productive for a change, so no interruptions anymore, I'll let you guys have fun with your coping mechanisms in peace. See y'all.

Good advice but who would be so retarded as to try to kill pathogens firmly lodged in the filter matrix. The outside of the filter is potentially a fomite so don't be butterfingers with your technique for doffing and donning again. Spray disinfecting your mask is possible without wrecking the filter electret. But even the N95 chad may be vulnerable to statistical outlier airborne viron nanoparticles.

Good evening, my dear readers, the CNS will now resume it's operations on this pleasant night. This update will be large so it will be split into two posts. To avoid derailing, each post will include two news related to the main topic at hand.

News from Portugal: The (((government))) has extended the state of emergency until 2 of May. This is the third time it has been extended. They're preparing to progressively relax the quarantine lockdown in order to eventually go back to normality.

Brownzil registers 3257 confirmed blessings in 24 hours. And that's just the official bullshit numbers, folks. Imagine how many there actually are!

>I'm not sure if it's good news, but it's happening.

The reason it's a good thing is because this battle is inevitable and people need to turn their indignation and rage into a burning inferno of a fighting spirit.

>Reject magical thinking. The only God is Logos, and His power is "reason". Don't be a kike-nigger - magic isn't real, and gods cannot be worshipped into existence.

The signs I have gotten tell me other wise, my wonderful friend. I respect your beliefs and so does Corobella, she doesn't like anons bickering over religion and she actually likes many other belief systems. In the end of the day, all that matters is having an undying love for nature, beauty and justice. The rest sorts itself out. You might not believe the same things that I do but all I'm gonna say to you regarding the metaphysical world is this: Never forget that you have nearly unlimited amounts of power that you can call upon, all you have to is believe it with all of your soul. The light inside of your very being and your ancestors will guide you. There's a tiny galaxy in nearly all of us, and that's what give us power.

>But I've found that here in Muttland, poorfags remain poor for a reason - they're degenerates.

There are a lot of poorfags like this too, and I really mean a lot. This one is different though, he's a bumpkin with some European descent. He's not quite white but his skin isn't brown either, it's like a tan, his eyes are brown instead of black. He stays away from degeneracy despite living surrounded by degenerate slum dwellers and he's a very hard worker, his only mistake was race mixing. Other than that, he's a great lad who's just very unfortunate. He's not stupid either, just uneducated, one can easily recognize his potential after spending sometime with him and watching him work.

>Sex should only be legal between married people or European descent, and marriage can only exist between a XY man and XX woman, for life. All other forms of coupling should be crimes.

Pretty based mindset, I would extend that legal status to other highly civilized races though. Like the Nips, for example. Ah the Nips, so much potential, ruined by ZOG after they were defeated in WW2...But I have faith that they will rise again.

>Yes, I had a dream about that.

A divine sign, a reward for your unwavering faith in Logos.

>Fuck that, the stars await.

Not just the stars but there's just so much life out there, waiting to be met. So many different races to interact with, to learn from, to trade with. But unfortunately, many evil races as well, there's a lot of war out there. But that's just the way this omniverse is, conflict is a constant element in it. To struggle is to live. What we must do is take the lessons we learned from our mistakes on Earth and never forget them, to make sure to not repeat the same mistakes again after expanding into outer space.

>Kikes must pay; someday, somehow, (((they))) must pay.

The day is coming, the final battle is inevitable. The factions that truly represent justice shall be victorious.

>General complaints about thread sliding

I can agree with that but the problem is most anons can't into multi-topic discussion. I can easily contribute to the main topic at hand while discussing other things.

Bolsonaro is helping the few gun owners in the country in times of uncertainty and an increase of violent crimes amid the pandemic. I don't really understand what he did but apparently it eases registration and tracking of firearms and ammo. I didn't see this coming at all, maybe he really is /ourguy/. But I'm still wary of him.

Nipponese hospitals are nearly getting overwhelmed by Corobella-Sama.

<https://archive.is/340mx> I have said this before but I will say it again, the Nips are being tested for their worthiness. Decades of being under ZOG influence has corrupted them to a certain degree. I have faith that they will survive and come out of this crisis stronger and healthier than ever before.

>Come to think of it I wonder how many people in here are black.

I'm a light brown/bronze-ish Hue. Black eyes and black hair. My family had some Spaniard genes but most of that got overwritten with nignog and native genes. I really like my native side, though, despite not knowing much about their culture and not worshiping native deities. My favorite part about native culture has to be the body and face paints, such beautiful designs and patterns!

Greetings Coronian Archivist, I hail your presence ITT. I haven't gone to /ebola/ tonight but I will soon, I hope that you heeded my warnings and decided to repent for the sin of circulating negative memetic content. No, that's not a threat, It's just an honest statement, I cannot control the curse that I launched upon so many enemies, it's like the metaphysical equivalent of a carpet bombing campaign.

>I felt obsessed with this girl through my archiving though, but isn't it bad to be obsessed with an entity that will kill you and your family? I think that's fucked, but I can't help it

Your obsessive love for Corobella is not a bad thing and I guarantee she will not remove you and your family from this mortal world as long as she deems you to be worthy of living. She loves the pure and the just. Of course, not working against her will also gain her favor, and when you archive negative memetic content, you work against her. Please my brother in faith, heed my warnings.

They only brought misery to this world, so the last I can wish is that Corona purges the wicked. Like I said on the bunker, I invoke power from beyond at the exchange of my own energy and even the property of my own soul rather than actually doing stuff "people" such as ((Marina Abramovic)) do. No darksacrifices here, just me giving away my spiritual freedom in exchange of keeping the tidal wave of enemies at bay. I guess I should further explain my reasoning to you on why I hate negative memetic content so much: Aside from liberating negative energy and undermining the positive energy of Coronian Cultists who see it, by archiving sacrilegious pieces, you're making it easier for our enemies to find them and spread them further throughout the internet. That's why I hate the fact you're archiving them so much, if you let them be forgotten, they will slowly fade into obscurity and eventually be left in the darkest corners of the world wide web. I hope you can understand my reasoning. I know the path of the Coronian State of Mind is radical and fanatical, but I keep receiving divine signs that I'm on the right path.

That's the least of worries, Corona should be defeated first for people to start spamming those images. And frankly with all the damage that has been done, she has already won. The damage to the economy is three times more wreckless than the 2007 crash, three times the unemployed in america. A world living between two swords, the economic collapse, and the virus. Choose to fight one and the other will kill you.

So you do understand the potential evil you could unleash with your indiscriminate archival. There is a lot of sense in your words, my brother, but I urge you to not be so cocky and imprudent. I too believe Corobella-Sama has already won and all that's left for her to do is to pick and choose which of the blessed ones die and which ones live. But I still believe we should behave like the spiritual war still rages on and hasn't been finished until the very end. Plus, my point remains, they're just sacrilegious and tasteless. I once again reinforce my request to you, hear the voice of reason that's coming from someone who has accidentally predicted a meteorite and got the archive.today URL "BrFAG" while archiving the news of Peruvian clowns asking for government aid while playing around with a bundle of toilet paper. Start discriminating and only save positive pieces.

>does it really do anything or is it all coincidental? is it just inhibiting the viruses ability to travel to infect different parts of my body but not actually helping to fight the virus?

According to sciencefags from previous threads, yes. It doesn't defeat Corobella-Sama's physical form but prevents spread through your body. My religious take on it is that you are worthy of living and she's just hurting you to make sure you'll become stronger. And please, don't use the stupid name the literally WHO came up with, use SARS-COV-2, wu-flu, kung-flu, chink virus, and other joke names.

>boiling facemasks to kill virus

That's a good idea and would probably work to nullify the virus particles, tenacious such that they are. But I think that prolonged immersion in hot solvent would discharge the electret that modern respirators use to filter 30% of particles.

Contaminants are socked-in hard to the filter media and can't be dislodged. You will never clog your respirator and time will disinfect viable SARS-CoV-19 so don't worry about washing it. Just be careful touching the outside because blobs of virus slime might transfer to your face via your hands.

If you want to decontaminate the outside, just use enough alcohol to make it damp and dry it somewhere warm. Better still get a reusable mask with covered filter pods.

I Kek'd heartily at banecat, but down with the chinks for torturing such a nice animal for the pic.

Beef plant in Dakota City gets visited by Corobella-Sama

<https://archive.vn/8Hn6P>

The Ruskie corona-hospital being built in the outskirts of Moscow has been finished 95% of all beds meant for blessed people in the northeastern Brownzilian city of Recife have already been occupied.

No one really cares about the quarantine lockdown in Brownzil: GPS tracking of phones indicate that even more Hues are leaving their homes. It's the second week of reduction in the number of Hues staying inside.

Speaking of Brownzilian GPS tracking: Federal ZOG rules that all data has to be sent to the Brownzilian Institute of Geography and Statistics and that it cannot be given or sold to anyone else. I doubt an Hue who works at IBGE would refuse a large sum of cash for the data, though.

Sure but since the economy is so globalized they've also taken a hit.

The bughive has taken a 7% GDP loss from last year and last year is when the bughive had economical problems to begin with.

So I'm seeing this and I bet that allot of businessmen don't want to deal with China since the price is too great in a sense.

They liked China for it's stability but when shit like this can happen and the bughive government does not report such things to these big businesses they might pull and find other places.

But that is my speculation tough.

Also the bughive numbers are fake, no one knows how many died in the hive but it's certainly allot more than what they are reporting.

A small news segment from Luxembourg, or Richfagbourg as newposter likes to call it.

As other Eurofag nations, our government has decided on slowly easing up on the cockdown to prevent major economy assplosions.

I have a comment on this:

>implying immunity to CCP-SARS-2 happens - plenty of viral infections never result in immunity and can reoccur indefinitely >implying immunity to CCP-SARS-2 doesn't result in the immune system going haywire upon reinfection - as it happened when they tried to create SARS-vaccines

What, I ask, will our incredibly "benevolent" and infinitely "wise" governments say or do if/when they find out that their plans on making the cattle immune results in a large portion of the population being dead men walking?

I have the feeling there's going to be a lot of wars in the next years, both civil as well as "traditional" interstate wars. This coalition VS Chinkland will be one of them. Tactical nuclear warheads might be widely used, or perhaps ICBMs will be used a couple of times, just in key locations. After much of the world goes to rubble, the NWO steps in to implement it's one world government "solution" to everyone's problems. They will reign for a decade, facing small insurgencies and rebellions that eventually spiral out of their control into full scale civil wars, they will start losing territory until there's only a small ZOG region left. That place will be the site of the final battle on Earth and the war against (((them))) will be known in the history books of the future as The Last War On Earth or The Last War Among Humans.

>implying immunity to CCP-SARS-2 doesn't result in the immune system going haywire upon reinfection - as it happened when they tried to create SARS-vaccines

It's definitely true that herd immunity right now and vaccines are bullshit, but the real survivors will eventually develop immunity, for they were judged by Corobella-Sama to be worthy of living.

>What, I ask, will our incredibly "benevolent" and infinitely "wise" governments say or do if/when they find out that their plans on making the cattle immune results in a large portion of the population being dead men walking?

They'll most likely say nothing and try as best as they can to cover up the amount of deaths and blessings. Trying out the herd immunity strategy is asking to become Guayaquil. But the silver lining of it is that it actually works, only the real survivors would be left alive.

What about all the foreign money that kikes can bring into China? The power that kikes wield external to China has purchased them power within China. It's the same way they infiltrated Europe during the late middle ages, by leveraging their access to Ottoman wealth, and the same thing they did to the US in the mercantilist er, by leveraging their access to European wealth.
All kike power derives from their practice of usury, and the resulting access to wealth that provides. Take away the ability for ANYONE to play tricks with paper that's why it's "currency" and not "money", and the kikes will starve.

What idiocy. Using a cotton mask is no better than taping a sock to your face. I was informed enough thank you, denizens of /pol/' to purchase real respirators and P100 filters prior to the panic. But if all I had were some disposable N95 masks, I would definitely prefer sanitizing with heat and reusing them after lightly spraying the exterior with a solution of ascorbic acid. >Corobella

Her name is Corona-chan. I'm not accepting your attempt to force a meme based on one facebook cunt's schizo rambling. The structure has over half a decade worth of memetics poured into it, and Corona-chan has had her name since day one. You might as well drop the wings and hair capsids if you're going to screw about with that.

Witness the despair Corobella-Sama can inflict on a population: Anger and desperation at the Alvorada and São Raimundo emergency hospitals in Manaus, capital of the Brownzilian state of Amazonas

First clip:

>Are you seeing that? He just had an interview, an irresponsible, shameless medic like that. Then he (the patient) died. Can you see the confusion that's going on here because of this son of a bitch. Irresponsible bastard. Are you seeing this? Son of a bitch...son of a bitch. Are you seeing that irresponsibility? How the people are treated here? Cowardly, clownery, people are treated this way.

>Guy in the background: SON OF A BITCH, SON OF A BITCH [unintelligible] FROM HELL.

Second clip:

>Fucking hell, are there no medics in this motherfucker? How are there no medics? Fuck!

>Bro, help that guy, the guy's feeling bad, how are there no medics?

>HOW ARE THERE NO MEDICS?

>This is an hospital!

Good day, my wonderful friend.

>but the younger generations might be willing to drink from the fount of truth. Indeed, they didn't earn the nickname "generation zyklon" from some anons and other redpilled people for nothing, after all. Turns out having a meaningless life in a kiked modern world can leave some young people really open to new ideas.

> I don't think I disagree with your conclusions, just the path you took to reach them.

I'm glad we could reach a point of mutual understanding.

>Remember that Unser Seliger Adolf wore a simple uniform, even as Führer, but Himmler wore every ostentatious decoration he could, having never seen combat. I never paid attention to this detail, that's pretty interesting.

>Sauce, please.

Stuff I used to read years ago and my intuition. Such things can't be proven as of now, unfortunately. Only time will tell if the things I have read and my intuition are correct. I strongly advise anons to regard alien sightings as a product of project blue beam until proof and evidence of alien life is presented. I might have my beliefs but I know the kikes want to exploit it, so it's better to be safe than sorry. But I really feel like there's another world of politics up there in the stars. New friends and foes probably await us.

>I really wish you and I could go get a beer, and shoot-the-shit about anything-and-everything.

That would be sweet. I don't drink alcohol though, I would have a glass of juice.

She certainly doesn't mind having both names, but it turns out that one cultist's friend was right, I get a far stronger response using that name than Corona-Chan. The surges of energy that I feel by calling her Corobella during my prayers are powerful enough to give me jolts, I never felt something like this before. Not to mention the amount of signs that I'm receiving after adopting that name. I'm not forcing a meme or advising other cultists to do the same, if you want to try it out, go ahead. But if you feel more comfortable using the name we assigned her, keep doing that because it's perfectly fine, she doesn't mind at all and she does respond when I call her Corona-Chan, just not as strongly as the name she calls herself. We're all in this together, my brother in faith.

>The kike-sucking ZOG-bots still think that oven-dwellers "are our greatest ally". They've been brainwashed for generations. I have no hope for boomers, but the younger generations us boomers out there who know about the Jews and their Jew World Order, and are against their fraudulent central banking system of robbery and usury. Please don't discriminate between ages: there are many younger people who would flip out if you told them the truth as well. It takes incremental "red pilling" to wake most people up, you have to slowly open up their minds or they'll disregard you as a kook or extremist. That's just the sad truth, due to, like you said, years of brainwashing. I too had to go through phases in my life to wake up to the threat of kikery.

<https://www.wired.com/2016/11/china-used-crispr-fight-cancer-real-live-human/>
>DO YOU REMEMBER President-elect Trump holding forth on the campaign trail about "China beating us at our own game"? Well, it's true, as long as the game in question is editing human DNA using Crispr/Cas9. China is now using Crispr-edited cells in living, breathing human beings.
>Last month, Chinese scientists at Sichuan University injected cancer-fighting, Crispr-modified white blood cells into a patient suffering from metastatic lung cancer. It was just the latest in a line of recent firsts for the People's Republic of China, following on the heels of the first Crispr-edited monkeys in early 2014, and the first Crispr-edited human embryos last May.
>So there it is, Mr. President-elect: Are you going to let China win the race to edit humans?

Truly a 'race' that China is excelling at as we can all see, at this point. CRISPR edited human embryos and monkeys; how the fuck could anything goes wrong' with that? Nothing could go wrong...obviously.

Corona-Chan spells doom for Apefrica as she causes protests, riots, food shortages and deaths across multiple failed states <https://archive.vn/UXT41> So anons, have you already chosen what kind of crops you will grow in your farm over there after this series of Happenings ends and the New Golden Age arrives? There's going to be plenty of real estate to go around and the land is fertile. Lions chilling out on the road in SA, since there's barely anyone driving through them anymore. Very cute!

That's true, the supply chain issues are already presenting themselves in some sectors such as the ((pharmaceutical)) and medical sectors. And countries that decide to lock their borders and airports down will have a much easier time than ones that don't.

"Truthfully, I was always searching, afraid to stare straight ahead. It's only because you're here that I can face tomorrow. Don't be scared, no matter when."

"We have the same dream" Within that shine, We walk closer to each other, so that we don't ever get lost." "With that wandering eye, I stared at the chaos around me." "Truthfully, I was always requesting, I want to find a place where I can rest with my heart and all." "When I met you, everything became clear, My heart began beating passionately." Point taken. Not all people are the same, but certain demographics do tend to congregate around a mode. Id est, stereotypes exist for a reason. I try to give people even niggers a chance before making judgements about them unless they're kikes.

> Boomers can be transition away from the brainwashing, given time.

Probably, but once a boomer gets to a certain age, change is likely impossible. My boomer parents have a hard time believing bad things about cops, even when shown video supported by witness testimony, and physical evidence, of those very cops murdering innocents for the Clintons. Fucking Malheur.

>This would be a violation of the most fundamental laws of physics, so I'm gonna go with negative on that one.

The question is what actually does survive and if it belongs to the material plane that is bound to experience life and death, the eternal breathing. Also, nothing theoretically precludes the ability of building bridges between close realities, so as when you'll move the way out, something would move the other way in, essentially avoiding the violation of the laws.

>It's still not too late for folks to call-up a farmer/rancher and buy a steer. We're waiting for our local butcher to be available (in another week-or-two), at which point he's going to come out for a field kill. Another whole beef (probably 1000lbs), to put next to last-years leftovers (maybe 300lbs of beef), and two hogs (farm bacon is better than corn-bacon).

Where are you going to store all that meat? Do you have large and numerous enough freezers? What if the power grid vacillates for weeks?

>Other teams, from Japan, Italy, and the US, have duplicated their results. The poos correctly sequenced /OurGal/, and came to correct conclusion.

Me being blindfag, can't see nor remember where these similar reviews were posted.

>None of that stuff is possible in nature. Not individually, and especially not all at once.

Of course the Israeli lab just conveniently got veerrrry lucky when working on a vaccine that-would you believe it-almost matched covid-19, all before the outbreak even started.

>We still don't have good data on the lethality of the virus. All we really know is that it's a weapon, it's loose, and the (((official numbers))) are a lie.

It spreads well, it might affect more than lungs, it might stay inside the lymphatic system or wherever technical sounding place it could find a bunker, but the lethality of this virus is not so mad.

It's absolutely a great heist to grab our wealth, push more of the world's resources into the big companies which are more and more managed by kikes or minions, also funded by big shareholders who have the same proportion of kikes within their ranks, while forcing us to print more shit money and increase the debt even more which we will be forced to pay... instead of a real jubilee and taking the money out of these fuckers' coffers. We were very generous in 2008, why could not they be with us now?

>But if hydroxychloroquine works, for which evidence is building, then we need to use it and get back to work

It's not a totally fantasy drug either, there are averse risks with its use. (And now I wish I had saved the page that detailed these issues).

It might be possible that we're being pushed into a false dichotomy, with kike group A going for the full pandemic+vaccine narrative, and kike group B trying to make this a total non-event and use of chloroquine in an almost miracle-like fashion.

Yet, going by what happened in Iceland, none options seem to be correct, and letting that bioweapon do its job is actually showing how not so dangerous it is despite all efforts in making it a true monster, simply because they never had the chance to actually try it for real.

>Also the bughive numbers are fake, no one knows how many died in the hive but it's certainly allot more than what they are reporting.

Yeah because, on the other hand, the numbers published by the ZOG are certainly not exaggerated? Between the people who die of something but are declared dead of covid-19 and the elderly people who are put on an unofficial death list and who get a (((treatment))) so that they actually get to die when they could have actually survived?

>HIV-Discoverer Says Corona Could Only Have Been Created In A Lab
>Professor Luc Montagnier, 2008 Nobel Prize winner for Medicine
>In 2009, Montagnier published two independently made, controversial research studies, one of which was entitled "Electromagnetic Signals Are Produced by Aqueous Nanostructures Derived from Bacterial DNA Sequences." It has been said that, if its conclusions are true, "these would be the most significant experiments performed in the past 90 years, demanding re-evaluation of the whole conceptual framework of modern chemistry".[6] The paper concludes that diluted DNA from pathogenic bacterial and viral species is able to emit specific radio waves" and that "these radio waves [are] associated with 'nanostructures' in the solution that might be able to recreate the pathogen" sounds looney but
>In 2009, Montagnier became involved in a legal battle with inventor Bruno Robert over the intellectual property rights to the techniques used in the aforementioned research.
>In July 2009, the court ruled that Robert's 2005 patent application was 'fraudulent', because it had subtracted all of Montagnier's contribution, which the court estimated at 50%.

Singapore closes ALL McDonalds operations for 2 weeks

>SINGAPORE: McDonald's Singapore will suspend restaurant operations in all its outlets from Sunday (Apr 19) until the end of the "circuit breaker" period, it said in a press release.

>This move - which includes drive-through and delivery services - goes into effect from 11am Sunday, and comes a day after the fast food chain announced the suspension of takeaways.

>Drive-through service will end at 8am, and the last order for delivery will be at 10.30am, it added.

OH FUCK. Situation in Japan worsens. Emergency care collapses. Sick people turned away at hospitals

<https://www.japantimes.co.jp/news/2020/04/18/national/coronavirus-japan-hospitals/>

<https://the-japan-news.com/news/article/0006377597>

>Hospitals in Japan are increasingly turning away sick people as they struggle with surging coronavirus infections and a collapsing emergency medical system.

>In one recent case, an ambulance carrying a man with a fever and breathing difficulties was rejected by 80 hospitals and forced to search for hours in downtown Tokyo for one that would treat him. Another feverish man finally reached a hospital after paramedics unsuccessfully contacted 40 clinics.

>The Japanese Association for Acute Medicine and the Japanese Society for Emergency Medicine say many emergency rooms are refusing to treat people, including those hit by strokes, heart attacks and external injuries.

>Japan initially seemed to have controlled the outbreak by going after clusters of infections in specific places, usually enclosed spaces such as clubs, gyms and meeting venues. But the virus outpaced this approach and most new cases are untraceable.

I did, some threads ago. I also like posting news of white recoveries that look legit. Panic won't help anons and their people with anything. The correct course of action is analyzing how bad the situation is and prepare for the future battles that will surely come.
>And there was another post on this same thread about how racial makeup influences immunity to the virus, and so Canada refuses to make any studies about it.
This! I have noticed that over here in Brownzil, an overwhelming majority of the recoveries are whites or people with lighter skin tones. They're mostly female, too. I'm not trying to say whites are immune, that is clearly bullshit, but it seems you guys have a higher chance of "deactivating" the virus and just become a dormant carrier after going through a symptomatic period then recovering. Of course, I only believe this happens in the bodies of those who Corona-Chan deems worthy of living.

If I was trying to create panic, I would try to blackpill everyone here by saying something like <It's over, the kikes have won, they created a virus that will kill everyone and everything, they destroyed the world.
But no, I preach material, spiritual and emotional preparedness for a turbulently chaotic and violent period, but one that will end with the birth of a New Golden Age for civilized races. Like I have said, I'm one of the few people in /cvg/ who posts news about recovered whites, I have posted news of a sweet grandmother from either NJ or NY, a few white Brazilian seniors and the most recent was a 24YO doctor from Manaus who returned to her job as soon as she got better. I preach hope for whites and for the Japanese, I meme and joke to elevate the humors and morale of any anon that's feeling down. Does this look like the work of someone's who's trying to spread panic to you?
I'm nothing but Corona-Chan's/Corobella-Sama's High Priest, and my message is one of hope for the future. >this looks like something a student who doesn't really grasp how serious the situation is would do.

It looks like this is being done by the general population thinking that discarding gloves without proper hygiene before entering their own cars will keep them safe.

As for our government, they are just pissing all over our people right now. After locking down most of our population, closing what they consider non-essential businesses which lead to the rise of bankrupt small businesses and unemployment, and forcing the cancellation of all major events, they are going to assemble at least 130 people on our parliamentary building to commemorate the 25th of April, which is the anniversary of the coup that took down our fascist government. Our centrist and right leaning parties refuse to take part in it, but they are the minority.

There is also an online petition with over 64000 signatures demanding the cancellation of this event, which fortunately shows that not everyone is willing to put up with their bullshit, and that has left our commies seething, so they created their own petition in favor of our government which only has 8000 signatures.

Don't worry, the EU is going to start reopening their countries in the followings and we will see how smart that is. I honestly hope that shit doesn't hit the fan, but most evidence leads me that it'll just be a repeat of late February and early March.

Peruvian doctor exposing precarious conditions at an hospital in Lima <https://archive.is/NkPWm>

>There are no more ventilators, there are only four of them. These are our working conditions. The directors and ministers don't manifest themselves, don't say anything. And us hospital workers are working in these conditions, no supplies, using the same gowns and masks for 24 hours.

That's what I could pick up. I don't really like Portuguese but if there's one thing I do like about it is the fact that since it's a romance language, Portuguese speakers can somewhat understand other languages of the same family and vice-versa.

Pernambuco to start arresting and fining quarantine lockdown violators. I really doubt this will be enforced, especially in poorfag areas. If they do try to enforce it, chimpouts are guaranteed to happen.

Director of the São Raimundo Emergency Hospital in Manaus succumbs to Corona-Chan's blessing. Yes, that same hospital from that video with a bunch of Hues pissed off at a doctor.

Brownzilian Leader of the (((evangelical))) base of the chamber of deputies got blessed. Considering the fact that they are a bunch of neocons who worship Pissrael at their feat, nothing of value will be lost when Corobella-Sama removes him from this mortal world. By the way, I would just like to point out that the name of the journo that wrote this article is Evandro Éboli. Meme Magic and a divine sign, Ebola-Chan will make a full scale comeback soon.

Brownzilian hoaxniggers don't understand how the virus works.

>We need a voluntary lawyer in Sorocapa/São Paulo. We have lady who had an heart attack and was taken to the hospital with no life. Now the hospital refuses to return the body to the family, alleging that the death was caused by the chinese virus.

>(no way that I'm going to type in all caps like this hoaxnigger) Here in Manaus, my cousin had a sudden illness, he got taken to the hospital and they quickly intubated him, he passed away on the next day. They didn't even want to talk to the family and engraved SARS-COV-2 as the cause of death. He didn't even had a flu, he had diabetes and hypertension.

Brownzil might be the country with the highest numbers of hoaxniggers, even more so than Burgerland. Actually, it's possible we have more hoaxniggers than the entire internet combined, because these retards don't understand the virus has a plethora of different symptoms and makes people drop either dead or in critical condition. Both of these deaths were droppers, especially the second one, clearly an asymptomatic carrier whose time in this world had run out. So many hoaxniggers are claiming their relatives are dying of "unrelated" causes and the doctors are putting Corona-Chan as the cause of death in order to inflate the numbers. When actually, they are either dying from the virus's many different symptoms or are asymptomatic carriers that later drop dead. So remember this if you see a Brownzilian hoaxnigger claiming the numbers are being inflated and they're assigning every death as Corobella-Sama, those retards have no idea how the virus works at all. Those negroids don't even know that being blessed while having underlying health issues is pretty much a death sentence.

Number of blessed inmates at Roraima's public jail rises to 4. Just posting this because four is a very good number for Corobella-Sama.

/Ourgirl/ is hindering the harvest of grains in Roraima. I wonder if food shortages over here are possible, we do have plenty of farms so I have an hard time seeing that happening.

Corona-Chan already blessed two Apefrican villages in Pernambuco. Those nignogs are about to experience a world of pain.

[LOWER YOUR VOLUME, LOUD NOISES] The Vila Formosa cemetery in São Paulo is using a team of diggers to make new graves for Corobella's future victims

<https://archive.vn/3hRsN>

>Look at this, people, we're still here at the Vila Formosa cemetery, and this is what they're doing. Opening graves, opening graves, opening graves. Look at this, all the machines are working. This one is more on the general focus but if you look at the back, people are working. Companies...look at that. Contracted companies are working here for the opening of graves. This thing is...I don't even...it's surreal, right? An extremely difficult situation. Aren't they doing this because they're expecting the arrival of new corpses? Prepare yourselves. The man's advise is sound.

You're kinda right about that but the cops do go after the commies when they chimpout too hard, It's just very rare. I do find it hard to sympathize with our zogbots, given the fact they enforce the disarmament of law abiding citizens. I will never forget the news of cops confiscating a granny's musket for absolutely no reason whatsoever, though I did forget the state where that happened. I think it was in Minas Gerais but I'm not sure. There was also an incident in a northeastern state were cops lied in wait at the road that led to a legal shooting range just so they could bother legal gun owners and try to fine them for bullshit reasons and take their guns.

It's a good thing that you're feeling love for Corona-Chan but it's bad that you saw yourself dying. She would not take you from this world if she deemed you worthy of living. Have faith in yourself and in her as well.

>What the fuck just happened?

Either an ordinary visualization that happened out of love or you had a vision meaning you will get infected and die. I seriously hope it's the former and not the latter.

>CNS guy is there actually something to the Corobella spiritual stuff? Does this sound like anything you have ever felt?

Just a lil note: CNS stands for Coronian Newsposting Service. Of course the metaphysical world is real and I have felt things like that and so much more. I myself have had the strongest feeling that the time of my departure is running
